

His Brothers Child

Thomas Mann

His Brothers Child:

Joseph and His Brothers Thomas Mann, 2005-05-10 This remarkable new translation of the Nobel Prize winner's great masterpiece is a major literary event. Thomas Mann regarded his monumental retelling of the biblical story of Joseph as his magnum opus. He conceived of the four parts: The Stories of Jacob, Young Joseph, Joseph in Egypt, and Joseph the Provider as a unified narrative, a mythological novel of Joseph's fall into slavery and his rise to be lord over Egypt. Deploying lavish persuasive detail, Mann conjures for us the world of patriarchs and pharaohs, the ancient civilizations of Egypt, Mesopotamia, and Palestine, and the universal force of human love in all its beauty, desperation, absurdity, and pain. The result is a brilliant amalgam of humor, emotion, psychological insight, and epic grandeur. Now the award-winning translator John E. Woods gives us a definitive new English version of Joseph and His Brothers that is worthy of Mann's achievement, revealing the novel's exuberant polyphony of ancient and modern voices, a rich music that is by turns elegant, coarse, and sublime. Totemism and Exogamy Sir James George Frazer, 1910 Seven sons; or, The story of Malcolm and his brothers, by Darley Dale Darley Dale, Francesca Maria Steele, 1884 The Southern Nilo-Hamites G. W. B. Huntingford, 2017-02-10 Routledge is proud to be re-issuing this landmark series in association with the International African Institute. The series originally published between 1950 and 1977 collected ethnographic information on the peoples of Africa using all available sources: archives, memoirs, and reports as well as anthropological research which in 1945 had only just begun. Concise, critical, and for its time accurate, the Ethnographic Survey contains sections as follows: Physical Environment, Linguistic Data, Demography, History, Traditions of Origin, Nomenclature, Grouping, Cultural Features, Religion, Witchcraft, Birth, Initiation, Burial, Social, Political, Organization, Kinship, Marriage, Inheritance, Slavery, Land Tenure, Warfare, Justice, Economy, Trade, Domestic Architecture. Each of the 50 volumes will be available to buy individually, and these are organized into regional sub-groups: East Central Africa, North Eastern Africa, Southern Africa, West Central Africa, Western Africa, and Central Africa, Belgian Congo. The volumes are supplemented with maps available to view on routledge.com or available as a pdf from the publishers. Brothers George Howe Colt, 2012-11-27 Blends history and memoir in an account that in alternating chapters explores the author's quest to understand the impact of his brothers on his life and the complex relationships between iconic brothers including the Thoreaus, the Van Goghs, and the Marxes. A New Edition of the Thesawaleme Henry Francis Mutukisna, 1862 Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World Christian Laes, Ville Vuolanto, 2016-11-10 Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World explores what it meant to be a child in the Roman world, what were children's concerns, interests, and beliefs, and whether we can find traces of children's own cultures. By combining different theoretical approaches and source materials, the contributors explore the environments in which children lived, their experience of everyday life, and what the limits were for their agency. The volume brings together scholars of archaeology and material culture, classicists, ancient historians, theologians, and scholars of early Christianity and Judaism, all of whom have long been involved in the study of the social and cultural history of children The topics discussed include children's living environments clothing childhood care social relations leisure and play health and disability upbringing and schooling and children's experiences of death While the main focus of the volume is on Late Antiquity its coverage begins with the early Roman Empire and extends to the early ninth century CE The result is the first book length scrutiny of the agency and experience of pre modern children
