His Majesty's Fraser Fencible Regiment:

His Majesty's Fraser Fencible Regiment of Foot 1794-1802 John Firebrace, Alan Rawlings, 1993      Standing Rules and Regulations of His Majesty's Regiment of Fraser Fencible Infantry, Issued by Colonel Simon Fraser, at Tuam, 1798 Great Britain. Army. Fraser's Regiment of Fencible Infantry, Simon Fraser, 1798      Standing Rules and Regulations of His Majesty's Regiment of Fraser Fencible Infantry Simon Fraser, Fraser Fencibles, 1798      Wellington's Highland Warriors Stuart Reid, 2010-06-15 Wellington's Highland Warriors covers the early history of the British Army's Highland regiments from the raising of the Black Watch in 1739 to the battle of Waterloo in 1815 Stuart Reid provides an entertaining and thoroughly original study of the circumstances in which the regiments were authorized and recruited not just in the Highlands but all across Scotland so that Highlanders and Scotchmen became synonymous It also tells the story of how they acquitted themselves in almost every corner of the globe from the bogs of Ireland to the burning plains of India and in the process earning for themselves a reputation which is literally second to none Each chapter follows a theme based around the experiences of one particular regiment and employs extensive but careful use of contemporary correspondence and memoirs to let those involved tell the story in their own words The story is a fascinating one which reveals the very different expectations and experiences of Highland soldiers filled with engaging rogues such as Simon Fraser and Allan Cameron of Erracht with stories of bitter feuds as rival chieftains and Highland proprietors battled each other for recruits and those recruits themselves who were more than capable of giving as good as they got demanding and receiving legally binding concessions from their landlords turned recruiters and then like George Gordon from the Cabrach striding forth in high dress with his sword by his side to announce his new profession in a calculated display of swank quite incomprehensible to his English counterparts      Regulations. 1798, 1798      The Bulletin, 2006      Historical Records of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders, 1909      The London Gazette, 1806      Journal of the Society for Army Historical Research Society for Army Historical Research (London, England), 2007      Territorial Soldiering in the North-east of Scotland During 1759-1814 John Malcolm Bulloch, 1914      The Descendants of John Conrad Carkner U.E.L. Thomas Walter Carkner, 1992      Historical Records of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders Great Britain. Wilson, 2013-05-01 The expansion of the British Empire during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries created the greatest mass migration in human history in which the Irish and Scots played a central complex and controversial role The essays in this volume explore the diverse encounters Irish and Scottish migrants had with Indigenous peoples in North America and Australasia The Irish and Scots were among the most active and enthusiastic participants in what one contributor describes as the greatest single period of land theft cultural pillage and casual genocide in world history At the same time some settlers attempted to understand Indigenous society rather than destroy it while others incorporated a romanticized view of Natives into a radical critique of European society and others still empathized with Natives as fellow victims of imperialism These essays investigate the extent to which the condition of being Irish and Scottish affected settlers attitudes to Indigenous peoples and examine the political social religious cultural and economic dimensions of their interactions Presenting a variety of viewpoints the editors reach the provocative conclusion that the Scottish and Irish origins of settlers were less important in determining attitudes and behaviour than were the specific circumstances in which those settlers found themselves at different times and places in North America Australia and New Zealand Contributors include Donald Harman Akenson Queen s John Eastlake College Cork Marjory Harper Aberdeen Andrew Hinson Toronto Michele Holmgren Mount Royal Kevin Hutchings Northern British Columbia Anne Lederman Royal Conservatory of Music Patricia A McCormack Alberta Mark G McGowan Toronto Ann McGrath Australian National Cian T McMahon Nevada Graeme Morton Guelph Michael Newton Xavier P draig Siadhail Saint Mary s Brad Patterson Victoria University of Wellington Beverly Soloway Lakehead and David A Wilson Toronto     A History of the Scottish Highlands, Highland Clans and Highland Regiments John S.
