Literature and Liminality Gustavo Pérez Firmat,1986 Recent literary studies and related disciplines have given much attention to phenomena that seem to occupy more or less permanently eccentric positions in our experience Gustavo Perez Firmat examines three of these marginal or liminal phenomena paying particular attention to the distinction between center and periphery as they appear in Hispanic literature Carnival the traditional festival in which normal behavior is overturned choteo an insulting form of humor and disease are three liminal entities discussed Less an attempt to frame a general theory of such liminalities than an effort to demonstrate the interpretive power of the liminality concept this work challenges conventional boundaries of critical sense and offers new insights into a variety of questions among them the notion of convertability in psychoanalysis and the relation of New World culture to its European forebears

Women in Hispanic Literature Beth Miller,2024-06-28 The topics covered by this pioneering collection of essays range from peninsular Spanish to Latin American literature from the eleventh to the twentieth centuries and from the subject of women as portrayed in Hispanic literature to the literature of Hispanic women writers Some pieces present polemical feminist arguments other are more traditional All the contributors use their subject to take new stands on old controversies ask new questions and reevaluate important aspects of Hispanic literature While there is ample evidence in these essays of the dual archetype in Hispanic literature of women as icon and woman as fallen idol the collection reaches beyond these stereotypes to more complex sociological and theoretical concerns Although such research has ben abundantly pursued by scholars of English and American literature it has been notably absent from Hispanic studies This anthology is a comprehensive introduction to its subject and a stimulus to further work in the area Contributors Fernando Alegria Electa Arenal Julianne Burton Alan Deyermond Rosalie Gimeno Harriet Goldberg Estelle Irizarry Kathleen Kish Luis Leal Linda Gould Levine Melveena McKendrick Francine Masiello Beth Miller Elizabeth Ord ez Rachel Phillips Marcia L Welles This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1983
