1987 this second edition in 1992 the Handbook of Latin American Literature offers readers the opportunity to explore this literary history in the English Language and constitutes an ideological approach to Latin American Literature It provides both concise information concerning particular authors works and literary traditions of Latin America as well as comprehensive material about the various national literatures of the area This book will therefore be of interest to Hispanic scholars as well as more general readers and non Hispanists

A Storyteller Braulio Muñoz, 2000 In A Story Teller Braulio Muñoz offers a critical appraisal of Mario Vargas Llosa's literary and political production from a sociotheoretical perspective He engages the debate concerning the role of the writer in Latin America the merits and shortcomings of modernist and postmodernist thought and the differences between neoliberalism and alternative democratic positions

Sacred Eroticism Juan Carlos Ubilluz, 2006 Sacred Eroticism addresses a neglected chapter in Latin American literature namely the influence of Georges Bataille and Pierre Klossowski's atheist mysticism in the Latin American erotic novel of the twentieth century Combining a Lacanian analytical framework with an Inter textualist approach Juan Carlos Ubilluz reveals how Julio Cortázar Salvador Elizondo Mario Vargas Llosa and Juan García Ponce adopted Bataille and Klossowski's aesthetic and philosophical models as a point of departure to rearticulate the modern subject's buried dimension of the sacred through various innovations on the erotic novel's form Ubilluz examines the dialectical irruption of these literary experiments into their particular aesthetic theoretical and political contexts showing for instance that Cortázar's

Celebrations and Connections in Hispanic Literature Andrea Morris, Margaret Parker, 2009-03-26 The volume Celebrations and Connections in Hispanic Literature is itself a celebration of a tradition of scholarly dialogue in a relaxed festive atmosphere The articles included here began as papers presented at the 25th Anniversary Edition of the Biennial Louisiana Conference on Hispanic Languages and Literatures held in Baton Rouge Louisiana February 23-24 2006 Each of the authors responds in innovative ways to the idea of connecting texts contexts and genres as well as to the disconnect that is often present between what we perceive as Hispanic identity and the experience of those left on the margin Topics include Celebrating and Rewriting Difference De colonized Identities Word and Image in the Spanish Golden Age and Latin American Literature and Politics among others The collection is demonstrative of current trends in Hispanic literary and cultural criticism which are increasingly less bound by traditional regional and temporal constructs While each author's research is rooted in a specific socio historic context their combined contributions to the present volume provide a far reaching perspective that expands the notion of text to go beyond the literary and engage a multitude of disciplines it emphasizes the often illuminating connections among literary and cultural texts which can be drawn when one conceives of Hispanism and its literary and cultural fields as shaped by trends and issues rather than divided by periods and regions What strikes me most is the newness of each piece While each is very well informed none rehearses old historical or theoretical ground more than is absolutely necessary but rather presents either a new or overlooked text or offers a new approach Leslie Bary University of Louisiana Lafayette An impressive array of well established and younger scholars has produced a volume whose scope is the entire Hispanic world extending from the Golden Age to the contemporary era This volume will be of interest to all scholars and critics of Hispanic literature as well as to historians and political scientists Many of the essays challenge traditional assumptions about the colonization of the Hispanic world as well as the motivations for the revolutions for independence whose influence is still strongly alive in contemporary treatments of fundamental questions of national identity race class and gender C Chris Soufas Jr Tulane University Arguedas / Vargas Llosa Mabel Moraña, 2016-06-08 An English language translation of the MLA Katherine Singer Kovacs Prize and LASA Premio Iberoamericano award winning Spanish language book Arguedas Vargas Llosa Dilemas y ensamblajes Mabel Mora a offers the first comparative study of two of contemporary Latin America s central literary figures Mario Vargas Llosa and Jose Maria Arguedas Art from a Fractured Past Cynthia E. Milton, 2014-02-21 Art from a Fractured Past is an interdisciplinary collection examining how Peruvians are representing and attempting to make sense of the violence of the 1980s and 1990s through art including drawings monuments fiction theater and cinema Fictional Environments Victoria Saramago, 2020-11-15 Finalist 2022 ASLE Ecocritical Book Award Fictional Environments Mimesis Deforestation and Development in Latin America investigates how fictional works have become sites for the production of knowledge imagination and intervention in Latin American environments It investigates the dynamic relationship between fictional images and real places as the lasting representations of forests rural areas and deserts in novels clash with collective perceptions of changes like deforestation and urbanization From the backlands of Brazil to a developing Rio de Janeiro and from the rainforests of Venezuela and Peru to the Mexican countryside rapid deforestation took place in Latin America in the second half of the twentieth century How do fictional works and other cultural objects dramatize resist and intervene in these ecological transformations Through analyses of work by Jo o Guimar es Rosa Alejo Carpentier Juan Rulfo Clarice Lispector and Mario Vargas Llosa Victoria Saramago shows how novels have inspired conservationist initiatives and offered counterpoints to developmentalist policies and how environmental concerns have informed the agendas of novelists as essayists politicians and public intellectuals This book seeks to understand the role of literary representation or mimesis in shaping sustaining and negotiating environmental imaginaries during the deep ongoing transformations that have taken place from the 1950s to the present Do the Americas Have a Common Literature? Gustavo Pérez Firmat, 1990 This volume takes an important step toward the discovery of a common critical heritage that joins the diverse literatures of North America and Latin America Traditionally literary criticism has treated the literature of the Americas as New World literature examining it in relation to its Old World usually European counterparts This collection of essays redirects the Eurocentric focus of earlier scholarship and identifies a distinctive pan American consciousness The essays here place the literature of the Americas in a hemispheric context by drawing on approaches derived from various schools of contemporary critical thought Marxism feminism culture studies semiotics reception aesthetics and poststructuralism As part of their search for a distinctly New World literary idiom the contributors engage not only the major North American and Spanish American writers but also such marginal or minor literatures as Chicano African American Brazilian and Qu becois In identifying areas of agreement and confluence this work lays the groundwork for finding historical ideological and cultural homogeneity in the imaginative writing of the Americas Contributors Lois Parkinson Zamora David T Haberly Jos David Sald var Antonio Ben tez Rojo Jos Piedra Doris Sommer Enrico Mario Sant Eduardo Gonz lez John Irwin Wendy B Faris Ren Prieto Jonathan Monroe Gustavo P rez Firmat

Imagining Modernity in the Andes Priscilla Archibald, 2011-01-06 Imagining Modernity in the Andes deals with the intersection of projects of modernity and cultural representation in the Andes The Peruvian novelist and anthropologist Jos Mar a Arguedas occupies a privileged place in a study that charts the social cultural and intellectual transformations that took place in the Andes throughout the twentieth and early twenty first centuries In its examination of political and literary indigenistas of the 1920s applied anthropology in the 1950s the novelistic response to emigration and urbanization the theory of transculturation in the era of transnationalism and the appearance of new visual technologies in a cultural context long defined by the oral textual divide Imagining Modernity in the Andes conducts the type of interdisciplinary approach which a full appreciation for the heterodoxies of Andean cultural production makes indispensable The Cambridge

Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel s history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel Garc a M rquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation Mario Vargas Llosa

De Castro, N. Birns, 2010-10-11

Mario Vargas Llosa is a heterogeneous writer whose positions have often not been consistent from novel to novel between his fictional and nonfictional work between his literary and political commentary and as his political commentary has proceeded over the decades This analysis of his work reveals his insights into socio political matters Studies of Literature from Marginalized Nations in Modern China, with a Focus on Eastern European Literature Binghui Song,2024-04-14 This book presents the first systematic study of the 100 year history of translation research reception and influence of Central and Eastern European literature in China from the late Qing Dynasty to the end of the twentieth century This study of Eastern European literature from the perspective of Sino foreign literary relations is based on extensive research into the translation and reception of Central and Eastern European writers such as Milan Kundera S ndor Pet fi Henryk Sienkiewicz Julius Fucik and Bertolt Brecht Since the late nineteenth century the major Chinese writers have paid special attention to the literature of the marginalized Eastern European nations when they have to translate from translations since few of them understand Eastern European languages The book seeks to identify what attracted the founders of new Chinese literature to Eastern European literature and to define its unique significance for the construction of modern Chinese literature Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro,2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro s and Pinochet s dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro s expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Mart in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel Garc a M rquez in Colombia and Roberto Bola o in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history
