Norden, 1994 Filmmakers have often encouraged us to regard people with physical disabilities in terms of pity awe humor or fear Others who somehow deserve to be isolated from the rest of society In this first history of the portrayal of physical disability in the movies Martin Norden examines hundreds of Hollywood movies and notable international ones finds their place within mainstream society and uncovers the movie industry's practices for maintaining the status quo keeping people with disabilities dependent and in their place Norden offers a dazzling array of physically disabled characters who embody or break out of the stereotypes that have both influenced and been symptomatic of society's fluctuating relationship with its physically disabled minority. He shows us sweet innocents like Tiny Tim, obsessive avengers like Quasimodo, variations on the disabled veteran, and many others. He observes the arrival of a new set of stereotypes tied to the growth of science and technology in the 1970s and 1980s and underscores movies like My Left Foot and The Waterdance that display a newfound sensitivity. Norden's in-depth knowledge of disability history makes for a particularly intelligent and sensitive approach to this long overlooked issue in media studies.

Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds Nicholas J. Karolides, Margaret Bald, 2014-05-14. Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Revised Edition profiles the censorship of many such essential works of literature. The entries new to this edition include extensive coverage of the Harry Potter series which has been frequently banned in the United States on the grounds that it promotes witchcraft as well as entries on two popular textbook series The Witches by Roald Dahl and Women Without Men. A Novel of Modern Iran and more. Also included are updates to such entries as The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie and On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin. Here in their own words are Frederick Douglass, George Jackson, Chief Joseph, Martin Luther King Jr, Plough Jogger, Sacco and Vanzetti, Patti Smith, Bruce Springsteen, Mark Twain, and Malcolm X to name just a few of the hundreds of voices that appear in Voices of a People's History of the United States edited by Howard Zinn and Anthony Arnove. Paralleling the twenty-four chapters of Zinn's A People's History of the United States, Voices of a People's History is the long-awaited companion volume to the national bestseller. For Voices, Zinn and Arnove have selected testimonies to living history: speeches, letters, poems, songs left by the people who make history happen but who usually are left out of history books: women, workers, nonwhites. Zinn has written short introductions to the texts which range in length from letters or poems of less than a page to entire speeches and essays that run several pages. Voices of a People's History is a symphony of our nation's original voices, rich in ideas and actions, the embodiment of the power of civil disobedience and dissent wherein lies our nation's true spirit of defiance and resilience.
