range of sources from the black press and periodicals to literary fiction and nonfiction the book charts the development of critical representation of travel from the foundational press and periodicals which offered African Americans crucial information on travel precautions and possibilities notably during the era of Jim Crow to the woefully understudied literary fiction that would later provide some of the most compelling and lasting portrayals of the freedoms and constraints African Americans associated with travel Travel experiences often challenging and vexed provided the raw data with which writers produced images and ideas meaningful as they learned to navigate negotiate and even challenge racialized and gendered impediments to their mobility In their writings African Americans worked to realize a vision and state of freedom informed by those often difficult experiences of mobility In telling this story the book hopes to center literary fiction in studies of travel where fiction has largely remained absent The Repressed Expressed Ndi, Bill F., Ankuma, Adaku T., 2017-01-17 Through multiple points of resistance The Repressed Expressed underscores how hard it is to build a community in any nation with no beneficial qualities of hope and transparency This informative collection of essays highlights that wherever stability and order are lacking the universal appeal is to express that which is suppressed Also like a map or guidebook The Repressed Expressed indicates how people in such geographical prisons strive to transform their agitation into spiritual and political pathways free of pain and hurt from and anger towards a dirty and corrupted world It thus underpins discord and brings to the fore the authority's penchant for heaping abuse upon those caused to live in fear In short The Repressed Expressed is an impressive compilation of literary evidence informing scholarship on opinions and beliefs relating to repression its expression and the immeasurable associated cost Their Eyes Were Watching God and Jonah's Gourd Vine Kimberly A. Tuai-Ault, 2007

Zora Neale Hurston Cheryl R. Hopson, 2024-08-04 The life work and legacy of one of the twentieth century's most published African American women This book explores the life and legacy of Zora Neale Hurston 1891-1960 the most published African American woman of the first half of the twentieth century Famous today as the author of Their Eyes Were Watching God Hurston was also an anthropologist and a folklorist In this new biography Cheryl Hopson casts Hurston as a modern woman on the move particularly as a collector of stories in and around the Jim Crow South Hopson details her rejection by the Harlem Renaissance as well as her recovery by Black feminists such as Alice Walker years after her death The result is an accessible and fresh account of the celebrated writer s life and work Where the New World Is Martyn Bone,2018-01-15 Where the New World Is assesses how fiction published since 1980 has resituated the U S South globally and how earlier twentieth century writing already had done so in ways traditional southern literary studies tended to ignore Martyn Bone argues that this body of fiction has over the course of some eighty years challenged received readings and understandings of the U S South as a fixed place largely untouched by immigration or even internal migration and economic globalization The writers discussed by Bone emphasize how migration and labor have reconfigured the region s relation to the nation and a range of transnational scales hemispheric Jamaica the Bahamas Haiti transatlantic Black Atlantic Denmark England Mauritania and transpacific global southern Australia China Vietnam Writers under consideration include Zora Neale Hurston Nella Larsen John Oliver Killens Russell Banks Erna Brodber Cynthia Shearer Ha Jin Monique Truong Lan Cao Toni Morrison Peter Matthiessen Dave Eggers and Laila Lalami The book also seeks to resituate southern studies by drawing on theories of scale that originated in human geography In this way Bone also offers a new paradigm in which the U S South is thoroughly engaged with a range of other scales from the local to the global making both literature about the region and southern studies itself truly transnational in scope Black Womanist Ethics Katie G. Cannon,2006-02-09 This study articulates the distinctive moral character of the Afro American women s community Beginning with a reconstructive history of the Afro American woman s situation in America the work next traces the emergence of the Black woman s literary tradition and explains its importance in expressing the moral wisdom of Black women The life and work of Zora Neale Hurston is examined in detail for her unique contributions to the moral tradition of the Afro American woman A final chapter initiates a promising exchange between the works of Hurston and those of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr A pioneering and multi dimensional work Black Womanist Ethics is at once a study in ethics gender and race
