Lasker's work is often considered bizarre yet it is one of the most influential in contemporary abstract art In the late 1970s and early 1980s a period when everything was in flux when Abstract Expressionism Minimalism and Color Field painting were no longer formally binding Lasker succeeded like no one else in realizing themes such as referentiality figuration genuine materiality and corporeality even aspects of the decorative and pictorial The tastefully executed paintings and carefully crafted objects of the 1960s had reached the end of their days in terms of form there was a recourse to styles and materials that not only served artists as art historical sources but as New Image painting patterns and decorations and resulted in new artistic content In short abstraction as understood and applied by Jonathan Lasker had reached the postmodern age This volume shows a series of beautiful preliminary studies of this process on paper as well as large format oil paintings from 1977 to 1981 that demonstrate their radical pictorial implementation Jonathan Lasker Jonathan
