of Swift's verse to appear in more than thirty years. Reading Swift's Poetry offers detailed readings of dozens of major poems as well as neglected and recently recovered pieces. This book reaffirms Swift's prominence in competing literary traditions as diverse as the pastoral and the political, the metaphysical and the satirical, and demonstrates the persistence of unlikely literary tropes across his multifaceted career. Daniel Cook also considers the audacious ways in which Swift engages with Juvenal's satires, Horace's epistles, Milton's epics, Cowley's odes, and an astonishing array of other canonical and forgotten writers.

Representations of Swift Brian A. Connery, 2003. These thirteen essays offer not only the representations of Swift to which its title refers but also a representation of Swift scholarship at the close of the twentieth century and a return to fundamental questions about the life, writing, and views of Swift. Issues raised in part by literary scholarship's return to historicism but also powerfully suggestive of a return to biography.

Notes on Footnotes Melvyn New, Anthony W. Lee, 2022-11-18. This collection presents fourteen essays on annotating eighteenth-century literature. Authored by editors and annotators of current standard editions such as California's Works of John Dryden, the Florida Edition of the Works of Laurence Sterne, and the Yale Edition of the Works of Samuel Johnson, this book explores theoretical perspectives on critical editing and the practical work of annotation. Through examples from their own editorial work, the contributors illuminate the personal dilemmas and decisions confronting the annotator of texts: What information in the text needs annotation? When does one stop annotating? How does one manage the annotation versus interpretation problem? Brimming with erudition, Notes on Footnotes showcases the precision and attentiveness of some of the world's foremost editors and annotators. The book is necessary reading not only for scholars of the eighteenth century but also for scholarly editors of texts of all historical periods: book historians and book lovers in general. In addition to the editors, the contributors include Kate Bennett, Robert DeMaria Jr., Michael Edson, Robert D. Hume, Stephen Karian, Elizabeth Kraft, Thomas Lockwood, William McCarthy, Maximilian E. Novak, Shef Rogers, Robert G. Walker, and Marcus Walsh.
