A Book Review Pratyusha Guha, 2016-08-16 Literature Review from the year 2016 in the subject History Asia grade 8 Presidency College Kolkata language English abstract The malicious practice of the Caste system has formed an essence of Indian society without any parallel of the same significance The Caste system has consolidated a hierarchical division of society in which people are subjected to various privileges or discrimination owing to their birth in a family belonging to a particular caste Whether the caste system was a colonial construction or an ancient curse requires a separate debate In this paper an autobiography by Omprakash Valmiki who was said to be a Dalit an outcaste belonging to the lowest echelon of society has been reviewed In it he has described daily struggles in the life of a low born While the world had cheered the process of decolonization and applauded the new notions of humanitarian values and worth of every human life India which was soon to be the largest democracy could hardly break away from the shackles of the loathsome caste system Valmiki has given us insights into the functioning of Dalit lives in the post independence era that brought about changes in official documents and legal procedures but without much resonance of them in practical application Indian Literature: An Introduction University of Delhi, 2005-09 Voices Of histories of caste and the making of modern India The essays that follow examine the challenges and opportunities faced by Dalits in modern India Several explore the distinct trajectories of Dalit groups in their search for religious dignity They reveal that conversion to Christianity as well as reinterpretations of indigenous religious traditions such as Buddhism and the Sant mat religion associated with Raidas and Kabir have helped to reconstitute untouchable selfhood Other essays probe the struggle against caste by analyzing changes in sartorial choices secular work historical interpretation and views of domestic space Drawing from literary and archival sources as well as ethnographical fieldwork this collection illustrates the connected histories of religion politics literature and history Dalit Autobiography: A Critical Study Dipak Giri,2025-03-01

Dalit Autobiography is a distinctive literary form in the sense that it shifts from personal I to communal we This shifting from individual to communal differentiates such autobiographies from mainstream autobiographies where the autobiography mainly centers round personal experiences of the autobiographer concerned On the other hand Dalit Autobiographies deal not only with the individual writer but also with the community he or she belongs to Transformation of individualistic I into communal we makes such autobiographies completely distinctive literary form Such autobiography reflects not only Dalit life and suffering but also their voice of protest and resistance In this sense Dalit autobiographers are activists and writers as well Among Dalit autobiographers irrespective of gender there are innumerable autobiographies written by male and female Dalit writers The present book is my little endeavour to articulate the voice of Dalit autobiographers which is often neglected by the mainstream socio cultural life Dalits in the New Millennium Sudha Pai,D. Shyam Babu,Rahul Verma,2023-11-16

Dalits in the New Millennium interrogates the major aspects of Dalit experience in multiple spheres and traces how Dalit politics is no longer merely content with desire for social justice but has become more assertive and aspirational in its demands The volume represents the individual voices of the editors and contributors who are eminent academics and activists and situates Dalit life amidst all the major changes that have occurred over the last three decades It aims to provide a more holistic approach to studying the community s socio economic and political life in the new millennium and adds to the existing literature on Dalit politics focusing especially on the changes that are taking place in the realm of electoral politics popular culture political economy ideological worldview and representation among others Citizenship in Dalit and

Indigenous Australian Literatures Riya Mukherjee,2023-10-06 Citizenship in Dalit and Indigenous Australian Literatures examines the difference in citizenship as experienced by the communities of Dalits in India and Aboriginals in Australia through an analysis of select literature by authors of these marginalised groups Aligning the voices of two disparate communities the author creates a transnational dialogue between the subaltern communities of the two countries India and Australia through the literature produced by the two communities The Covid 19 pandemic has made the divide that exists between the performative citizenship rights enjoyed by the Dalits and the aboriginals and the respective dominant communities of their countries more apparent The author addresses the issue of this disparity between discursive and performative citizenship through a detailed analysis of select Dalit and Australian aboriginal autobiographies in particular the works by Dalit autobiographers Baby Kamble and Aravind Malagatti and aboriginal autobiographers Alice Nannup and Gordon Briscoe The book uses the dominant tropes of the individual autobiographies as a background to unfurl the denial of citizenship both in the discursive and the performative form using the parameters of equal citizenship In doing so the author also raises important groundbreaking questions How is the performativity of citizenship foregrounded by the Dalits and aboriginals in the literary counter public How does this foregrounding evoke violent retribution from the dominant sections And does the continued violation of performative citizenship point to the dysfunctionality of the performative citizenship status accorded to the Dalits and the aboriginals Questioning the liberal legacy of political civil and social citizenship this book will be of interest to researchers studying Dalit and Aboriginal Literature Interdisciplinary Literary Studies and World Literature South Asian Studies and researchers dealing with the question of citizenship

A History of Prejudice

Gyanendra Pandey, 2013-03-25 This is a book about prejudice and democracy and the prejudice of democracy In comparing the historical struggles of two geographically disparate populations Indian Dalits once known as Untouchables and African Americans Gyanendra Pandey the leading subaltern historian examines the multiple dimensions of prejudice in two of the world's leading democracies The juxtaposition of two very different locations and histories and within each of them of varying public and private narratives of struggle allows for an uncommon analysis of the limits of citizenship in modern societies and states Pandey with his characteristic delicacy probes the histories of his protagonists to uncover a shadowy world where intolerance and discrimination are part of both public and private lives This unusual and sobering book is revelatory in its exploration of the contradictory history of promise and denial that is common to the official narratives of nations such as India and the United States and the ideologies of many opposition movements

The Dynamics of Conflict and Peace in Contemporary South Asia

Minoru Mio,Kazuya Nakamizo,Tatsuro Fujikura,2020-12-23 This book engages with the concept true value and function of democracy in South Asia against the background of real social conditions for the promotion of peaceful development in the region In the book the issue of peaceful social development is defined as the conditions under which the maintenance of social order and social development is achieved not by violent compulsion but through the negotiation of intentions or interests among members of society The book assesses the issue of peaceful social development and demonstrates that the maintenance of such conditions for long periods is a necessary requirement for the political economic and cultural development of a society and state Chapters argue that through the post colonial historical trajectory of South Asia it has become commonly understood that democracy is the better if not the best political system and value for that purpose Additionally the book claims that while democratization and the deepening of democracy have been broadly discussed in the region the peace that democracy is supposed to promote has been in serious danger especially in the 21st century A timely survey and re evaluation of democracy and peaceful development in South Asia this book will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Studies Peace and Conflict Studies and Asian Politics and Security

Abraham, Judith Misrahi-Barak, 2022-11-22 This companion is the first study of caste and its representation in Indian cinema. It unravels the multiple layers of caste that feature directly and indirectly in Indian movies to examine not only the many ways caste pervades Indian society and culture but also how the struggle against it adopts multiple strategies. The companion critiques Indian cinema production through the lens of anti-caste discourse. It traces the history of films beginning from the early twentieth century, focusing on caste representations across India, including Hindi, Malayalam, Kannada, Marathi, Bengali, Punjabi, and Tamil, as well as silent films. It makes a foray into OTT media and includes analysis of popular films such as Padmaavat, Masaan, Fandry, Sairat, Sujata, Article 15, Chomana Dudi, Lagaan, Court, Ee Ma Yau, Kaala, Pariyerum Perumal, Perariyathavar, among many others, to critique and problematise the idea of caste.
