Fine Arts Library, 1971 Plants and Politics in Padua During the Age of Revolution, 1820-1848 Ariane Dröschner, 2021-10-22 This book highlights the close interactions between plants plant knowledge politics and social life in Padua during the age of revolution It explores the lives and thoughts of two brothers the lawyer Andrea Meneghini and the botanist Giuseppe Meneghini illustrating the unspoken dreams of progress and a new social order but also sheds light on the ambiguous relationship between the Paduan elite and Austrian rule before the 1848 revolution A closer look at park designs gardening associations and networks flower exhibitions agricultural societies organicist metaphors and botanical research on the organization of living bodies opens up unexpected parallels between actors and ideas of two apparently distant areas botany and political economy Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1900): ser. 4 , 1884-1900 Royal Society (Great Britain), 1914 Contemporary Artists Muriel Emanuel, Jean Christophe Ammann, 1983 Studio International , 1983 National Union Catalog , 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Resisting Postmodern Architecture Stylianos Giamarellos, 2022-01-10 Since its first appearance in 1981 critical regionalism has enjoyed a celebrated worldwide reception The 1990s increased its pertinence as an architectural theory that defends the cultural identity of a place resisting the homogenising onslaught of globalisation Today its main principles such as acknowledging the climate history materials culture and topography of a specific place are integrated in architects education across the globe But at the same time the richer cross cultural history of critical regionalism has been reduced to schematic juxtapositions of the global with the local Retrieving both the globalising branches and the overlooked cross cultural roots of critical regionalism Resisting Postmodern Architecture resituates critical regionalism within the wider framework of debates around postmodern architecture the diverse contexts from which it emerged and the cultural media complex that conditioned its reception In so doing it explores the intersection of three areas of growing historical and theoretical interest postmodernism critical regionalism and globalisation Based on more than 50 interviews and previously unpublished archival material from six countries the book transgresses existing barriers to integrate sources in other languages into anglophone architectural scholarship In so doing it shows how the periphery was not just a passive recipient but also an active generator of architectural theory and practice Stylianos Giamarellos challenges long held central notions of supposedly international discourses of the recent past and outlines critical regionalism as an unfinished project apposite for the 21st century on the fronts of architectural theory history and historiography Studio , 1966-07 World Collectors
