Jose Benjamin A Critical Introduction 1920 1936:

José Bergamín Nigel Dennis, 1986-01-01 Writer critic and cultural activist Jos Bergamín 1895 1983 was unjustly relegated to the sidelines of contemporary Spanish intellectual life for reasons that have more to do with his political dissidence and long periods of exile than with the interest and importance of his written work This book represents the first attempt to come to terms with that work Professor Dennis's study focuses on the period 1920 1936 the so called silver age of Spanish literature during which Bergamín rose to prominence alongside a group of superlatively gifted writers and friends among them Federico García Lorca Rafael Alberti Jorge Guillén and Pedro Salinas It sets out to explain the nature of the relationship Bergamín had as a critic and prose writer with the major poets of the 1920s and 1930s and at the same time systematically examines the singularity of his own work as an aphorist essayist and dramatist Professor Dennis also devotes attention to explaining the sense of Bergamín's initiative in founding the important journal Cruz y Raya 1933 1936 and the role this publication played both culturally and politically during the troubled years of the Second Republic This book not only fills a notable gap in our understanding of pre Civil War literary and intellectual life in Spain but also lays the foundation for all future research into the work of this fascinating and enigmatic writer Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993

Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Books in Print, 1987 The Influence of the Novels of Jean Giraudoux on the Hispanic Vanguard Novels of the 1920s-1930s Susan Nagel, 1991 Giraudoux was a well known novelist for some twenty years before the appearance of his first drama His novels were published in Europe and North and South America and until this book no study has been made to trace the path of his influence as a novelist in the international arena Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Annual Report - Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, 1987

Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1987 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals The Translation Studies Reader Lawrence Venuti, 2012 A definitive survey of the most important developments in translation theory and research with an emphasis on the twentieth century This new edition includes pre twentieth century readings and readings from other fields Childhood and Child Labour in the British Industrial Revolution Jane Humphries, 2010-06-24 This is a unique account of working class childhood during the British industrial revolution first published in 2010 Using more than 600 autobiographies written by working men of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Jane Humphries illuminates working class childhood in contexts untouched by conventional sources and facilitates estimates of age at starting work social mobility the extent of apprenticeship and the duration of schooling The classic era of industrialisation 1790 1850 apparently saw an upsurge in child labour While the memoirs implicate mechanisation and the division of labour in this increase they also show that fatherlessness and large subsets common in these turbulent high mortality and high fertility times often cast children as partners and supports for mothers struggling to hold families together The book offers unprecedented insights into child labour family life careers and schooling Its images of suffering stoicism and occasional childish pleasures put the humanity back into economic history and the trauma back into the industrial revolution The Shelf List of the Union Theological Seminary Library in New York City Union Theological Seminary (New York, N.Y.). Library,1960 Speaking in Tongues: A Critical Historical Examination Philip E. Blosser,Charles A. Sullivan,2022-09-16 In three carefully researched volumes this ground breaking study examines the gift of tongues through 2 000 years of church history Starting in the present and working back in time these volumes consider 1 the modern redefinition of tongues as a private prayer language 2 the church's perennial understanding of tongues as ordinary human languages and 3 the Corinthian tongues which in light of Jewish liturgical tradition turn out to have been a foreign liturgical language Hebrew or Aramaic requiring bilingual interpreters In the first volume the authors establish that modern glossolalia far from being a supernatural gift enjoyed by certain believers since the time of Pentecost and undergoing a resurgence in modern times has no precedent in church life prior to the nineteenth century They discuss why German theologians responding to the Irvingite revival coined the term glossolalia in the 1830s why Pentecostals between 1906 8 quietly began redefining tongues to mean a heavenly language unintelligible to human beings but pleasing to God instead of foreign languages useful for evangelism why Protestant cessationists believed miraculous tongues had ceased and why interpolated idioms like unknown tongues in Protestant Bibles were aimed originally at Rome's use of Latin Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office, National Library of Medicine National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1959 Collection of incunabula and early medical prints in the library of the Surgeon general's office U S Army Ser 3 v 10 p 1415 1436 Index Catalog of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1959 Historia de España Menéndez Pidal José Ángel García de Cortázar,2000

Archiveology Catherine Russell uses the work of Walter Benjamin to explore how the practice of archiveology the reuse recycling appropriation and borrowing of archival sounds and images by filmmakers provides ways to imagine the past and the future Noting how the film archive does not function simply as a place where moving images are preserved Russell examines a range of films alongside Benjamin s conceptions of memory document excavation and historiography She shows how city films such as Nicole V dr s s Paris 1900 1947 and Thom Andersen s Los Angeles Plays Itself 2003 reconstruct notions of urban life and uses Christian Marclay s The Clock 2010 to draw parallels between critical cinephilia and Benjamin s theory of the phantasmagoria Russell also discusses practices of collecting in archiveological film and rereads films by Joseph Cornell and Rania Stephan to explore an archival practice that dislocates and relocates the female image in film In so doing she not only shows how Benjamin s work is as relevant to film theory as ever she shows how archiveology can awaken artists and audiences to critical forms of history and memory
