Josep Maria Jujol:

Josep Maria Jujol Dennis Dollens, 1994 Josep Maria Jujol 1879 1949 created some of Spain's greatest modern buildings in a style known as modernisme the Barcelona equivalent of art nouveau In one decade between 1913 and 1923 the young architect built five works that entitle him to be classified as a pioneer of Modernism yet Jujol a collaborator with Antoni Gaudí on some of that master's most admired works has been largely unrecognized and his independent architecture unknown Josep Maria Jujol Five Major Buildings places the architect's work in the highly charged religious and political context of Barcelona from the late 19th century through the Spanish Civil War and on to the time of Jujol's death in 1949 This book considers Jujol's career as parallel to but not part of the nascent avant garde emerging from Barcelona's café Els Quatre Gats and the Galleries Dalmau with which Picasso Duchamp Dalí Sert and Miró were at one time associated Josep Maria Jujol Five Major Buildings traces the architect's development in this and Gaudí's conservative religious environment as well as in a broader European frame It also considers Jujol's use of symbolic abstract calligraphy collage and painting as advanced semiotic elements in an extraordinary amalgamation of craft material technique and space fused into visionary architecture
