Joseph Beuys and the Artistic Education Carl-Peter

Buschkühle, 2020-03-23 Joseph Beuys significantly influenced the development of art in recent decades through his expanded definition of art. In his art and reflections on art, he raised far-reaching questions on the nature of art and its central importance for modern education. His famous claim "Every human is an artist" points to the fundamental ability of every human to be creative in the art of life with respect to the development of one's own personality and one's actions within society. Beuys saw society as an artwork in a permanent process of transformation, a social sculpture in which every person participated and for which everyone should be educated as comprehensively as possible. Beuys describes pedagogy as central to his art. This book thus examines important aspects of Beuys's art and theory and the challenges they raise for contemporary artistic education. It outlines the foundational theoretical qualities of artistic education and discusses the practice of artistic projects in a series of empirical examples. The author Carl Peter Buschkühle documents projects he has undertaken with various high school classes. In additional chapters, Mario Urla discusses the great value of artistic projects in primary school, and Christian Wagner reflects on his collaboration with the performance artist Wolfgang Sautermeister and school students in a socially disadvantaged urban area. Artistic education has become one of the most influential art pedagogical concepts in German-speaking countries. This book presents its foundations and educational practices in English for the first time.

Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckenburger, Christiane

Fricke, 2000 The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13. This edition combines the two volumes into one; its paperbound flexi cover has a plastic coating, smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets. None of whom should pass it by. The scope is encyclopedic; half the work originally. The first volume is devoted to painting, the other half to sculpture, new media and photography. Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion. The final section, a lexicon of artists, includes a small black and white photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work, writings and exhibitions. Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians, curators and writers, as is editor Walther. c. Book News Inc.
