Conrad's Western World traces the sources of Heart of Darkness Nostromo The Secret Agent and some of the short stories related to these novels As in his highly acclaimed Conrad's Eastern World Professor Sherry provides an interesting blend of biographical reconstruction and investigation into the originals of the main incidents and characters Kurtz Nostromo Verloc and many of the minor figures as well It has been possible to show in the study of Conrad's source material a movement away from analyses of personal experience or the narrated experiences of others to a manipulation of material entirely outside the bounds of his own experience This change reveals also a movement in interest from personal and private dilemmas to wider and more public concerns and shows Conrad developing a progressive sense of the frightening underside of human society Finally Professor Sherry considers the play of Conrad's mind over his source material and traces the development of individual works from the given sources to the completed fiction This reconstruction of Conrad's original materials and the tracing of their development into literary works of great distinction gives us a unique insight into Conrad's preoccupations and art      Joseph Conrad, Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 2017-08-31 Heart of Darkness centers around Marlow an introspective sailor and his journey up the Congo River to meet Kurtz reputed to be an idealistic man of great abilities Marlow takes a job as a riverboat captain with the Company a Belgian concern organized to trade in the Congo As he travels to Africa and then up the Congo Marlow encounters widespread inefficiency and brutality in the Company's stations The native inhabitants of the region have been forced into the Company's service and they suffer terribly from overwork and ill treatment at the hands of the Company's agents      Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 1999-08-10 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best novels of all time Nominated as one of America's best loved novels by PBS's The Great American Read Introduction by Caryl Phillips Commentary by H L Mencken E M Forster Virginia Woolf Ernest Hemingway Bertrand Russell Lionel Trilling Chinua Achebe and Philip Gourevitch Originally published in 1902 Heart of Darkness remains one of this century's most enduring works of fiction Written several years after Joseph Conrad's grueling sojourn in the
