Learning Disabilities Educational Principles And Practices:

Learning Disabilities; Educational Principles and Practices Doris J. Johnson, Helmer R. Myklebust, 1967 Encyclopedia of Special Education Cecil R. Reynolds, Elaine Fletcher-Janzen, 2007-01-02 Offers a thoroughly revised comprehensive A to Z compilation of authoritative information on the education of those with special needs Learning Disabilities Jeffrey P. Bakken, Festus E. Obiakor, Anthony F. Rotatori, 2013-01-25 Addresses various perspectives and issues related to learning disabilities This book includes chapters Inclusion and Students with Learning Disabilities Reading Instruction and Students with Learning Disabilities Written Instruction and Students with Learning Disabilities and Mathematics Instruction and Students with Learning Disabilities Understanding Learning Disabilities Drake Duane, 2012-12-06 The authors of the papers presented in this volume are either members of the International Study Group on Special Educational Needs or their representatives This is a small seminar convened by invitation involving participants from the United Kingdom North America Europe and New Zealand The membership is multi disciplinary and all the participants have a professional interest in some aspect of special educational needs Several historical patterns played a part in the development of the seminar one being the evolution in England and Wales of special education legislation growing out of the Warnock Committee Report This legislation in turn has been influenced by the special education developments in the United States which led to the passage of The Education of All Handicapped Children Act Public Law 94 142 in 1975 A second theme leading to the development of the seminar was the growing international interest in learning disabilities and the establishment at the University of Southampton in England of the Learning Disabilities Unit headed by Colin Stevenson Discussions in 1979 and 1980 held at conferences of the Association for Citizens with Learning Disabilities the Orton Dyslexia Society meetings and elsewhere led to the proposal for a small international seminar meeting annually which would be concerned with research and education in the area of special educational needs The Lord Renwick then Chairman of the British Dyslexia Association and Colin Stevenson took the initiative in proposing that an International Conference be held at the University of Southampton

Learning Disorders Peter Westwood, 2017-07-14 What are learning disorders How can schools endeavour to address these disorders in today's inclusive classrooms This book answers these important questions in practical terms and discusses in detail the instructional needs of students with dyslexia dysgraphia dyscalculia dyspraxia and other significant disorders that affect learning Peter Westwood draws on international research literature to provide supporting evidence of best practices The book is unique in linking the teaching methods recommended for overcoming learning problems directly to each of the three tiers of support in the Response to Intervention Model It presents examples of effective whole class teaching intensive small group instruction and individual tutoring as well as addressing key topics such as educational progress of students with learning disorders principles for teaching dyslexic students difficulties with writing and spelling developing students numeracy skills specific intervention strategies nonverbal learning disabilities Learning Disorders will be of interest to practising teachers trainee teachers teaching assistants educational psychologists school counsellors and parents It will also provide valuable insights for any school planning to upgrade its support system for students with special educational needs Learning Disabilities in Older Adolescents and Adults Lynda J. Katz, Gerald Goldstein, Sue R. Beers, 2005-12-11 Learning disabilities is a subject that is usually associated with school aged children where the research and intervention strategies are well known Much less research has been done for assessing and diagnosing older adolescents and adults in this area This work is an effort to provide a comprehensive review of what we know about certain of these disorders specifically language based learning disorders nonverbal learning disorders high functioning autism attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and mathematics disorders and how they manifest themselves in the later years of development and maturity A chapter addresses each one of these disorders of learning Included in each chapter is a discussion of historical perspectives definitions and diagnostic criteria incidence and prevalence data comorbidity studies pertinent research from all relevant fields of study reasonable accommodations in academia as well as the workplace and outcome data This much needed review will be of interest to clinicians in neuropsychology educational psychology and psychopharmacology Learning and Learning Difficulties Peter Westwood, 2013-05-24 This text explores a number of different perspectives and theories on human learning and motivation The author gives significant attention to different types of learning across the curriculum and examines effective types of teaching to facilitate different forms of learning Detailed consideration is given to factors that contribute to common learning problems in school and many practical suggestions are provided for preventing or overcoming some of these difficulties Learning Disabilities and Brain Function William H. Gaddes, 2013-04-17 Some may say that this book is long overdue others including myself will state that the book appears at just the right time The latter is likely more true for it is doubtful that many in the professions would until now link issues of learning disabilities with those of neurophysiological dysfunction in the manner in which ultimately must be the case As a matter of fact there are those who deny the relationship completely Lee Wiederholt 1974 1 in his short but excellent review of the historical perspectives of learning disabilities traces the early interest in this problem to the work of Gall 1802 and to his successors Broca 1861 Jackson 1864 Bastian 1869 and a few others Each of these men would at the time of this writing be considered to have interests in the field of neurology although at the time of their investigations neurology per se was but a gleam in the eye of the anatomical beholder A relative detour then took place Cerebral palsy in the decades of the 1940s and 1950s caught the attention of researchers through the work of Winthrop Morgan Phelps orthopedist and George Deaver physiatrist and one or two other medically oriented individuals This was related to the writings of W J Little 1810 1894 It was however Kurt Goldstein Heinz Wemer both eminent German scientists and Alfred A Theory and Practice of Early Reading L. B. Resnick, P. A. Weaver, 2013-12-16 First Published in 1979 These volumes explore the range and depth of our theoretical and practical knowledge about early reading instruction Contributors psychologists linguists instructional
