Learning from Experience Marilyn Charles, 2013-06-17 An important task facing all clinicians and especially challenging for younger less experienced clinicians is to come to know oneself sufficiently to be able to register the patient's experience in useful and progressively deeper ways In an effort to aid younger clinicians in the daily struggle to know thyself Marilyn Charles turns to key ideas that have facilitated her own clinical work with difficult patients Concepts such as container and contained transitional space projective identification and transference countertransference are introduced not as academic ideas but as aspects of the therapeutic environment that elicit greater creativity and vitality on the therapist's part In Charles's skillful hands the basic ideas of Klein Winnicott and Bion become newly comprehensible without losing depth and richness they come to life in the fulcrum of daily clinical encounter Working with Trauma Marilyn Charles, 2012 Working with Trauma Lessons from Bion and Lacan by Marilyn Charles takes concepts from the psychoanalytic literature and translates them into user friendly language In this book Charles focuses on clinical work with more severely disturbed patients for whom trauma has impeded their psychosocial development Introducing ideas from Bion and Lacan such as empty speech and attacks on linking she shows the reader their clinical utility Her use of clinical moments rather than more lengthy vignettes invites readers to recognize that type of dilemma and imagine how they might use the concept in their own work Authentic Movement Mary Starks Whitehouse, Patrizia Pallaro, 1999 Authentic Movement is a discipline aiding the creative process in choreography writing theatre and expressive arts This work traces its foundations principles developments and uses Breaking the Heart Open Tony Bates, 2023-09-28 Bestselling author and psychologist Tony Bates has spent his whole career examining and seeking to understand the lives of others Here he turns his therapeutic eye on himself and describes the events and people in his own life that have made him the insightful thinker and teacher that he is today Tony recalls traumatic events in his childhood that reverberated throughout his life for many years and describes how with therapy and time he was eventually able to heal those internal wounds He recounts the stories of people in pain that affected him most deeply and informed both the direction of his work and his philosophy as a psychologist By interweaving his own life story with reflections on how psychology and society treat people with mental health vulnerabilities Tony invites us to reflect with compassion on the meaning of emotional struggles in all our lives A searingly honest lucid and inspiring account of a life moving from deep childhood trauma to the hard earned wisdom of a wounded healer A compelling read and remarkable achievement Richard Kearney I was moved by Tony's honesty humbled by his courage fascinated by the way he used psychology to make sense of his personal suffering and inspired by the place he has arrived at this point in his life Beautifully written poetic in parts Tony's book is a treasure trove of wisdom Everyone should read it Alan Carr PHD What a generous gift so typical of Tony to those who need to know that in their loneliness or depression they are not alone Dr Mary McAleese This is an emotional read in which the psychologist bears their own soul and highlights why they are so skilled at
