Curriculum Books William Henry Schubert, 2002. This edition expands on the original publication from the late 1970s. Curriculum Books: The First Eighty Years. It covers some 3 000 curriculum books appearing in the U S from roughly 1900 to 2000, used to educate school administrators, teachers, aspiring educators, educational scholars and the wider public about curriculum. Each chapter focuses on a single decade, providing background on the sociocultural, intellectual, artistic and scientific developments of the time, a discussion of major curriculum movements, trends, books and authors, and yearly bibliographies of curriculum books published in that decade. The second edition includes two new chapters covering the 1980s and 1990s, new commentary woven into the original introduction, and a new concluding chapter. Boundless Horizons Billie J. Askew, Barbara Watson, 2009. Boundless Horizons tells the extraordinary story of Marie Clay's lifelong search for new possibilities in teaching young children to read and write. She pursued a tantalising quest: What is possible for children with reading problems? What would have to change? Observing young readers in ordinary classrooms, she uncovered explanations of how children take on literacy learning and how that learning changes over time. From those discoveries arose the internationally successful literacy intervention for children having temporary difficulty: Reading Recovery.
