

A person is silhouetted against a sunset sky, holding a fishing rod. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the water and sky. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

Least Of These My Brethren:

A Christology of Solidarity William L. Kynes, 1991 The Gospel of Matthew begins by depicting Jesus as the focus of the history of Israel and ends with Jesus commissioning the creation of a new community composed of people from all nations the church The center of the gospel is Jesus the Messiah but he stands between two communities Israel and the church In this study the author proposes to examine the christology of Matthew's gospel by exploring the theme of Jesus solidarity with his people focusing on Jesus representative role in his relationship both with Israel and the Church Contents Introduction Jesus and His People in Matthew's Gospel Jesus The True Son of God Sonship and the New Community The Miracle working Authority of the Son Like Master Like Disciple The Yoke of the Son The Messiah and His People in Suffering and Glory The Authority of Christ in His Church The Christological Transfer of the Kingdom The Son of Man and His Lowly Brethren The Faithful Son and the Forgiveness of Sins Disciples of the Risen Lord Conclusion Jesus as the Representative of His People Bibliography

These Brothers of Mine Rob Dalrymple, 2015-05-11 While the conflict in the Middle East continues to fester many Christians advance a theology that perceives these events to be the hand of God Has God truly brought the Jewish people back to the land in fulfillment of biblical prophecies Must we truly bless Israel in order to be blessed by God Lost in the midst of the turmoil over the Holy Land reside Christian communities Has the church in an effort to see prophecy fulfilled failed to care for the least of these brothers of mine This book steps into this controversial topic with several aims First Dalrymple answers two key questions Are the Jews still God's chosen people And does the Holy Land belong to them Dalrymple contends that just as Jesus is the fulfillment of God's purpose for the Temple so also Jesus is the fulfillment of the promises to Abraham that he would receive the Holy Land and an uncountable number of descendants Dalrymple also responds to some of the common assertions set forth by Christian Zionists Many might still ask Why should I care about what happens in Israel and Palestine The fact is that we must care And we must alert the Church that we must care Too much is at stake We have Christian brothers and sisters throughout the Middle East in general and in the Holy Land in particular who have been directly impacted by our theological opinions As a result the Church cannot be silent It must not be silent

Barnes' Notes on the NT (Barnes) Albert Barnes, Verse by verse the author covers the entire New Testament carefully and understandably explaining every verse and offering a practical application for Christian living Discourses on Several Subjects and Occasions George Horne, 1795

The Formation of Hell Alan E. Bernstein, 2020-06-30 What becomes of the wicked Hell exile from God subjection to fire worms and darkness for centuries the idea has shaped the dread of malefactors the solace of victims and the deterrence of believers Although we may associate the notion of hell with Christian beliefs its gradual emergence depended on conflicting notions that pervaded the Mediterranean world more than a millennium before the birth of Christ Asking just why and how belief in hell arose Alan E Bernstein takes us back to those times and offers us a comparative view of the philosophy poetry folklore myth and theology of that formative age Bernstein draws on sources from ancient Egypt Mesopotamia Greece Rome and Israel as well as early Christian writings through Augustine in order to reconstruct the story of the prophets priests poets and charismatic leaders who fashioned concepts of hell from an array of perspectives on death and justice The author traces hell's formation through close readings of works including the epics of Homer and Vergil the satires of Lucian the dialogues of Plato and Plutarch the legends of Enoch the confessions of the Psalms the prophecies of Isaiah Ezechiel and Daniel and the parables of Jesus Reenacting lively debates about the nature of hell among the common people and the elites of diverse religious traditions he provides new insight into the social implications and the psychological consequences of different visions of the afterlife This superb account of a central image in Western culture will captivate readers interested in history mythology literature psychology philosophy and religion

Grant Me Wisdom Matthew Henry, 2022-07-01 Looking for enduring truth Matthew Henry delivers In Grant Me Wisdom you'll find 365 thoughtful readings drawn from the work of the English nonconformist minister Matthew Henry 1662-1714 author of the beloved Commentary on the Whole Bible Though he lived in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Matthew Henry has much to say to Christians of today His exhaustive verse by verse commentary encourages a fully committed deeply personal relationship with Jesus Christ and Grant Me Wisdom compiles his most powerful thoughts under monthly themes such as Faith Prayer Bible Study Worship Christian Duty Spiritual Warfare Each entry in Grant Me Wisdom has been lightly updated for modern style Read on to find the substance your soul craves

The Divine Verdict John Gwyn Griffiths, 1991 The theme of divine judgement has often been treated but usually with a concentration on one of its two main aspects either that which is seen in the present life and in history or that which is believed to occur only after death This new study seeks to combine the two aspects It also tries to cover the whole spectrum of the ancient religions Special attention is given to Israel Greece and Egypt Israel's neighbours are also considered and there are discussions of Judaism Christianity and Zoroastrianism In several areas notably in Egypt and Israel it is shown that punishment in this life is sometimes presented as a fate that man brings upon himself rather than as one imposed by God though always against a moral background derived from religion The origins of judgement after death in the Judaeo-Christian tradition are examined in some detail and elements are traced to Egyptian Zoroastrian and Judaic sources

Out of the Treasure Jan Lambrecht, 1992 Out of the Treasure is a major new study of the parables of Jesus as these are presented in the Gospel according to Matthew It grapples with what these fascinating yet familiar tales meant for Jesus' own audience for Matthew's readership and for the men and women of our own times Jan Lambrecht S.J. is Professor Emeritus of New Testament and former dean 1985-1990 of the Faculty of Theology of the Catholic University of Leuven Since 1984 he has been a member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission His last book-length publication on the parables was Once More Astonished The Parables of Jesus New York Crossroad 1981
