Turkson, Frère Thomas Michelet, 2016-09-01 Le 24 mai 2015 pour la première fois dans l'histoire de l'Église un pape publiait une encyclique sur l'écologie Laudato si Cela constituait un événement mondial majeur tant pour le 1 278 milliard de catholiques que pour la cause écologique De nombreuses voix se sont exclamées Enfin nous avons notre pape vert Pourtant on disait déjà cela de Benoît XVI Et l'on aurait pu le dire aussi de Jean Paul II Paul VI lui parle de catastrophe écologique dès 1970 dans un discours la F A O Depuis des décennies le Saint-Siège intervient aux Nations unies et dans les conférences internationales sur l'environnement le développement durable ou le climat Le Vatican est d'ailleurs le premier État écologique au monde avec un bilan carbone neutre zéro mission de CO2 et des toits couverts de panneaux solaires Depuis près de cinquante ans les papes nous parlent d'écologie Depuis la place Saint Pierre ou du fond de l'Amazonie Leurs 50 textes les plus importants sont enfin ici réunis présentés par le frère Thomas Michelet Un instrument d'étude indispensable Le frère Thomas Michelet dominicain de la province de Toulouse enseigne à l'Université pontificale Saint Thomas d'Aquin Angelicum Rome Préface du cardinal Peter K A Turkson président du Conseil pontifical Justice et Paix Désarroi devant la mort Réjean Boivin, 2022-05-04 T00:00:00-04:00 Ce livre présente une réflexion sur l'essor actuel du mouvement pour la mort volontaire Plus précisément l'ouvrage propose une genalogie de ce mouvement qui s'est accentué au Québec Paradoxalement la Loi concernant les soins de fin de vie défend simultanément les soins palliatifs et l'euthanasie Réjean Boivin détaille ici la particularité du modèle québécois qui présente l'euthanasie comme une aide médicale mourir Une revue de littérature permet de faire la genèse de cette position et d'évaluer le désarroi existentiel contemporain Avec le secours de l'anthropologie philosophique de Paul Tillich 1886-1965 l'auteur articule la problématique autour de l'aliénation existentielle de l'être humain affligé par l'angoisse de la mort L'analyse philosophique met en lumière le fait que le problème de l'euthanasie est une question essentiellement religieuse Ce livre s'adresse toute personne qui s'interroge sur la finitude ainsi qu'aux soignants qui sont investis en contexte d'extrême vulnérabilité et qui réfléchissent aux implications éthiques que soulève le mouvement pour la mort volontaire face à la philosophie des soins palliatifs Revue thomiste ,1981 Écologie et libération humaine Thomas Sieger Derr, 1974 Aanwinsten van de Centrale Bibliotheek (Queteletfonds) Bibliothèque centrale (Fonds Quetelet), 2002 The Human Right to Water: Justice . . . or Sham? Evelyn Fiechter-Widemann, 2017-05-05 Water is a matter of life and death Advanced technology and engineering enable humans to gain better access to it Nonetheless the conditions and effort required to reach this goal remain colossal in many countries Building a lasting infrastructure for adequate treatment before and after use is costly Therefore the author believes that a radical change of thinking among people around the world from the domestic to the large scale users becomes a priority Even if the United Nations entitles all people to justice for water more responsible and ethical use of it by all interested parties is more important than the spreading of promises which in practice may turn out to be a sham Only a better understanding that access to water rests on the efforts of everyone without exception will reduce overuse waste and pollution of the indispensable resource This volume while written from a theological philosophical and legal perspective focusing on John Calvin John Rawls and Paul Ricoeur demonstrates that water cannot be merely understood as a human right but also has to be dealt with from an economic point of view as well as under the authority of the Golden Rule Bioethik im Spannungsfeld der Disziplinen Frank
