Francesco Tava, Darian Meacham

L'écrit Son Objet:

L'écrivain Caribéen, Guerrier de L'imaginaire Kathleen Gyssels, Bénédicte Ledent, 2008 This bilingual collection illustrates the concept of the Warrior of the Imaginary as defined by Patrick Chamoiseau in a multi faceted corpus of texts Francophone contributions explore the role of the Caribbean writer in works by Chamoiseau douard Glissant Daniel Maximin and Joseph Zobel Essays in English focus not only on familiar writers Dionne Brand Edwidge Danticat Wilson Harris Jamaica Kincaid Caryl Phillips Derek Walcott but also on less widely studied voices Robert Antoni Albert Helman Other contributions deal with such fighting areas as Afro Brazilian music film and Mutabaruka s militant poetry The whole testifies to a surprisingly coherent imaginary one that goes beyond the balkanization of the Caribbean archipelago Dans ce collectif bilingue le concept de Guerrier de l'imaginaire tel que défini par Patrick Chamoiseau est illustré par un corpus de textes variés Plusieurs des articles en français engagent directement le cycle romanesque de l'auteur martiniquais d'autres tendent à l'interrogation de la fonction de l'auteur caribéen en littérature glissantienne maximinienne et zobelienne tudes en anglais portent sur des écrivains dont le renom n'est plus à faire Dionne Brand Edwidge Danticat Wilson Harris Jamaica Kincaid Caryl Phillips Derek Walcott mais donnent aussi la parole des auteurs jusqu'à présent moins étudiés Robert Antoni Albert Helman Enfin quelques unes des contributions portent sur d'autres terrains de lutte comme la musique afro brésilienne le cinéma ou la poésie militante de Mutabaruka L'ensemble témoigne d'un imaginaire tonnamment confluant au-delà de la balkanisation de l'archipel caribéen

The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo Côte d'Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing

1975, □□□□ L'écrivain, le savant et le philosophe Eveline Pinto, 2003 Genres as Repositories of Cultural Memory, 2021-12-28 This volume deals with the inherent relation between literary genres and cultural memory Indeed generic repertoires may be regarded as bodies of shared knowledge a sort of encyclopaedia or museum of stocked culture and have played and still play an important role in absorbing and activating that memory The contributors have focused on some specific memory linked genres that prove especially relevant in remembering and transforming past experiences i e the post modern historical novel and various forms of post modern autobiographical writing They deal with such renowned authors as Carlos Fuentes Vargas Llosa Umberto Eco Antonio Tabucchi John Barth Julian Barnes Michel Butor Nathalie Sarraute Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Georges Perec and Marguerite Yourcenar The volume thus constitutes an attractive and representative sample of post modern forms of rewriting and problematizing individual and collective pasts

Thinking After Europe Francesco Tava, Darian Meacham, 2016-08-16 Jan Patocka perhaps more so than any other philosopher in the twentieth century managed to combine intense philosophical insight with a farsighted analysis of the idea and challenges facing Europe as a historical cultural and political signifier As a political dissident in communist Czechoslovakia he also became a moral and political inspiration to a generation of Czechs including Vclav Havel He accomplished this in a time of intense political repression when not even the hint of a unified Europe seemed visible by showing in exemplary fashion how concrete thought can be without renouncing in any way its depth Europe as an idea and a political project is a central issue in contemporary political theory Patocka s political thought offers many original insights into questions surrounding the European project Here for the first time a group of leading scholars from different disciplines gathers together to discuss the specific political impact of Patocka s philosophy and its lasting significance
