Torriano Berry,Venise T. Berry,2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema Black Directors in Hollywood Melvin Donalson,2010-01-01 An in depth look at the pioneering work and lasting influence of black Hollywood directors from Gordon Parks to Spike Lee and beyond Hollywood film directors are some of the world s most powerful storytellers shaping the fantasies and aspirations of people around the globe Since the 1960s African Americans have increasingly joined their ranks bringing fresh insights to the characters we watch and profoundly changing the way stories are told Today black directors are making films in all popular genres while inventing new ones to speak directly from and to the black experience This book offers a comprehensive look at the work of black directors in Hollywood from pioneers such as Gordon Parks Melvin Van Peebles and Ossie Davis to current talents including Spike Lee John Singleton Kasi Lemmons and Carl Franklin Discussing sixty seven individuals and over 135 films Melvin Donalson thoroughly explores how black directors storytelling skills and film techniques have widened both the thematic focus and visual style of American cinema Assessing the meanings and messages in their films Donalson convincingly demonstrates that black directors are balancing Hollywood s demand for box office success with artistic achievement and responsibility to ethnic cultural and gender issues New York Magazine ,1990-09-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Jet ,1986-11-10 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Jet ,1988-08-01 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news VideoHound's Golden Movie Retriever Jim Craddock,2001-08 New York Magazine ,1990-07-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1988-08-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Encyclopedia of African American Actresses in Film and Television Bob McCann,2022-09-23 The first work of its kind this encyclopedia provides 360 brief biographies of African American film and television actresses from the silent era to 2009 It includes entries on well known and nearly forgotten actresses running the gamut from Academy Award and NAACP Image Award winners to B film and blaxpoitation era stars Each entry has a complete filmography of the actress s film TV music video or short film credits The work also features more than 170 photographs some of them rare images from the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture Literary Adaptations in Black American Cinema Barbara Tupa Lupack,2002 By contrast in the works of black writers from Oscar Micheaux to Toni Morrison the black experience has been more fully more accurately and usually more sympathetically realized and from the early days of film select filmmakers have looked to that literature as the basis for their productions Videohound's Golden Movie
