Jon Jerde in Japan Cathie Gandel, 2000-06 Japanese developer Fukuoka Jisho wanted to build a project that would revive the city and called on the Jerde Partnership Considered as an important architectural work of the 20th century contextual yet flamboyant Canal City Hakata is a model of creative collaboration between two cultures Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1975 Japan Close-up, 2001 The Journal of the American Chamber of Commerce in Japan, 1997 Enhancing the City. Giovanni Maciocco, Silvia Serreli, 2009-09-30 Departing from a survey on the post modern landscapes of tourism this book explores the transformations the city has undergone and the way it has become a simulacrum offered to tourists spectacularised with the aim of increasing its capacity for attraction The experiences dealt with in the papers of authors belonging to different disciplinary fields emphasise the city's tendencies to create stage set contexts of the private type be it historic quarters theme parks or hypermarkets Issues like aestheticisation thematisation and genericity are dealt with conceptual categories that highlight the weak resistance cities put up against the rules of the leisure industry and more generally speaking the consumer economy The book inquires into the capacity of the urban and territorial project to construct a perspective for a public dimension of space This is linked with ethical action of the project involving an active relationship with places and a capacity to understand the dynamics of different urban populations In this sense capacity for innovation and creativity can contribute to transforming islands of leisure into places of the city and consumers into citizens Urban Design Alex Krieger, William S. Saunders, 2009-01-01 Collects essays written on the establishment and cultivation of urban design as a distinct architectural and planning practice fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Splintering Urbanism Steve Graham, Simon Marvin, 2002-09-11 Splintering Urbanism makes an international and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex interactions between infrastructure networks and urban spaces It delivers a new and powerful way of understanding contemporary urban change bringing together discussions about globalization and the city technology and society urban space and urban networks infrastructure and the built environment developed developing and post communist worlds With a range of case studies illustrations and boxed examples from New York to Jakarta Johannesburg to Manila and Sao Paulo to Melbourne Splintering Urbanism demonstrates the latest social urban and technological theories which give us an understanding of our contemporary metropolis The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design Graeme Brooker, Lois Weinthal, 2013-10-24 The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world Interior architecture and interior design are disciplines that span a complexity of ideas ranging from human behaviour and anthropology to history and the technology of the future Approaches to designing the interior are in a constant state of flux reflecting and adapting to the changing systems of history culture and politics It is this process that allows interior design to be used as evidence for identifying patterns of consumption gender identity and social issues The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design provides a pioneering overview of the ideas and arrangements within the two disciplines that make them such important platforms from which to study the way humans interact with the space around them Covering a wide range of thought and research the book enables the reader to investigate fully the changing face of interior architecture and interior design while offering questions about their future trajectory Responding to Chaos David N Buck, 2014-04-04 A celebration of a unique culture and its experience of design this sensitive text is a timely examination of Japanese design at the start of a new century The country's economic boom in the 1980s produced a surge of interest in land and building and consequently in design in all its forms From restaurant interiors to products from private housing to recreational spaces design received an unprecedented degree of attention However the bursting in the early 1990s of this so called bubble economy has prompted a re examination of design and its role in urban society Total Landscape, Theme Parks, Public Space Miodrag Mitrasinovic, 2006 Placing theme parks from the United States Europe and Asia in a comparative multidisciplinary framework this fascinating book argues that these fantasy environments are an extreme example of the totalization of public space By illuminating the relationship between theme parks and public space the book offers an insight into the ethos design and expectations of public space in the twenty first century Constructing Singapore Public Space Limin Hee, 2016-09-21 This book presents possible alternatives and interpretations to the well established notion in the mostly western discourse on public space The discourse on public space as understood in the democratic rationalist tradition when applied to the Singaporean public space would offer much criticism but would not be adequate in identifying alternative processes that allow for transformative potentials in public space Thus said the objectives of this book are 1 To develop a conceptual frame of reference to construct the discourse on Singapore public space 2 To form a preliminary model of Singapore public space through analyzing case studies 3 To understand the modes methods of production and representation of these public spaces within the rapidly changing urban context 4 To situate these constructions of public space and its possible trajectories within the larger discourse on public space and to examine the viability of such a construction and interpretive model of public space
