Jonah, Tobit, Judith Irene Nowell, 2016-12-01 These three colorful books offer gripping stories of how God shows his mercy and accomplishes his will through human actions Jonah is a reluctant prophet who must be swallowed by a whale before he delivers his message to Israel's ancient enemies at Nineveh that they must repent or face doom Tobit tells of the trials and tribulations of a family and the power of prayer as God sends an angel to guide Tobit's son Tobiah on a journey of resolution In the book of Judith a simple and courageous widow rather than an army saves her people from destruction by a powerful enemy This rich commentary explores the significant themes of each book showing that God is intimately involved with the destiny of humankind Esther, Judith, Tobit, Jonah, Ruth John Craghan, 1982-07-01 Esther, Judith, Tobit, Jonah, Ruth, 1982

Jonah's World Lowell K. Handy, 2014-12-05 The story of Jonah often read as a simple children's story is a multifaceted and elaborate narrative with serious intent Treating the biblical book as a fictitious story based on real locations and recognizable persons Jonah's World examines the background to the story and draws on social science approaches to describe its imaginative world The book explores the geography theology myth human characters natural landscape and the ideology behind the story to uncover a vision of reality shaped by literary technique Jonah's World will be invaluable to students and scholars seeking a new approach to the reading of this colourful text Esther, Judith, Ruth, Tobit, Jonah, 1963

Surprised by God Kindalee Pfremmer De Long, 2009-10-16 Scholars have long noted the prevalence of praise of God in Luke Acts This monograph offers the first comprehensive analysis of this important feature of Luke's narrative It focuses on twenty six scenes in which praise occurs studied in light of ancient Jewish and Greco Roman discourse about praise of deity and in comparison with how praise appears in the narratives of Tobit and Joseph and Aseneth The book argues that praise of God functions as a literary motif in all three narratives serving to mark important moments in each plot particularly in relation to the themes of healing conversion and revelation In Luke Acts specifically the plot presents the long expected visitation of God which arrives in the person of Jesus bringing glory to the people of Israel and revelation to the Gentiles The motif of praise of God aligns closely with the plot's structure communicating to the reader that varied and often surprising events in the story such as healings in Luke and conversions in Acts together comprise the plan of God The praise motif thus demonstrates the author's efforts to combine disparate source material into carefully constructed historiography

The Muratorian Fragment and the Development of the Canon Geoffrey Mark Hahneman, 1992 The Muratorian Fragment traditionally dated at the end of the second century is by far the earliest known list of the books of the New Testament It is therefore an important milestone in understanding the formation of the Christian canon of scriptures The traditional date of the fragment however was questioned in 1973 by Albert C Sundberg Jr in an article of the Harvard Theological Review that has since been generally ignored or dismissed In this book Dr Hahneman examines afresh the traditional dating of the fragment in a complete and extensive study that concurs with Sundberg's findings Arguing for a later placing of the fragment he shows that the entire history of the Christian Bible must be recast as a much longer and more gradual process As a result the decisive period of canonical history moves from the end of the second century into the midst of the fourth As a decisive contribution to our understanding of the nature of the New Testament canon this book will be of considerable importance and interest to New Testament scholars and historians of the early Church alike
