Patent and Trademark Office, 2000 Storytelling in Christian Art from Giotto to Donatello Jules Lubbock, 2006-01-01 Recounting the biblical stories through visual images was the most prestigious form of commission for a Renaissance artist In this book Jules Lubbock examines some of the most famous of these pictorial narratives by artists of the caliber of Giovanni Pisano Duccio Giotto Ghiberti Brunelleschi Donatello and Masaccio He explains how these artists portrayed the major biblical events such as the Sacrifice of Isaac the Annunciation the Feast of Herod and the Trial and Passion of Jesus so as to be easily recognizable and at the same time to capture our attention and imagination for long enough to enable us to search for deeper meanings He provides evidence showing that the Church favoured the production of images that lent themselves to being read and interpreted in this way and he describes the works themselves to demonstrate how the pleasurable activity of deciphering these meanings can work in practice This book is richly illustrated and many of its photographs have been specially taken to show how the paintings and relief sculptures appear in the settings for which they were originally designed Seen from these viewpoints they become more readily intelligible Likewise the starting point and the originality of Lubbock's interpretations lies in his accepting that these works of art were primarily designed to help people to reflect upon the ethical and religious significance of the biblical stories The early Renaissance artists developed their highly innovative techniques to further these objectives not as ends in themselves Thus the book aims to appeal to students scholars and the general public who are interested in Renaissance art and to those with a religious interest in biblical imagery The New York Times Monday Through Friday Easy to Tough Crossword Puzzles The New York Times,2002-06 The 1 Name in Crossword Puzzles The New York Times The New York Times Piece of Cake Crosswords The New York Times,Will Shortz,2006-09-19 Solve the Day Away Chosen from the Monday and Tuesday Times crosswords the easiest of the week this new collection is perfect for sitting relaxing and puzzling away
