After discovering a chilling plot planned by the Elders, Bruno flees, escaping to the mountains where a bunch of disparate young Rebels are planning a final attack on Pitch End. With secrets and betrayal lying around every corner, Bruno will find himself fighting not only for his life but the life of the town.

Jonathan's Friend Roberto Athayde, 2001-06-16 Mostly known for his play Miss Margaridas Way presented on Broadway starring Estelle Parsons and produced in more than 30 countries, Brazilian author Roberto Athayde writes both in English and Portuguese. Jonathan's Friend is a novel inspired by the author's own experience as a foreign student in the US. The narrator, Armando, is a composition major at the Music School of the University of Michigan in the spring of 1969. He is in the process of giving up music for writing. He finds out that a certain young composer is supposed to be in love with Jonathan, the best violinist in the music school, and that his passion is not reciprocated. Armando figures that such a story might be just what he needs to get on with his fiction. He strikes a friendship with the unhappy composer. But instead of merely finding material for a short story, the sensual Armando falls hopelessly in love with Jonathan's friend. Jonathan's Friend is a novel of budding passion played out amidst the notes of classical music. It was written by Roberto Athayde when the author was nineteen years old and has been withheld for more than thirty years.

It Sounds Like This Anna Meriano, 2022-08-02 A sweet and nerdy contemporary YA novel set in the world of marching band, perfect for fans of Late to the Party, Fat Chance, Charlie Vega and Kate in Waiting. As a former band kid, well-behaved, ideal Catholic kid, figuring myself out, kid It Sounds Like This shines with its relatability and heart. Yasmin and her seven Low Brassholes are a beautifully chaotic addition to the current body of queer, diverse Texas-set young adult stories and characters. Jonny Garza Villa, author of Pura Belpré honor book Fifteen Hundred Miles from the Sun, Yasmin Trevi didn't have much of a freshman year thanks to Hurricane Humphrey, but she's ready to take sophomore year by storm. That means mastering the marching side of marching band fast so she can outshine her BFF Sofia as top of the flute section, earn first chair, and impress both her future college admission boards and her comfortably unattainable drum major crush, Gilberto Reyes. But Yasmin steps off on the wrong foot when she reports an anonymous gossip Instagram account harassing new band members and accidentally gets the entire low brass section suspended from extracurriculars. With no low brass section, the band is doomed, so Yasmin decides to take things into her own hands, learn to play the tuba, and lead a gaggle of rowdy freshman boys who are just as green to marching and playing as she is. She'll happily wrestle an ancient school tuba if it means fixing the mess she might have caused But when the secret gossip Instagram escalates their campaign of harassment and Yasm n s friendship with Sofia deteriorates things at school might be too hard to bear Luckily the support of Yasm n s new section especially introverted section leader Bloom a sweet ace and aro spectrum boy might just turn things around
