German Bestseller in the Late Nineteenth Century Charlotte Woodford, Benedict Schofield, 2012 A much needed look at the fiction that was actually read by masses of Germans in the late nineteenth century and the conditions of its publication and reception The late nineteenth century was a crucial period for the development of German fiction Political unification and industrialization were accompanied by the rise of a mass market for German literature and with it the beginnings of the German bestseller Offering escape romance or adventure as well as insights into the modern world nineteenth century bestsellers often captured the imagination of readers well into the twentieth century and beyond However many have been neglected by scholars This volume offers new readings of literary realism by focusing not on the accepted intellectual canon but on commercially successful fiction in its material and social contexts It investigates bestsellers from writers such as Freytag Dahn Jensen Raabe Viebig Stifter Auerbach Storm M Ilhausen Marlitt Suttner and Thomas Mann The contributions examine the aesthetic strategies that made the works such a success and writers attempts to appeal simultaneously on different levels to different readers Bestselling writers often sought to accommodate the expectations of publishers and the marketplace while preserving some sense of artistic integrity This volume sheds light on the important effect of the mass market on the writing not just of popular works but of German prose fiction on all levels Contributors Christiane Arndt

Wits, 1890-1938 Harold B. Segel, 1993 Segel's extensive introduction provides a wealth of information concerning the social political and cultural background of turn of the century Vienna The eight artists assembled here are concerned with their world Austria and particularly Vienna They exchange ideas argue gossip tell stories read each other's works and even write in the coffeehouse Josefine Mutzenbacher Felix Salten, 1976 Women, Emancipation and the German Novel 1871-1910 Charlotte Woodford, 2017-12-02 In novels written at the end of the long nineteenth century women in Germany and Austria engaged with some of the most pressing social questions of the modern age Charlotte Woodford analyses a wide range of such works many of them largely forgotten in the context of the contemporary cultural discourses that informed their creation such as writings on pacifism and socialism prostitution birth control and sexually transmitted diseases Women s experience of contemporary medicine as patients and doctors is a fascinating theme treated here by several authors Through a close reading of works by Marie von Ebner Eschenbach Minna Kautsky Gabriele Reuter Helene Bohlau Ilse Frapan Hedwig Dohm Lou Andreas Salome and others this study shows how writers determination to validate women s experience of the problems of modernity informed the aesthetic development of the novel by women Josefine Mutzenbacher Felix Salten,1992
