Joseph Conrad A Psychoanalytic Biography:

Joseph Conrad Bernard C. Meyer, 1967 Joseph Conrad Bernard Constant Meyer, 2016-04-19 Joseph Conrad once voiced the hope that from the reading of his pages might emerge at last the vision of a personality the man behind the books a coherent justifiable personality both in its origin and its actions Dr Meyer arrives at a unified picture of Conrad's personality by applying psychoanalytic principles and insights to two main sets of data on Conrad his unusual history and his creative work Basic psychological and emotional patterns appear repetitively and Dr Meyer concludes that Conrad's art served an important psychological function in his life the achievement through his creative fiction of a corrective revision of painful reality Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Joseph Conrad Bernard C. Meyer, 1967

Joseph Conrad--comparative Essays Adam Gillon, 1994 This collection of essays continues Adam Gillon's comparatist approach to Joseph Conrad which he exhibited in three previous books The Eternal Solitary A Study of Joseph Conrad 1960 and 1964 Conrad and Shakespeare and Other Essays 1976 and Joseph Conrad Twayne English Authors Series 1982 In the present collection Gillon extends his perspectives by examining the affinities between Conrad's descriptive art and painting and film Gillon presents a variety of new views and insights as he traces the connections between Conrad and such writers as Henry James and Vladimir Nabokov and compares Conradian characters Prince Roman and Peer Ivanovitch Gillon's Polish background looms large in this collection His mastery of the Polish language is apparent in the discussion of two Polish novels about Conrad's early life and in his translation of excerpts from these novels The first and last chapters offer moving glimpses of Gillon's own Polish footprints his initiation into Conrad lore and the visit to his native land after a long absence The intimacy and wry humor of these recollections are evident also in his essay about adapting Conrad to film which is illustrated with excerpts from his scripts Under Western Eyes and Dark Country his screenplay inspired by Heart of Darkness and Conradian themes A native of Poland Adam Gillon is professor emeritus of English and comparative literature at the State University of New York New Paltz He has lectured at universities in Canada Israel and Europe His numerous publications include critical studies of Conrad fiction poetry translations articles and reviews He has written award winning plays for screen stage and radio He wrote directed and produced a feature film The Bet Gillon is president of the Joseph Conrad Society of America and founder and senior editor of its newsletter Joseph Conrad Today Raymond Brebach is an associate professor of humanities at Drexel University He is a contributing editor for the Cambridge Edition of the Works of Joseph Conrad and he edits Joseph Conrad Today the newsletter of the Joseph Conrad Society of America He has written on the collaboration of Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford Joseph Conrad: Betrayal and Identity Robert Hampson, 2016-07-27 Through attention to incidents of betrayal and self betrayal in his fiction this book traces the development of Conrad's conception of identity through the three phases of his career the self in isolation the self in society and the sexualised self It shows how the early fiction negotiates the opposed dangers of the self ideal and the surrender to passion how the middle fiction tests the ideal code psychologically and ideologically and how the late fiction probes sexuality and morbid psychology Joseph Conrad Bruce Teets, 2020-04-30 Originally published in 1990 this is a comprehensive and annotated bibliography of the writings on Joseph Conrad and his works Covering the years from 1895 to 1975 it also includes indexes of authors secondary works periodicals and newspapers foreign languages and primary titles Part of a series of annotated bibliographies on English Literature in Transition 1880-1920 this will be a valuable resource for students of literature Conrad's Secrets R. Hampson, 2012-08-13 Conrad's Secrets explores a range of knowledges which would have been familiar to Conrad and his original readers Drawing on research into trade policing sexual and financial scandals changing theories of trauma and contemporary war crimes the book provides contexts for Conrad's fictions and produces original readings of his work Conrad's Later Novels Gary Geddes, 1980-01-01 Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell, 2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France Conrad's Marlow Paul Wake, 2013-07-19 Various described as the average pilgrim a wanderer and a Buddha preaching in European clothes Charlie Marlow is the voice behind Joseph Conrad's Youth 1898 Heart of Darkness 1899 Lord Jim 1900 and Chance 1912 Conrad's Marlow offers a comprehensive account and critical analysis of one of Conrad's most celebrated creations asking both who and what is Marlow a character or a narrator a biographer or an autobiographical screen a messenger or an interpreter a bearer of truth or a misguided liar Reading Conrad's fiction alongside the work of Walter Benjamin Maurice Blanchot Jacques Derrida and Martin Heidegger and offering an investigation into the connection between narrative and death this book argues that Marlow's essence is located in his liminality in his constantly shifting position and that the emergence of meaning in his stories is at all points bound up with the process of his storytelling

The Transformation of the English Novel, 1890-1930 D. Schwarz, 1995-02-27 In an exciting and important book The theoretical chapters are a model of elegantly styled accommodation yet they brook no fudging of the issues no comfortable ambiguities Modern Fiction Studies The Transformation of the English Novel 1890 1930 Studies in Hardy Conrad Joyce Lawrence Forster and Woolf is a provocative exploration of a crucial period in the development of the English novel integrating critical theory historical background and sophisticated close reading Divided into two major sections the first shows how historical and contextual material is essential for developing powerful readings The second section is theoretical and speaks of the transformation in the way that we read and think about authors readers characters and form in the light of recent theory offering an alternative to the deconstructive and Marxist trends in literary studies

Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives

Conrad's Narratives of Difference Lissa Schneider, 2013-12-16 In Joseph Conrad's tales representations of women and of feminine generic forms like the romance are often present in fugitive ways Conrad's use of allegorical feminine imagery fleet or deferred introductions of female characters and hybrid generic structures that combine features of masculine tales of adventure and intrigue and feminine dramas of love or domesticity are among the subjects of this literary study Many of Conrad's critics have argued that Conrad's fictions are aesthetically flawed by the inclusion of women and love plots thus Thomas Moser has questioned why Conrad did not cut them out altogether Yet a thematics of gender suffuses Conrad's narrative strategies Even in tales that contain no significant female characters or obvious love plots Conrad introduces elusive feminine presences in relationships between men as well as in men's relationships to their ship the sea a shore breeze or even in the gendered embrace of death This book investigates an identifiably feminine point of view which is present in fugitive ways throughout Conrad's canon Conrad's narrative strategies are articulated through a language of sexual difference that provides the vocabulary and grammar for tales examining European class racial and gender paradigms to provide acute and at times equivocal investigations of femininity and difference

Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse Richard Ambrosini,1991-07-26 Joseph Conrad's comments about his works have commonly been dismissed as theoretically unsophisticated while the critical notions of James Woolf and Joyce have come to shape our understanding of the modern novel Richard Ambrosini's study of Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse makes an original claim for the importance of his theoretical ideas as they are formed tested and eventually redefined in Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Setting the narrator's discourse in these tales in the context of the dynamic interplay of Conrad's fictional with his non fictional writings and of the transformations in his narrative forms Ambrosini defines Conrad's view of fiction and the artistic ideal underlying his commitment as a writer in a new and challenging way Conrad's innovatory techniques as a novelist are shown in the continuity of his theoretical enterprise from the early search for an artistic prose and a personal novel form to the later dislocations of perspective achieved by manipulation of conventions drawn from popular fiction This reassessment of Conrad's critical thought offers a new perspective on the transition from the Victorian novel to contemporary fiction

Reading the Modern British and Irish Novel 1890 - 1930 Daniel R. Schwarz,2008-04-15 Daniel R Schwarz has studied and taught the modern British novel for decades and now brings his impressive erudition and critical acuity to this insightful study of the major authors and novels of the first half of the twentieth century An insightful study of British fiction in the first half of the twentieth century Draws on the author's decades of experience researching and teaching the modern British novel Sets the modern British novel in its intellectual cultural and literary contexts Features close readings of Hardy's Jude the Obscure Conrad's Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Lawrence's Sons and Lovers and The Rainbow Joyce's Dubliners and Ulysses Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and To the Lighthouse and Forster's A Passage to India Shows how these novels are essential components in a modernist cultural tradition which includes the visual arts Takes account of recent developments in theory and cultural studies Written in an engaging style avoiding jargon

Essays on Conrad Ian Watt,2000-07-27 A landmark collection of Ian Watt's essays on Joseph Conrad

Iron Men, Wooden Women Margaret S. Creighton,Lisa Norling,1996-05 From the voyage of the Argonauts to the Tailhook scandal seafaring has long been one of the most glaringly male dominated occupations In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary study Margaret Creighton Lisa Norling and their co authors explore the relationship of gender and seafaring in the Anglo American age of sail Drawing on a wide range of American and British sources from diaries logbooks and account ledgers to songs poetry fiction and a range of public sources the authors show how popular fascination with seafaring and the sailors rigorous male only life led to models of gender behavior based on iron men aboard ship and stoic women ashore Yet Iron Men Wooden Women also offers new material that defies conventional views The authors investigate such topics as women in the American whaling industry and the role of the captain's wife aboard ship They explore the careers of the female pirates Anne Bonny and Mary Read as well as those of other women transvestite heroines who dressed as men to serve on the crews of sailing ships And they explore the importance of gender and its connection to race for African American and other seamen in both the American and the British merchant marine Contributors include both social historians and literary critics Marcus Rediker Dianne Dugaw Ruth Wallis Herndon Haskell Springer W Jeffrey Bolster Laura Tabili Lillian Nayder and Melody Graulich in addition to Margaret Creighton and Lisa Norling Conrad's Narrative Voice Werner Senn, 2017-01-09 Werner Senn's Conrad's Narrative Voice draws on the methodology of linguistic stylistics and the analysis of narrative discourse to discuss Joseph Conrad's perception of the role and the limitations of language Tracing recurrent linguistic patterns allows Senn to demonstrate that Conrad's view of the radical indeterminacy of the world is conveyed on the most basic levels of the author's often criticised verbal style but permeates his work at all levels of the narrative Detailed stylistic analysis also reveals the importance to Conrad of the spoken word of oral communication Senn argues that the narrators compulsive efforts to make their readers see and understand reflect Conrad's ethics of human solidarity in a world he depicts as hostile enigmatic and often senseless
