Josiah Fox:

Josiah Fox, 1763-1847 Merle Westlake, 2003 For two hundred years historians have debated the role Josiah Fox played in the design of the USS Constitution This biography records what he had to say about the situation his experiences as a naval constructor during the Washington Adams Jefferson and Madison administrations and expels the idea that Joshua Humphreys alone designed the first frigates built by the United States government In addition it explores his early life in England and a return visit forty years later the frictions generated by his Quaker attitudes in this country as well as in England and the life of a naturalized American citizen in Philadelphia Norfolk Washington D C and the Ohio River valley Included is his disownment by the Philadelphia Monthly Meeting and his involvement in the Hicksite Separation that occurred at Mount Pleasant Ohio Forty years of correspondence with his brothers and sisters in England provide a glimpse into family life in the early nineteenth century The Journal of Josiah Fox Josiah Fox, 1993 A revised genealogical account of the various families descended from Francis Fox of St. Germans, Cornwall; to which is appended a pedigree of the Crokers of Lineham Joseph Foster, 1872 History of Dracut, Massachusetts Silas Roger Coburn, 1922 The Journal of American History Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1916 Americans of Gentle Birth and Their Ancestors Hannah Daviess Pittman, 1902 An Improbable Alliance Diane Coia-Ramsay, 2024-07-22 Twenty six year old Caroline DeBeck is a willful socialite residing in New York City in 1900 Caroline's mother Allegra Arbuthnot despairs of her daughter ever making an advantageous alliance she's turned down every wealthy gentleman in the Upper East Side and beyond Allegra decides to send her daughter off to rural Vermont to spend the summer with Caroline's eccentric aunts Bethany and Grace DeBeck Caroline expects the summer to be unendurable Despite her mother's matchmaking attempts she has never met a man in her social circle she finds even mildly pleasing She decided long ago never to marry unless she fell in love an unlikely probability in her hectic social scene in New York City and no doubt impossible in rural Vermont But when her aunts send a farmer to the train station to collect her in his cart she is outraged and intrigued Jacob MacKenzie is tall and muscular and Caroline is instantly drawn to him despite their obvious differences Sparks fly as they both enjoy a verbal sparring match but neither one takes the other seriously at first Still Caroline DeBeck is used to getting what she wants and it soon becomes plain that may well be Jacob MacKenzie History of the First African Baptist Church, from Its Organization, January 10th, 1788, to July 1st, 1888 Emanuel King Love, 1888 Love the pastor of the First African Baptist Church in Savannah writes this history to argue his Church's claim to be the first African American Baptist Church in North America He gives a detailed report of the rise of the Church under Andrew Bryan before the split of 1832 when a majority of the members followed Andrew C Marshall to form a new church in Franklin Square in Savannah retaining the old name He provides biographies of the pastors and important leaders of the new congregation including his own administration and concludes by giving the documents addresses and sermons surrounding the first centennial celebration which included the Millions for Defense Frederick Leiner,2014-07-15 The title of this book comes from a toast popular with Americans in the late 1790s millions for defense not a cent for tribute Americans were incensed by demands for bribes from French diplomats and by France s galling seizures of U S merchant ships and as they teetered towards open war were disturbed by their country s lack of warships Provoked to action private U S citizens decided to help build a navy Merchants from Newburyport Massachusetts took the lead by opening a subscription to fund a 20 gun warship to be built in ninety days and they persuaded Congress to pass a statute that gave them government stock bearing 6 percent interest in exchange for their money Their example set off a chain reaction down the coast More than a thousand subscribers in the port towns pledged money and began to build nine warships with little government oversight Among the subscription ships were the Philadelphia later lost on the rocks at Tripoli Essex the first American warship to round the Cape of Good Hope and Boston which captured the French corvette Le Berceau This book is the first to explore in depth the subject of subscribing for warships Frederick Leiner explains how the idea materialized who the people were who subscribed and built the ships how the ships were built and what contributions these ships made to the Quasi War against France Along the way he also offers significant insights into the politics of what is arguably the most critical period in American history Vital Records of Bolton to 1854 and Vernon to 1852 Bolton (Conn.),1909 Alphabetical General Index to Public Library Sets of 85,271 Names of Michigan Soldiers and Sailors Individual Records Michigan. Adjutant-General's Department,1915 Growing with America Jospeh M. Fox,2006-10-18 This book tells of a voyage of discovery by the author a retired Bechtel chief process engineer and chemical engineering society director whose previous writings concerned Methane Valorization and Fischer Tropsch Reactor Design Trying to explain why a thirteen year old boy would join a Quaker expedition to Philadelphia in 1686 he devises a fictionalized account that is eventually supported by genetic testing Along the way he discovers among his ancestors a master carpenter turned politician Americas first golf club owner and a doctor of whom it was written There was a popular notion that he cured his patients He finds a Young Squire who taunts the British with school pamphlets during the Revolutionary War and several Quakers who were sent off to Virginia during that war much as we locked up the Japanese during World War II While written as a family history the reader will find tie ins to Benjamin Franklins papers to

Shakespeares The Tempest to a British diarist who wrote about William Wordsworth and to an anti slavery tract by Fanny Kemble The book sheds light on familys papers kept under wraps at historical libraries but leaves the final answers up to future generations In the authors own words I became interested in Fox family genealogy as a result of a business trip to Bechtels London Office in 1974 While there as the process design manager for an Algerian Liquefied Natural Gas project I took the opportunity to visit the Friends Library on Euston Road There I found a family tree called Descendants of Francis Fox of St Germans by Joseph Foster and also Anne Cressons biography of my own ancestor Joseph Fox who had been Speaker of the Pennsylvania Assembly during the Stamp Act uproar I also located several books that seemed of immediate interest The Journals of Caroline Fox 1835 1871 edited by Wendy Monk and a biography Caroline Fox by Wilson Harris These gave the approximate locations of several family estates out in Cornwall near Falmouth There had been many famous visitors to these estates men such as Wordsworth Tennyson Mill and Carlyle and Caroline Fox had described their conversations in her Journals I then convinced a fellow process design engineer Bob Chu to drive with me out to Falmouth over a weekend There we found the closed offices of G C Fox Company shipbrokers and the Fox Rosehill Gardens but no other sign of Fox activity I was a little discouraged Bob was intrigued however and insisted we investigate further So on Sunday morning we drove further west and found the Glendurgan estate with foxes on the gateposts and Mrs Philip Hamilton Rona Fox about to start up a lawnmower in the garage She immediately dropped what she was doing and led us into her house where notes were compared on family connections One of Francis Foxs sons had sailed to Philadelphia in 1686 on the same ship as Justinian Fox my own ancestor Bob and I then had a chance to tour the fabulous Glendurgan Gardens just recently added to the National Trust We also stopped off at Catchfrench an estate in St Germans near Plymouth where I sat in the ruins of the house where Francis Fox had lived in the mid 1600s This was enough to send a chill up my spine and got me to thinking about recording all of this history Back in London Ronas second son Charles Lloyd Fox introduced me to more relatives As is described in this book our families have maintained this relationship ever since then Work on this book actually started in 1992 after I retired from Bechtel and my wife Betty died of Lupus both in rapid succession I joined a Creative Writing Extension Class run by U C Berkeley and for my project started the fictionalized account recorded in the first two chapters of this book I had learned that Justinian had only been 13 years old when he joined t The Battle of April 19, 1775 Frank Warren Coburn,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Battle of April 19 1775 by Frank Warren Coburn The Captain Who Burned His Ships Gordon S Brown,2011-09-15 This is the first biography of Captain Thomas Tingey a seminal figure in the early development of the U S Navy It is at the same time a biography of this important American naval figure and a history of the first quarter century of the Washington Navy Yard which Tingey commanded for that period It is also the story of the transition of the navy from an object of partisan discord to an honored and beloved defender of a growing and increasingly self confident young nation Tingey who came to America after a short service in the Royal Navy contributed importantly to the success of the navy in the War of 1812 and left a legacy of naval service which many of his descendants have followed The Captain Who Burned His Ships is designed to fill a blank in popular histories of the 19th century American navy which have been centered on the exploits of the heroes of the Barbary campaigns and the War of 1812 It looks at the development of the navy through its construction and logistical components in which the Washington yard and Tingey played an important role It looks at Tingey s contributions to the development of yard procedures and practices his civic role in the budding city of Washington and the tragic events of 1814 when he was forced to burn his own creation to save it from falling into British hands Contributions of the Lowell Historical Society ,1907
