Annie Ernaux Siobhán McIlvanney,2001-01-01 This text provides an analysis of Annie Ernaux s individual texts It engages in a series of provocative close readings of her works to highlight the contradictions and nuances in her writing demonstrating the intellectual intricacies of her work Contemporary French Poetics Michael Bishop,Christopher Elson,2002 This book finds its origin partly in the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s at Dalhousie University September 1998 number of the papers since reworked take their place here alongside other studies subsequently invited They form a broad and varyingly focused set of cogent and pertinent appraisals of very recent French and francophone poetic practice and its shifting becoming conceptual underpinnings Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson,2018-03-09 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andr Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d Andr Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau s works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant garde Roland Barthes s experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux s published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

Photobiography Akane Kawakami, 2017-12-02 Why do photographs interest writers especially autobiographical writers Ever since their invention photographs have featured as metaphors as absent inspirations and latterly as actual objects in written texts In autobiographical texts their presence has raised particularly acute questions about the rivalry between these two media their relationship to the real and the nature of the constructed self In this timely study based on the most recent developments in the fields of photography theory self writing and photo biography Akane Kawakami offers an intriguing narrative which runs from texts containing metaphorical photographs through ekphrastic works to phototexts Her choice of Marcel Proust Herve Guibert Annie Ernaux and Gerard Mace provides unusual readings of works seldom considered in this context and teases out surprising similarities between unexpected conjunctions Akane Kawakami is a Senior Lecturer in French and francophone literature at Birkbeck University of London with philosophers such as Michel de Montaigne Ralph Waldo Emerson Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud Helmuth Plessner Martin Heidegger Jean Luc Nancy Emmanuel Levinas Peter Sloterdijk Guillaume le Blanc and Pierre Zaoui Stan shows how the question of the right interpersonal distance became a fundamental one for the literary authors under consideration and explores what forms and genres they proposed in order to convey the complexity of this question Albeit unknowingly she suggests they are engaged in fleshing out what Roland Barthes called a science or perhaps an art of distances

Fell, Diana Holmes, Imogen Long, 2019-12-11 1975 was a key year for the women s movement in France Through a critical exploration of the politics activism and cultural creativity of that moment this book evaluates the achievements and legacies of second wave French feminism for subsequent waves including the movement s contemporary resurgence      French Prose in 2000 ,2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Cl zio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years      The Art of the Project Johnnie Gratton, Michael Sheringham, 2005 The idea of the project crosses generic disciplinary and cultural frontiers At a time when writers and artists are increasingly describing their practices as projects remarkably little critical attention has been paid to the actual idea of the project This collection of essays responds to an urgent need by suggesting a framework for evaluating the notion of the project in the light of various modernist and postmodernist cultural practices drawn mainly but not exclusively from the French speaking domain The overview offered by this volume promises to makes an original and thought provoking contribution to contemporary literary artistic and cultural criticism
