K. Walsh,2015-10-05 Despite its undoubted importance there has never been a volume dedicated entirely to studies of the historic city of Famagusta in the years which followed the siege of 1571 City of Empires Ottoman and British Famagusta takes an important first step in redressing this imbalance The four centuries which followed the conflict as the contributions gathered here demonstrate are rich research seams for scholars of history urban design photography art history literature drama military history and the post war mandates City of Empires also places emphasis on the tangible heritage of Famagusta twice listed as endangered by World Monuments Fund and now the recipient of an increasing number of international efforts to protect it Mad Tuscans and Their Families Elizabeth W. Mellyn,2014-04-23 Based on three hundred civil and criminal cases over four centuries Elizabeth W Mellyn reconstructs the myriad ways families communities and civic and medical authorities met in the dynamic arena of Tuscan law courts to forge pragmatic solutions to the problems that madness brought to their households and streets In some of these cases solutions were protective and palliative in others they were predatory or abusive The goals of families were sometimes at odds with those of the courts but for the most part families and judges worked together to order households and communities in ways that served public and private interests For most of the period Mellyn examines Tuscan communities had no institutions devoted solely to the treatment and protection of the mentally disturbed responsibility for their long term care fell to the family By the end of the seventeenth century Tuscans like other Europeans had come to explain madness in medical terms and the mentally disordered were beginning to move from households to hospitals In Mad Tuscans and Their Families Mellyn argues against the commonly held belief that these changes chart the rise of mechanisms of social control by emerging absolutist states Rather the story of mental illness is one of false starts expedients compromise and consensus created by a wide range of historical actors Italian Quarterly Carlo Luigi Golino,2005 The Ceremonial City Iain Fenlon,2007 At the heart of the book is a detailed account of four major events that significantly shaped the history of Venice the formation of the Holy League the coalition that brought the republic into conflict with the Ottoman Empire the victory of that League against the Turkish fleet at the battle of Lepanto the ceremonial arrangements that were made to welcome Henry III of France to the city in 1574 and the devastating plague of 1575 7 This central part is frame by two others The first concentrates on St Mark s Square the buildings that surround it and the social and religious life that used it as a backdrop This involves reconstruction of the historical and mythical events that gradually led to the elaboration by Jacopo Sansovino and others of a monumental civic arena invested with layers of meaning that were fundamental to a sense of Venetian identity The final section considers how the major events of the 1570s and above all the victory at Lepanto were metabolized in Venetian history and reconfigured in the realms of memory and myth Important factors in this process were the role of the printing press Venice lay at the heart of the Italian booktrade in disseminating accounts of current events and reworking them into a further elaborator of the Myth of Venice and the ritual and other transformations that took place such as the construction of Palladio s church of the Redentore and their connection to the religious matrix that provides the key to the civic ethos of the city in the late sixteenth century Venice had become the City of God
