Samuel Urlsperger, George Fenwick Jones, 2021-10-15 The eighteen volumes of Detailed Reports on the Salzburger Emigrants Who Settled in America reproduced in sixteen discrete books contain the diaries and letters of Lutheran pastors who ministered to the Salzburgers German speaking Protestant refugees in Georgia Samuel Urlsperger collected and edited these writings into the Urlsperger Reports printed at Orphanage Press Halle Germany from 1735 to 1760 The original German publication Ausf hrliche Nachricht von den saltzburgischen Emigranten is available through the Internet Archive but this English language translation has not been available online until now In the mid eighteenth century Samuel Urlsperger of the Lutheran Ministry in Augsburg edited the German edition of the Detailed Reports after having distributed the many reports to the faithful in Germany He made major deletions for both diplomatic and economic reasons and suppressed proper names His son Johann August Urlsperger succeeded him He took even greater liberties with the text deleting large sections and rearranging others The English version translated and edited by George Fenwick Jones a German scholar restores the deleted sections and the proper names and provides the original sequencing of the material The Detailed Reports offer insight into daily life in colonial Georgia and provide precious details and vignettes on subjects that receive less attention in other sources notably African Americans women silk production and the cost of goods in a frontier colony The Reports are an underutilized resource for the study of this period and an unparalleled source for the evolution of a rural community during the early years of the colony The Georgia Open History Library has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities Democracy demands wisdom Any views findings conclusions or recommendations expressed in this collection do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities Reports on the Salzburger Emigrants Who Settled in America . . . Bevan edited the Augusta Chronicle Georgia Gazette studied law served on the Georgia legislature and became coeditor and owner of the Savannah Georgian In 1824 by recommendation of Governor George M Troup the legislature appointed Bevan as the first official historian of Georgia His main duties were to arrange the state archives publish selections from the archives and to write a history of the state Bevan was unable to complete a history of Georgia before his death in 1830 at the young age of thirty two However he paved the road for future historians making important acquisitions of transcripts from Great Britain which describe the colonial history of Georgia Negotiating for Georgia Julie Anne Sweet, 2005 As Sweet focuses on negotiations between James Oglethorpe the English leader and Tomochichi the Lower Creek representative over issues of trade land and military support she also looks at other individuals and groups who played a role in British Creek interactions during this period British traders missionaries including John Wesley and George Whitefield the Salzburgers of Ebenezer interpreters such as Mary Musgrove the Choctaws Chickasaws and Cherokees British colonists from South Carolina and Spanish and French forces who vied with the Georgia settlers for land trading rights and Indian support An Empire of Small Places Robert Paulett, 2012-09-01 Britain's colonial empire in southeastern North America relied on the cultivation and maintenance of economic and political ties with the numerous powerful Indian confederacies of the region Those ties in turn relied on British traders adapting to Indian ideas of landscape and power In An Empire of Small Places Robert Paulett examines this interaction over the course of the eighteenth century drawing attention to the ways that conceptions of space competed overlapped and changed He encourages us to understand the early American South as a landscape made by interactions among American Indians European Americans and enslaved African American laborers Focusing especially on the Anglo Creek Chickasaw route that ran from the coast through Augusta to present day Mississippi and Tennessee Paulett finds that the deerskin trade produced a sense of spatial and human relationships that did not easily fit into Britain's imperial ideas and thus forced the British to consciously articulate what made for a proper realm He develops this argument in chapters about five specific kinds of places the imagined spaces of British maps and the lived spaces of the Savannah River the town of Augusta traders paths and trading houses In each case the trade s practical demands privileged Indian African and nonelite European attitudes toward place After the Revolution the new United States created a different model for the Southeast that sought to establish a new system of Indian white relationships oriented around individual neighborhoods Georgia Women Ann Short Chirhart, Betty Wood, 2009 This first of two volumes extends from the founding of the colony of Georgia in 1733 up to the Progressive era From the beginning Georgia women were instrumental in shaping the state yet most histories minimize their contributions. The essays in this volume include women of many ethnicities and classes who played an important role in Georgia's history Though sources for understanding the lives of women in Georgia during the colonial period are scarce the early essays profile Mary Musgrove an important player in the relations between the Creek nation and the British Crown and the loyalist Elizabeth Johnston who left Georgia for Nova Scotia in 1806 Another essay examines the near mythical quality of the American Revolution era accounts of Georgia s War Woman Nancy Hart The later essays are multifaceted in their examination of the way different women experienced Georgia s antebellum social and political life the tumult of the Civil War and the lingering consequences of both the conflict itself and Emancipation After the war both necessity and opportunity changed women s lives as educated white women like Eliza Andrews established or taught in schools and as African American women like Lucy Craft Laney who later founded the Haines Institute attended school for the first time Georgia Women also profiles reform minded women like Mary Latimer McLendon Rebecca Latimer Felton Mildred Rutherford Nellie Peters Black and Martha Berry who worked tirelessly for causes ranging from temperance to suffrage to education The stories of the women portrayed in this volume provide valuable glimpses into the lives and experiences of all Georgia women during the first century and a half of the state s existence Historical figures include Mary Musgrove Nancy Hart Elizabeth Lichtenstein Johnston Ellen Craft Fanny Kemble Frances Butler Leigh Susie King Taylor Eliza Frances Andrews Amanda America Dickson Mary Ann Harris Gay Rebecca Latimer Felton Mary Latimer McLendon Mildred Lewis Rutherford Nellie Peters Black Lucy Craft Laney Martha Berry Corra Harris Juliette Gordon Low The Formation of a Planter Elite Alan Gallay, 2007 The rise of the plantation slavery system in the colonial South is chronicled through the career of Jonathan Bryan who rose from the obscurity of the southern frontier to become one of Georgia s richest most powerful men Reprint Henry Newman's Salzburger Letterbooks Henry Newman, 2021-10-15 Henry Newman s Salzburger Letterbooks contains correspondence between Henry Newman and Samuel Urlsperger a German Lutheran minister in Ausburg These two men were heavily involved in the settlement of the Salzburgers in Georgia Their letters which contain both inward and outward correspondence provide a unique journal of the settlement of Salzburg and colonial life in Georgia The Georgia Open History Library has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities Democracy demands wisdom Any views findings conclusions or recommendations expressed in this collection do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities
