Journalism And Human Development Making Of The Global Newsperson:

Journalism and Human Development Rabin Khemchand, 2000 Journalism and Journalism Education in Developing Countries Beatrice Dernbach, Beate Illg, 2020-02-17 Free and fair media are at the heart of any democratic set up A thriving field of journalism and zealous and ethical journalists in that sense become torch bearers of a brighter and promising tomorrow In this light the status of journalists the most important actors in the field becomes increasingly important as a matter of study They act as gatekeepers of information that is flooding in the era of new media a wave that is not so new anymore Their roles remain intact and even becomes prominent in the chaos of many to many communication Not concentrating on specific countries selected contributions in the book reflect on the developments of media and journalism education across different countries Introducing the book with an overview about the state of the art of journalism education and the research on a meta level the book moves on to talk about media studies in the Asian countries and in Arab world the African States and Brazil This book is an interesting read for all those who care about a vital media landscape and an open democratic society The recent economic and social developments present both opportunities and risks for journalism Freedom of expression and freedom of press even in democratic countries are under pressure This book provides an international perspective on the different aspects of journalism the situation in which journalists work their working conditions educational backgrounds struggles and successes It is aimed at an international public interested in the field of journalism and freedom of speech It addresses journalists trainers and academics Furthermore institutions in the field of development cooperation education or cultural policy and cultural education are the focus of this work Though the book is focused on journalism and journalism education in developing countries contributions are from across the globe The New World of Transitioned Media Gali Einav, 2014-10-01 The media industry is undergoing an accelerated pace of change driven in large part by the proliferation of digital platforms In many cases the speed of adoption has exceeded our ability to process the impact of these changes on individuals and society at large This book provides a behind the scenes look at the media industry s transition into the digital era and examines its impact on marketing advertising innovation and other economic and social activities The impact of digital technologies on traditional media sectors such as advertising video games film and television is well documented Less understood is its effect on our perceptions thought processes and inter personal relationships Social media for example represents a fundamental change in the ways we interact with media communicate with each other and even present ourselves to the world This has shaped the way we communicate with institutions and brands Similar to the first Transitioned Media book Transitioned Media A Turning Point into the Digital Realm this book combines media industry leaders and academics to explore various transformative trends and issues Themes include measuring cross platform behaviour artificial intelligence in journalism the evolution of video games digital media and physical space the mobile use trends social media and the corporate world the changes in the television and newspaper business and the evolving relationship between advertisers and target audiences The varied backgrounds of contributors and array of topics make for a unique and insightful point of view Making the University Matter Barbie Zelizer,2012-03-29 Making the University Matter investigates how academics situate themselves simultaneously in the university and the world and how doing so affects the viability of the university setting The university stands at the intersection of two sets of interests needing to be at one with the world while aspiring to stand apart from it In an era that promises intensified political instability growing administrative pressures dwindling economic returns and questions about economic viability lower enrolments and shrinking programs can the university continue to matter into the future And if so in which way What will help it survive as an honest broker What are the mechanisms for ensuring its independent voice Barbie Zelizer brings together some of the leading names in the field of media and communication studies from around the globe to consider a multiplicity of answers from across the curriculum on making the university matter including critical scholarship interdisciplinarity curricular blends of the humanities and social sciences practical training and policy work The collection is introduced with an essay by the editor and each section has a brief introduction to contextualise the essays and highlight the issues they raise The Global Journalist in the 21st Century David H. Weaver,Lars Willnat,2020-10-25 The Global Journalist in the 21st Century systematically assesses the demographics education socialization professional attitudes and working conditions of journalists in various countries around the world This book updates the original Global Journalist 1998 volume with new data adding more than a dozen countries and provides material on comparative research about journalists that will be useful to those interested in doing their own studies The editors put together this collection working under the assumption that journalists backgrounds working conditions and ideas are related to what is reported and how it is covered in the various news media round the world in spite of societal and organizational constraints and that this news coverage matters in terms of world public opinion and policies Outstanding features include Coverage of 33 nations located around the globe based on recent surveys conducted among representative samples of local journalists Comprehensive analyses by well known media scholars from each country A section on comparative studies of journalists An appendix with a collection of survey questions used in various nations to question journalists As the most comprehensive and reliable source on journalists around the world The Global Journalist will serve as the primary source for evaluating the state of journalism As such it promises to become a standard reference among journalism media and communication students and researchers around the world Reporting Global while being Local Saumava Mitra,Chris Paterson,2021-05-10 International news has long been studied and understood as produced by outsiders foreign correspondents working in exotic international locales This book challenges this established view by putting the spotlight on the insiders working in their own countries producing news for international audiences Western male foreign correspondents who report from areas affected by crises and conflicts for an audience back home have long stood in as visible metaphors of international news production But the understanding of who produces international news is starting to shift as scholars come to take into account the often invisible role played by locally based non Western news workers who have always been part and parcel of international news production The roles and responsibilities of these professional specialised locals within the global flow of news have only increased as falling news industry revenues have meant reductions in non local staff in foreign news bureaus Available research shows that the involvement of local journalists and fixers as well as NGOs as sources of news and information in international news production is marked by economic socio cultural and practice related tensions To shed light on these growing yet relatively less investigated changes happening in international news making this book brings together the latest of studies conducted on this form of journalistic labour around the world This book will contribute to both the breadth and depth of our future understanding of local news work that benefits distant audiences and also help cement the place of such journalistic work as a vital topic of analysis in its own right The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journalism Studies

Research Handbook on Artificial Intelligence and Communication Seungahn Nah,2023-11-03 This forward looking Research Handbook makes an insightful contribution to the emerging field of studies on communication of by and with AI Bringing together state of the art research from over 50 leading international scholars across various fields it provides a comprehensive overview of the complex intersections between AI and communication

Languages and Literacies as Mobile and Placed Resources Sue Nichols,Collette Snowden,2016-10-04 Languages and Literacies as Mobile and Placed Resources explores how languages and literacies are implicated in the complex relationship between place and mobility It is a book that represents the next wave in literacy studies in which theories of mobility networking and globalisation have emerged to account for the dynamic landscape of globally circulating communication resources Authors in this volume take up a more complex way of thinking about resources applying it to consider languages and literacies as assemblages or as parts of assemblages that are involved in learning teaching and meaning making The book addresses forms of text and mobility that arise in contexts outside of formal education including marketing charity journalism community organisation and parenting It also addresses school contexts and higher education settings Key topics explored include Consequences of workplace confinement Literacies as placed resources in the context of rural communities Literacy sustainability and landscapes for learning Documenting networked knowledge on tablets Mobilising literacy policy through resources Global Englishes as placed resources Languages as contextualised resources Shaping a digital academic writing resource in a transcultural space With an international range of carefully chosen contributors this book is a must read text for all academics interested in semiotics and literacy studies

21st Century Journalism in India Nalini Rajan,2007-03-06 This text discusses the theories and practices of journalism in 21st India The four main sections examine dealing with the media representation of marginalized groups of society studying the coverage of important areas such as economics and science different kinds of journalistic practice and future trends of journalism Intermedia, 1980 Data for Journalists Brant Houston, 2018-12-17 This straightforward and effective how to guide provides the basics for any reporter or journalism student beginning to use data for news stories It has step by step instructions on how to do basic data analysis in journalism while addressing why these digital tools should be an integral part of reporting in the 21st century In an ideal core text for courses on data driven journalism or computer assisted reporting Houston emphasizes that journalists are accountable for the accuracy and relevance of the data they acquire and share With a refreshed design this updated new edition includes expanded coverage on social media scraping data from the web and text mining and provides journalists with the tips and tools they need for working with data Towards Equity in Global Communication Richard C. Vincent, Kaarle Nordenstreng, Michael Traber, 1999 This collection focuses on the issues of equity and equality in communication on the international or global level It includes an evaluation of the recommendations of the MacBride Report in terms of their significance for the contemporary world Routledge Handbook of Chinese Media Gary D. Rawnsley, Ming-yeh T. Rawnsley, 2015-04-24 The study of Chinese media is a field that is growing and evolving at an exponential rate Not only are the Chinese media a fascinating subject for analysis in their own right but they also offer scholars and students a window to observe multi directional flows of information culture and communications within the contexts of globalization and regionalization Moreover the study of Chinese media provides an invaluable opportunity to test and refine the variety of communications theories that researchers have used to describe analyse compare and contrast systems of communications The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Media is a prestigious reference work providing an overview of the study of Chinese media Gary and Ming Yeh Rawnsley bring together an interdisciplinary perspective with contributions by an international team of renowned scholars on subjects such as television journalism and the internet and social media Locating Chinese media within a regional setting by focusing on Greater China the People's Republic of China Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and overseas Chinese communities the chapters highlight the convergence of media and platforms in the region and emphasise the multi directional and trans national character of media information flows in East Asia Contributing to the growing de westernization of media and communications studies this handbook is an essential and comprehensive reference work for students of all levels and scholars in the fields of Chinese Studies and Media Studies Patterns of Harassment in African Journalism Lungile Augustine Tshuma, Trust Matsilele, Mbongeni Jonny Msimanga, Sadia Jamil, 2024-06-14 This volume examines the trends and patterns of journalists harassment in Africa and assesses the policy interventions and protection mechanisms that are put into place in the region Drawing from case studies from selected African countries an international team of authors offer a broad insight into the state of harassment across the continent while building new theoretical perspectives that are also context specific The chapters bring previous theories and research up to date by addressing the continual change and development of new discourses including the use of big data and artificial intelligence in harassing and intimidating journalists and mental health issues affecting journalists in their line of duty More so the authors argue that the state and form of harassment is not universal as location and context are some of the key factors that influence the form and character of harassment Offering new theoretical insights into the scope of journalism practices in Africa this book will interest students and scholars of journalism African studies political science media and communication studies journalism practice and gender studies Communicating for Development Purposes E. O. Soola, 2003 From Twitter to Tahrir Square Bala A. Musa, Jim Willis, 2014-06-24 This timely guide examines the influence of social media in private public and professional settings particularly the ethical implications of the cultural changes and trends created by their use In the quest for quick dissemination of information web users and content providers find both opportunity and liability in digital broadcasts Examples abound Twitter members tap into news reports well in advance of traditional print media but stories are prone to inaccuracies and misinformation Facebook shares useful data mined from member profiles but this sharing often compromises privacy It is no surprise that use of social media gives rise to a host of moral dilemmas never before encountered This book sheds light on the effects of this new medium on the individual and society Through two volumes chock full of topics found in news headlines everyday the authors look at evolving trends in social media and their impact on privacy politics and journalism The first volume explores the role of this technology on national and international security Volume 2 focuses on the individual as both a producer and consumer of internet content showing how the media itself is changing notions of self identity relationships and popular culture The book's content covers such topics as individual and community psychology citizen journalism and corporate technology China Exchange News, 1991 A review of education science and academic relations with the PRC News, Numbers and Public Opinion in a Data-Driven World An Nguyen, 2017-12-28 From the quality of the air we breathe to the national leaders we choose data and statistics are a pervasive feature of daily life and daily news But how do news numbers and public opinion interact with each other and with what impacts on society at large Featuring an international roster of established and emerging scholars this book is the first comprehensive collection of research into the little understood processes underpinning the uses misuses of statistical information in journalism and their socio psychological and political effects Moving beyond the hype around data journalism News Numbers and Public Opinion delves into a range of more latent fundamental questions such as Is it true that most citizens and journalists do not have the necessary skills and resources to critically process and assess numbers How do should journalists make sense of the increasingly data driven world What strategies formats and frames do journalists use to gather and represent different types of statistical data in their stories What are the socio psychological and political effects of such data gathering and representation routines formats and frames on the way people acquire knowledge and form attitudes What skills and resources do journalists and publics need to deal effectively with the influx of numbers into in daily work and life and how can newsrooms and journalism schools meet that need The book is a must read for not only journalists journalism and media scholars statisticians and data scientists but also anybody interested in the interplay between journalism statistics and society
