Psychosocial Aspects of Oncology Jimmie C.

Holland, Robert Zittoun, 2012-12-06 The European School of Oncology came into existence to respond to a need for information education and training in the field of the diagnosis and treatment of cancer There are two main reasons why such an initiative was considered necessary Firstly the teaching of oncology requires a rigorously multidisciplinary approach which is difficult for the Universities to put into practice since their system is mainly disciplinary orientated Secondly the rate of technological development that impinges on the diagnosis and treatment of cancer has been so rapid that it is not an easy task for medical faculties to adapt their curricula flexibly With its residential courses for organ pathologies and the seminars on new techniques laser monoclonal antibodies imaging techniques etc or on the principles of the PG courses the Universities conservative or mutilating surgery primary or adjuvant chemotherapy radiotherapy alone or integrated it is the ambition of the European School of Oncology to fill a cultural and scientific gap and thereby create a bridge between the University and Industry and between these two and daily medical practice One of the more recent initiatives of ESO has been the institution of permanent study groups also called task forces where a limited number of leading experts are invited to meet once a year with the aim of defining the state of the art and possibly reaching a consensus on future developments in specific fields of oncology

Learning from Life James A. Morack, 2007-08-28 Every one of us is on our own unique journey through life And each of our journeys contains many learning opportunities What we choose to do with those learning opportunities shapes our individual destinies How we respond to life its challenges and its blessings defines us for who we truly are Learning from Life describes one mans journey It highlights the significant yet simple ideas that have played a role in not only his ability to survive challenges but to understand and grow from them Therein lies the magnificence of truly learning from life Some of those lessons include the importance of gratitude taking care of yourself dealing with fear going beyond our comfort zone self discovery setting goals and much more There is real joy in knowing that at any point in your life you can create a new beginning This book will provide you with insights and ideas on how you can do that too With each lesson learned comes a new beginning a chance to step out once more and do things differently the next time Armed with a greater understanding of what comes from finding the beneficial aspects of our life experiences we can greet each new moment in our lives with a fresh perspective one that hopefully makes living more enjoyable for us and those around us And in greeting that new moment with a fresh perspective we create new beginnings for ourselves continually
