Learning to Forget Dipankar Gupta, 2005 Challenge to modernity thru generating intersubjectivity Learning to Forget Dipankar Gupta, 2005 Challenge to modernity thru generating intersubjectivity Marx, Gandhi and Modernity Akeel Bilgrami, 2015-09-02 As a tribute to Javeed Alam and his exemplary life some of his close friends and admirers have come together in this volume with reflections on the range of themes that he pursued in his work with such intelligence and relish for some four decades the nature of capitalism and the various angles of a Marxist response to it the nature of secularism and liberalism and the forms of modernity which they usher in and Gandhi s political ideas in the context of Indian society and India s own unfolding modernity Talking Sociology Dipankar Gupta, Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2018-10-09 A well known name in contemporary sociology Dipankar Gupta s wide range of scholarship and popular columns have justly earned him the reputation of being one of India's leading public intellectuals Talking Sociology provides a complete panorama of Gupta's life and works and his contribution to Indian sociology In this book of conversations he shares insights into the key areas of Indian sociology such as the problem of social stratification citizenship and democracy and the caste system and ethnic groups in India It also discusses the influence of prominent thinkers on Gupta's works such as Claude L vi Strauss Talcott Parsons Andr Beteille and John Rawls The ninth in the series of Ramin Jahanbegloo's conversations with the prominent intellectuals who have made a significant impact in shaping the modern Indian thought this book discusses Gupta s array of work and its redefinition and reconstruction of the central concepts of sociology taking it beyond its disciplinary boundaries

The Fall of Gods Ester Gallo,2018-02-15 Interrogating the cultural roots of contemporary Malayali middle classes especially the upper caste Nambudiri community The Fall of Gods is based on a decade long ethnography and historico sociological analyses of the interconnections between colonial history family memories and class mobility in twentieth century south India It traces the transformation of normative structures of kinship networks as the community moves from colonial to neo liberal modernity across generations. The author demonstrates how past family experiences of class and geographical mobility or immobility are retrieved and reshaped in the present as alternative ways of conceiving kinship transforming the idea of collective suffering and sacrifice and strengthening the felt necessity of territorial caste and religious mingling Rich in anthropological detail and incisive analyses the book makes original contributions to the understanding of connection between gendered family relations and class mobility and foregrounds the complex linkages between political history memory and the private domain of kinship relations in the making of India s middle classes. Left in the Past Alastair Bonnett,2010-05-06 This book looks at the role nostalgia plays in the radical imagination to offer a new guide to the history and politics of the left In Left in the Past Bonnett re assesses the place of nostalgia within radical politics and in doing so provides a new introduction to the history and politics of the left Bonnett argues that nostalgia has been a chronic but repressed aspect of the socialist imagination Left in the Past is premised on the idea that in our post socialist era the relationship between radicalism and a sense of loss and the ambivalent position of socialism in and against modernity can be viewed with greater clarity In Section One of the book Bonnett shows the centrality and repression of nostalgia in both 19th century radicalism and anti-colonial radicalism In Section Two he explores the consequences of this inheritance by way of 20th century and contemporary studies of revolutionary intellectuals and intellectual culture Bonnett's unique approach in how to understand the left in an age of post socialism will make book a needed resource for anyone interested in the history 'Only Connect' William C. Lubenow, 2015 In nineteenth century Britain learned and politics of the left and radicalism societies and clubs became contested sites in which a new kind of identity was created the charisma and persona of the Tagore's Solutions for Colonial Degeneration Amartya Mukhopadhyay, 2023-12-12 This book scholar of the intellectual focuses on Rabindranath Tagore as a social and political thinker revolving around Tagore's ideas on the seeds of civil society nation identities and communities in the Indic tradition The author deconstructs Tagore s concepts against the appropriate resurgent and triumphalist Western concepts in the updated Western social thought and theories The book examines Tagore s understanding of the nature of the civil social sphere in India and analyzes the relevance of his civil social concepts against the backdrop of colonialism in India It also discusses his views on nation and nationalism in India and his insights into the problems and prospects of intercommunity particularly Hindu Muslim relations in India Applying current social science and Western literature in an unprecedented manner to interpret Tagore this book will be of great interest to scholars teachers and students of politics nationalism postcolonialism history comparative literature sociology religious studies and South The Social Sciences in the Looking Glass Didier Fassin, George Steinmetz, 2023-02-20 In recent years Asian studies social scientists have turned their critical lens on the historical roots and contours of their disciplines including their politics and practices epistemologies and methods institutionalization and professionalization national development and colonial expansion globalization and local contestations and public presence and role in society The Social Sciences in the Looking Glass offers current social scientific perspectives on this reflexive moment Examining sociology anthropology philosophy political science legal theory and religious studies the volume s contributors outline the present transformations of the social sciences explore their connections with critical humanities analyze the challenges of alternate paradigms and interrogate recent endeavors to move beyond the human Throughout the authors who belong to half a dozen disciplines trace how the social sciences are thoroughly entangled in the social facts they analyze and are key to helping us understand the conditions of our world Contributors Chitralekha Jean Louis Fabiani Didier Fassin Johan Heilbron Miriam Kingsberg Kadia Kristoffer Kropp Nicolas Langlitz John Lardas Modern Ivaro Morcillo Laiz Am n P rez Carel Smith George Steinmetz Peter D Thomas Bregje van Eekelen Agata Zysiak From 'People' to 'Citizen' Dipankar Gupta, 2017-09-18 From People to Citizen brings together social theory with policy practice to enlarge our understanding of the difference that democracy makes to the life of a nation Unlike nationalism democracy takes our attention away from the past to the future by focusing on the specific concerns of citizenship Historical victories or defeats blood and soil are now nowhere as relevant as the creation of a foundational base where individuals have equal and quality access to health education and even urban services The primary consideration therefore is on empowering citizens as a common category and not people of any specific community or class When citizens precede all other considerations the notion of the public too gets its fullest expression Differences between citizens are not denied in fact encouraged but only after achieving a basic unity first This book argues that the call of citizenship not only advances democracy but social science as well Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Shyam Benegal's India Vivek Sachdeva, 2019-08-15 This book examines Shyam Benegal s films and alternative image s of India in his cinema and traces the trajectory of changing aesthetics of his cinema in the post liberalisation era The book engages with the challenges faced by India as a nation state in post colonial times Looking at hybrid and complex narratives of films like Manthan Junoon Kalyug Charandas Chor Sooraj Ka Satvaan Ghoda Zubeidaa and Well Done Abba among others it analyses how these stories and characters adapted and derived from mythology folk tales historical fiction and novels are rooted in the socio political contexts of modern India The author explores diverse themes in Benegal's cinema such as the loss of home and identity women's sexuality and the status of dalits and Muslims in India He also focuses on how the filmmaker expertly weaves history with myth culture and contemporary politics and discusses the debate around the interpretive value of film adaptations adaptation of history and the representations of marginalised communities and liminal spaces The book will be useful for students and researchers of film studies cultural studies and the humanities It will also interest readers of Indian cinema and the social and cultural history of India Sharing the Sacred Anna Bigelow, 2010-02-04 The author looks at a place where the conditions for religious conflict are present but active conflict is absent focusing on a Muslim majority Punjab town Malkerkotla where both during the Partition and subsequently there has been no inter religious violence Indian Sociology B. K. Nagla, Kameshwar Choudhary, 2023-10-31 This book presents a critical and reflective view of fundamental theoretical orientations thematic domains and current debates in Indian sociology It covers the growth of sociology as an academic and pedagogical subject with four main parts Part I discusses important theoretical orientations in Indian sociology including Indological and civilizational approaches as well as the contributions of an eminent sociologist and pioneer in Indian sociology Professor Yogendra Singh concerning the sociology of knowledge liberal democracy and the relevance of his concept of Islamization in the study of Indian society Part II examines substantive areas of study such as caste class and tribe Part III reflects on specific topics of current concern in Indian sociology such as emerging vistas and futures globalization and rethinking area studies for planetary conversations This book is highly relevant for postgraduate students and researchers in sociology social anthropology and social sciences Consumerist Encounters Sreedeep Bhattacharva, 2020-08-14 Economic liberalization and globalization in India in the early 1990s resulted in a whirlwind of consumerist activities New material and visual temptations swamped the markets Expanding field of commodification infiltrated consumer minds through media imageries New objects of desire aroused inhibited cravings This engendered an accelerated and intensified relationship with things and images that permeate our everyday lives Consumerist Encounters elucidates how our all consuming relationship with objects and their representations have transformed rapidly over the last few decades in contemporary urban India It argues that ephemerality frivolousness and multiplicity of choice regulate our flirtatious encounters with commodities and their images as we restlessly use exhaust dispose and move on Such a trend is illustrated by examining a plethora of commodity centric phenomena such as exclusion through apparel eroticization of body images population of the T shirt surface with graphics and text rise of business process outsourcing instantaneous seeing and sharing of images and rejection of material goods in junkyards and ruins These explorations collectively shed light on the constant negotiation of our identities statuses and mobilities in the image saturated commodity landscape Review ,2006 Heritage and Identity Marta Anico, Elsa Peralta, 2008-11-26 Heritage and Identity explores the complex ways in which heritage actively contributes to the construction and representation of identities in contemporary societies providing a comprehensive account of the diverse conceptions of heritage and identity across different continents and cultures This collection of thought provoking articles from experts in the field captures the richness and diversity of the interlinked themes of heritage and identity Heritage is more than a simple legacy from the past and incorporates all elements past and present that have the ability to represent particular identities in the public sphere The editors introduce and discuss a wide range of interconnected topics including multiculturalism and globalization local and regional identity urban heritage difficult memories conceptions of history ethnic representations repatriation ownership controversy contestation and ethics and social responsibility. The volume places empirical data within a theoretical and analytical framework and presents an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the representation of the past invaluable for anyone interested in heritage and Justice before Reconciliation Dipankar Gupta, 2013-04-03 The book explores how Muslims in Mumbai museum studies and Ahmedabad coped with the aftermath of the violence directed against them in 1993 and 2002 respectively and how they responded to the ethnic carnages of which they were the victims highlighting the importance of the context and the history of the place where such violence occurred Unlike other studies on ethnic violence which have a short term focus in dealing with its immediate aftermath this book examines what happens to the victims over time and how they negotiate a new normal and get on with their lives Using empirical material based on field work in Mumbai and Ahmedabad the book shows that while poverty education and employment remain important elements in the recovery process the most crucial issue is that of justice and the need to reclaim citizenship A significant section of the book is devoted to the relationship between Muslim faith based organisations and the victims of ethnic violence Contemporary Art and Memory Joan Gibbons, 2007-12-19 Whether exploring the intimate recollections which make up the artist s own life history or questioning the way the gallery and museum present public memory contemporary art it would seem is haunted by the past Contemporary Art and Memory is the first accessible survey book to explore the subject of memory as it appears in its many guises in contemporary art Looking at both personal and public memory Gibbons explores art as autobiography the memory as trace the role of the archive revisionist memory and postmemory as well as the absence of memory in oblivion Grounding her discussion in historical precedents Gibbons explores the work of a wide range of international artists including Yinka Shonibare MBE Doris Salcedo Keith Piper Jeremy Deller Judy Chicago Louise Bourgeois Tracey Emin Felix Gonzalez Torres Christian Boltanski Janet Cardiff Bill Fontana Pierre Huyghe Susan Hiller Japanese photographer Miyako Ishiuchi and new media artist George Legrady Contemporary Art and Memory will be indispensable to all those concerned with the ways in which artists represent and remember the past Communal Geographies Stephen Legg, William Gould, Charu Gupta, 2025-08-01 This book builds on the latest research on India's partition and the politics of communal identity and explores the intricate relationship between community and religion on the one hand and space or geography on the other Reconsidering the role of space from the quotidian neighbourhood through to the urban regional national and international the chapters in this volume examine how religious community identities have been mapped onto particular spaces and transformed through the interaction of spatial levels scales Gurdwaras mosques temples homes shops mohallas and the administrative border making of states at urban regional and national levels have all been implicated in this complex history of mapping and making religious communities Exploring this rich history through a range of detailed case studies that straddle partition in 1947 the book draws from a number of methods and sources including archival work visual analysis oral history and ethnography The chapters in this book were originally published in South Asia The Journal of South Asian Studies and are accompanied by a Indian Muslim(s) after Liberalization Maidul Islam, 2018-12-13 Close to the turn of the century new updated Introduction and almost 45 years after Independence India opened its doors to free market liberalization Although meant as the promise to a better economic tomorrow three decades later many feel betrayed by the economic changes ushered in by this new financial era Here is a book that probes whether India s economic reforms have aided the development of Indian Muslims who have historically been denied the fruits of economic development Maidul Islam points out that in current political discourse the Muslim question in India is not articulated in terms of demands for equity Instead the political leadership camouflages real issues of backwardness prejudice and social exclusion with the rhetoric of identity and security Historically informed empirically grounded and with robust analytical rigour the book tries to explore connections between multiple forms of Muslim marginalization the socio economic realities facing the community and the formation of modern Muslim identity in the country At a time when post liberalization economic policies have created economic inequality and joblessness for significant sections of the population including Muslims the book proposes working towards a radical democratic deepening in India
