Leaves of Hypnos Translated [from the French] by Cid Corman ,1973      Leaves of Hypnos René Char,1973

Is There Truth in Art? Herman Rapaport,2018-09-05 The question posed by Herman Rapaport in the title of this book is intended both seriously and ironically It is not Rapaport s purpose to debate whether or not truth resides in art The title points rather to his belief that truth needs to be reconceptualized in the light of continuing efforts to deconstruct and to discredit the notion of truthfulness in art The question of art s truthfulness persists because truth in art is neither an entity or content that has been injected into the work nor a transcendental concept or ground that exists outside it Moreover when used in relation to art Rapaport says truth means something quite different from conventional definitions of the term Indeed a central question that informs the book is the return of truth at the far side of its deconstruction Is There Truth in Art includes chapters on atonal music environmental art modern German and French poetry contemporary French fiction experimental French film and a photograph taken by the National Socialists during the destruction of the Warsaw ghetto Determining how truth can be said to occur in these examples Rapaport maintains requires analysis in each instance He draws chiefly upon the thinkers who have radically reformulated questions about truth Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida and Levinas and uses their writings to explore the works under analysis

Mother Reader Moyra Davey,2001-05-01 The intersection of motherhood and creative life is explored in these writings on mothering that turn the spotlight from the child to the mother herself Here in memoirs testimonials diaries essays and fiction mothers describe first hand the changes brought to their lives by pregnancy childbirth and mothering Many of the writers articulate difficult and socially unsanctioned maternal anger and ambivalence In Mother Reader motherhood is scrutinized for all its painful and illuminating subtleties and addressed with unconventional wisdom and candor What emerges is a sense of a community of writers speaking to and about each other out of a common experience and a compilation of extraordinary literature never before assembled in a single volume

American Princess Laurie R. King, 2016-10-27 In An American Princess Laurie R. King relates the remarkable story of a New England woman whose wealth intelligence and charm took her to the heart of aristocratic and intellectual Europe Marguerite Chapin 1880-1963 was the product of two cultures her father's enterprising American one and her mother's French heritage which enabled her to move to Paris when she inherited a fortune at age twenty one There she studied singing with the greatest tenor of the age commissioned paintings from artists such as Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard and Andr  Derain and drew upon her many friendships with writers to found and edit the pioneering literary review Commerce Her marriage in 1911 to the composer Prince Roffredo Caetani a member of one of Italy's oldest dynasties added a whole new dimension to her life Not only did it bring her a title but happiness two children and a set of extraordinarily talented in laws When Marguerite and Roffredo moved to Italy in 1932 she found refuge from fascism and an outlet for creativity at Ninfa the estate where the Caetani had created a garden among the ruins of a medieval town At age sixty eight having survived the death of her son the war and the German occupation Marguerite launched the international review Botteghe Oscure Its aim was to reclaim respectability for Italian writing but through her discerning and generous editorial vision it became a showcase for writers everywhere An engrossing biography based on extensive original research An American Princess celebrates Marguerite Chapin Caetani's impressive accomplishments and legacy Poems for the Millennium, Volume One Jerome Rothenberg, Pierre Joris, Jeffrey Cane Robinson, University of California Press, 1995-11-24 Global anthology of twentieth century poetry Back cover Choice in Everyday Life Robert Urquhart, 2004-11-27 Social choice and decision making are key topics in economic theory and Robert Urquhart delves into the world of philosophy in this superb new book Sharing Common Ground Robert Harvey, 2017-06-15 Sharing Common Ground makes a compelling contribution to an important emerging field that affects a broad swath of humanities. It uses historical photographic and literary examples including an entirely new translation of a little known work by Marguerite Duras presented here in full to showcase the ethical capacity of art. Robert Harvey deploys critical tools borrowed from literature, aesthetics, and philosophy to mobilize the thought of several seminal figures in literature and theory including Michel Foucault, Marguerite Duras, Georges Didi Huberman, and Giorgio Agamben among a host of others. Construction sites, concentration camps, cemeteries, slums, such are only a few of the spaces that impel our imagination naturally toward what we commonly call cultural memory. Sharing Common Ground reveals how the endeavor to think and imagine in common, and especially about the spaces we inhabit together, is critically important to human beings artistically, culturally, and ethically.
