Lecclesiologie Dyves Congar Avant Vatican II:

Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communiality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe

Yves Congar's Theology of the Holy Spirit Elizabeth Teresa Groppe, 2004-01-15 The French Dominican theologian Yves Congar is recognized by many as the most important Roman Catholic ecclesiologist of the 20th century yet there are few works on him in English Congar's pneumatology argues Groppe can enrich various ongoing theological discussions

Dumitru Staniloae's Trinitarian Ecclesiology Viorel Coman, 2019-10-09 In this book Viorel Coman explores the relevance of Dumitru Staniloae's reflections on the interplay between the doctrine of the Trinity and the doctrine of the Church in light of the discussions about the ecclesiological consequences of the Eastern and Western Trinitarian models

Yves Congar Gabriel Flynn, 2005 No theologian of the twentieth century is more deserving of a commemorative volume than Yves Congar The present symposium commends itself by the high quality of the multinational group of scholars contributing to it Quatri me de couverture

An Introduction to Vatican II as an Ongoing Theological Event Matthew Levering, 2017 Contemporary scholars often refer to the event of Vatican II but what kind of an event was it In this first book of the new CUA Press series Sacra Doctrina Matthew Levering leads his readers to see the Council as a theological event a period of confirming and continuing God's self-revelation in Christ into a new historical era for the Church This is an introduction to Vatican II with a detailed summary of each of its four central documents the dogmatic constitutions followed by explanations of how to interpret them In contrast to other introductions which pay little attention to the theological soil in which the documents of Vatican II germinated Levering offers a reading of each conciliar Constitution in light of a key theological author from the era Ren Latourelle SJ for Dei Verbum persons and propositions Louis Bouyer CO for Sacrosanctum Concilium active participation Yves Congar OP for Lumen Gentium true and false reform and Henri de Lubac SJ for Gaudium et Spes nature and grace This theological event is ongoing Levering demonstrates by tracing in each chapter the theological debates that have stretched from the close of the council till the present and the difficulties the Church continues to encounter in encouraging an ever deeper participation in

Jesus Christ on the part of all believers In this light the book's final chapter compares the historicist Massimo Faggioli and Christological Robert Imbelli interpretations of Vatican II arguing that historicism can undermine the Council's fundamental desire for a reform and renewal rooted in Christ The conclusion addresses the concerns about secularization and loss of faith raised after the Council by Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Yves Congar arguing that contemporary Vatican II scholarship needs to take these concerns more seriously

Yves Congar's Vision of the Church in a World of Unbelief Gabriel Flynn, 2017-03-02 Yves Congar 1904 1995 was one of the chief architects of a remarkable renewal in Roman Catholic ecclesiology in the twentieth century His vision for ecclesial renewal led to a profound transformation of the Roman Catholic Church its relationship with other churches and the world This book considers the contribution made by Congar to that transformation Situating Congar's ecclesiology in the context of his whole theology the book presents for the first time a comprehensive study of two related aspects of Congar's thought unbelief and the notion of total ecclesiology Dr Flynn shows how unbelief provides the common inspiration for Congar's thought on the Church and constitutes the raison d'être for his entire programme of ecclesial reform at the Second Vatican Council This study demonstrates how Congar's total ecclesiology contributes to the restoration of unity and helps to redress unbelief Congar's vision for the future and his programme for ecclesial renewal centering on a church committed both to the preservation of its heritage and an openness to true reform is shown to be still pertinent to the churches in the third millennium a point accented by Pierre Marie Gy OP in his Preface to the work

Dumitru Staniloae: An Ecumenical Ecclesiology Radu Bordeianu, 2011-09-29

A Critical Study of Hans Küng's Ecclesiology C. Simut, 2008-07-07 The book presents the transition from traditionalism to modernism in connection to two of Küng's most important books on ecclesiology Structures of the Church 1962 as representing Küng's traditional theology and On Being a Christian 1974 as a reflection of his modern approach to Christianity

Nouvelle Théologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma, 2009-05-07 In the decades leading up to the Second Vatican Council the movement of nouvelle théologie caused great controversy in the Catholic Church and remains a subject of vigorous scholarly debate today In Nouvelle théologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma argues that a return to mystery was the movement's deepest motivation Countering the modern intellectualism of the neo-Thomist establishment the nouvelle théologie theologians were convinced that a ressourcement of the Church Fathers and of medieval theology would point the way to a sacramental reintegration of nature and the supernatural In the context of the loss suffered by both Catholics and Protestants in the de-sacramentalizing of modernity Boersma shows how the sacramental ontology of nouvelle théologie offers a solid entry point into ecumenical dialogue The volume begins by setting the historical context for nouvelle théologie with discussions of the influence of significant theologians and philosophers like Mhler Blondel Mar chal and Rousselot The exposition then moves to the writings of key thinkers of the ressourcement movement including de Lubac Bouillard Balthasar Chenu Dani lou Charlier and Congar Boersma analyses the most characteristic elements of the movement its reintegration of nature and the supernatural its reintroduction of the spiritual interpretation of Scripture its approach to Tradition as organically developing in history and its communion ecclesiology that regarded the Church as sacrament of Christ In each of these areas Boersma demonstrates how the nouvelle theologians advocated a return to mystery by means of a sacramental ontology Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology God Without Measure: Working Papers in Christian Theology John Webster, 2015-11-19 In this two volume collection of essays which forms a companion to The Domain of the Word John Webster brings together studies of a range of topics in dogmatic and moral theology This first volume God and the Works of God treats the themes of God's inner being and God's outer acts After an overall account of the relation between God in himself and the economy of God's external works there are studies of the divine aseity and of the theology of the eternal Son These are followed by a set of essays on creation out of nothing the relation between God and God's creatures the nature of providence the relation of soteriology and the doctrine of God and the place of teaching about justification in Christian theology Each of the essays explores the relation of theology proper to economy and together they pose an understanding of Christian doctrine in which all theological teaching flows from the doctrine of the immanent Trinity The Prophetic Church Andrew Meszaros, 2016-10-06 The Prophetic Church History and Doctrinal Development in John Henry Newman and Yves Congar is a historical and a systematic account of tradition doctrinal development and the theology of history with a particular focus on the contributions of two modern Catholic figures John Henry Newman 1801-1890 and Yves Congar 1904-1995 It is structured around two overarching themes the subject and history in their relationship to doctrinal development In addition the thought of both Congar and Newman is interwoven throughout Andrew Meszaros contextualizes and surveys Congar's reception of Newman He explains the appeal of Newman and provides concrete evidence that would substantiate the nature and extent of Newman's influence on Congar and thereby indirectly on Vatican II Meszaros also discusses doctrinal development with special attention to the subject and history These treatments are based on the subjective and historical motors or causes as it were of doctrinal development He then develops a theology of doctrine and doctrinal development as inspired by Newman and Congar In its reflection on the meaning of the Doctrinal Economy this study contributes to the theological problem of history and doctrine by synthesizing and honing contributions of these two great thinkers of modern Catholic theology It is precisely some of the key differences between Newman and Congar that make it theologically enriching to study them together

Yves Congar 1904-1995 Etienne Fouilloux, 2023-06-01 This book is the culmination of a long companionship a final link between a historian familiar with theology and a theologian keen on history It was in February 1966 that Etienne Fouilloux met the Dominican theologian Yves Congar for the first time He then began a thesis on the origins of ecumenism Congar liberally opened his personal archives to him For fifteen years Congar did not leave the horizon of Fouilloux Congar attended the defense of his thesis in 1980 Then according to the work of the historian the theologian was never far away voluntary or involuntary protagonist of many of his studies on the theological crises of the 1930s and 1950s the Second World War or the Second Vatican Council In scattered but recurring touches Fouilloux had already shed light on many aspects of Congar's work including by publishing Journal d'un théologien 1946 1956 Editions du Cerf 2000 Today an overall plan and the cement necessary for writing a life story conceal the many stones previously brought to the building and finally constitute a biography of Father Congar The sum is undeniably greater than the addition of the parts Sabine Rousseau Archives de Sciences sociales des religions October-December 2021

Vessel of Honor: The Virgin Birth and the Ecclesiology of Vatican II Brian A. Graebe, 2021-08-18 The traditional claim that Mary remained a virgin during the very act of giving birth to Jesus is one of the least known and least understood aspects of Marian doctrine today Has the contemporary Church retreated from this claim In Vessel of Honor Fr Brian Graebe provides a solid introduction to the historical development of the doctrine and its reception in modern Catholic theology He shows that far from being responsible for its contemporary occlusion the Second Vatican Council did much to reaffirm the traditional understanding of Mary's perpetual virginity against its radical reinterpretation in the mid twentieth century Fr Graebe demonstrates that the Council's underappreciated work on Mary's perpetual virginity must be seen as part of the legacy of Vatican II Perhaps the most significant and timely contribution of this book is its illumination of the Council's revival of the patristic association of Mary with the Church At a time when many claim Vatican II weakened the Church's commitment to Sacred Tradition Vessel of Honor amplifies the Council's clarion call to the Church to receive and preserve God's revelation with virginal fidelity Mary's physical intactness is an icon of the deposit of faith Vessel of Honor is an important book both for modern Mariology and for the proper reception of the Second Vatican Council

Mudge, 2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues

An Avant-garde Theological Generation Jon Kirwan, 2018-03-09 An Avant garde Theological Generation examines the Fourvière Jesuits and Le Saulchoir Dominicans theologians and philosophers who comprised the influential reform movement the nouvelle théologie Led by Henri de Lubac Jean Daniélou Yves Congar and Marie Dominique Chenu the movement flourished from the 1930s until its suppression in 1950 It aims to remedy certain historical deficiencies by constructing a history both sensitive to the wider intellectual political economic and cultural milieu of the French interwar crisis and that establishes continuity with the Modernist crisis

Catholicism and the Spirit Stephen Ebo Annan,2018-02-22 The resurgence of Pentecostal charismatic Christianity epitomized in the global South has thrown Catholicism back on itself and has challenged it to reassess its ecclesial self understanding The Catholic Church has been accused of having forgotten the Spirit Despite the progress made by the Catholic Church to redress this so called pneumatological deficit it nonetheless remains the case that Roman Catholicism and charismatic Christianity seems to be mutually exclusive Why and how does the Roman Catholic Church today still lack a fully developed pneumatological charismatic ecclesiology Catholicism and the Spirit sets out to address such questions and argues that the Church must overcome its ultraconservatism and re envision a robust Spirit led ecclesiology to meet the demands of ecclesial renewal students and scholars his demand for honest and critical scholarship and his deep desire for a spirit of Christian unity among us all The "Sense of the Faith" in History John J. Burkhard, OFM Conv., 2022-01-15 While taught by Vatican II the sense of the faith sensus fidei has had little official impact in the Catholic Church What would the church look like if it took this conciliar teaching to heart To address this neglect John Burkhard locates the historical roots of the teaching and its emergence at Vatican II It attempts to better understand the sense of the faith in the light of other fundamental teachings of the council and challenges the hierarchical church to invite all the faithful to rightfully participate in the prophetic ministry of the whole church closely allied with Pope Francis s call for a more synodal church
