Illusion and Reality: A Study of the Sources of Poetry Christopher Caudwell, 2020-07-14 This book contains Christopher Caudwell's 1937 treatise Illusion and Reality It is a work of Marxist literary criticism that develops the idea that each individual era of British poetry stems from a novel economical paradigm in bourgeois society Christopher St John Sprigg 1907-1937 more commonly known by his pseudonym Christopher Caudwell was a British Marxist poet and thinker In early life he made his way to Marxism and set about rethinking everything in light of it from poetry to philosophy to physics and became a staunch member of the Communist Party of Great Britain Many vintage texts such as this are becoming increasingly rare and expensive and it is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition It comes complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author Military Spouses with Graduate Degrees Catherine Cole,2019-01-17 This volume utilizes interdisciplinary theories methods and approaches to study the educational and career experiences of military spouses with advanced degrees It analyzes the unique career and educational experiences that military spouses with advanced degrees face while trying to attain their goals amidst military relocations and deployments Subduing Demons in America John Giorno,2008-11-01 Associated with key 1960s avant garde figures such as Ginsberg Burroughs Rauschenberg and Johns John Giorno was an early pioneer of multimedia poetry through Giorno Poetry Systems which also distributed a who s who of the American underground from Patti Smith to Sonic Youth Giorno s use of transgressive material and in your face amplified delivery was also a key influence on punk new wave pioneers such as Suicide Throbbing Gristle and Black Flag Not just a poet but a sexual spiritual and political radical Giorno helped pioneer the open celebration of queer sexuality in poetry in the 1960s Subduing Demons in America offers the best of Giorno s revolutionary poetry from his striking Pop Art influenced poems of the 1960s to the psychedelic echo laden multitracked cut ups of the 1970s with their explosive configurations of queer sex spiritual practice and the bohemian Good Life Also here are the pared down punk hip hop performance poems that Giorno performed in the 1980s Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley,Francis Harry Hinsley,1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men s efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Imagining Ecocatastrophe Scott Slovic,Joyjit Ghosh,Samit Kumar Maiti,2025-08-01 This volume examines scholarly perspectives on eco imaginaries focusing in particular on how eco catastrophes have been represented in literature and different visual forms including film television and cartoons among other cultural media It draws on literary genres such as science fiction climate fiction speculative fiction petrofiction post apocalyptic narratives and nuclear fiction to examine the role that literature plays in the dissemination of information about environmental crisis in the Anthropocene and in preparing mankind for a better and sustainable future Deeply embedded in theoretical conceptualisations the essays in this volume address issues of natural disasters deforestation nuclear disasters and pandemics among others which constitute the core subjects of environmental humanities A seminal study on the literary and cultural representations of ecodisaster in the global context and with contributions from across the world this book truly interdisciplinary in nature will be an invaluable read for students academicians and researchers in literature film studies climate change studies disaster studies gender studies and cultural studies

Botanical Imagination Jon L. Pitt, 2025-04-15 Botanical Imagination explores the complicated legacy and enduring lure of plant life in modern Japanese literature and media Using critical plant studies Jon L. Pitt examines an unlikely group of writers and filmmakers in modern Japan finding in their works a desire to become botanical in both content and form For nearly one hundred years a botanical imagination grew in response to moments of crisis in Japan's modern history Pitt shows how artists were inspired to seek out botanical knowledge in order to construct new forms of subjectivity and attempt to resist certain forms of state violence As he follows plants through the tangled histories of imperialism and state control Pitt also uncovers the ways plants were used in the same violence that drove artists to turn to the botanical as a model of resistance in the first place Botanical Imagination calls on us to rethink plants as significant but ambivalent actors and to turn to the botanical realm as a site of potentiality

The Publishers Weekly, 1897

Poetry, the Geometry of the Living Substance Agnes Lehoczky, 2011-01-18 Poetry the Geometry of the Living Substance is the first serious and sustained study in English of one of the most important Hungarian writers of the 20th century the modernist poet Agnes Nemes Nagy The book captures the dual nature of poetry as a discourse of the infinite and the abyssal through close readings of her poetry and prose These four essays draw parallels between Agnes Nemes Nagy and other thinkers and theorists such as Rilke Celan Heidegger Derrida Beckett and Blanchot The monograph explores the poetic paradigm changes of Nemes Nagy in her whole work including her collections of poems essays on poetics and other posthumous miscellaneous fragments Drawing indirect parallels between the fields of poetics and epistemology the central focus of the book is the parergonal relation between language and the external world the psyche and the objective environment trauma and memory within the poetic space
