The Fieldworker and the Field Mysore Narasimhachar Srinivas, A. M. Shah, E. A. Ramaswamy, 1979 Articles

Anthropological Journeys Meenakshi Thapan, 1998 This collection of papers raises methodological issues and questions concerning the traditional nature of anthropology and addresses current issues and debates in sociology and social anthropology The essays in this volume by well known anthropologists take up these and other issues arising out of their own fieldwork experience The result is a rigorous and deeply moving analysis that leads to an unlearning of inappropriate and insensitive methods that obscure rather than explain the lives of people

The Handbook of Social Research Ethics Donna M. Mertens, Pauline E. Ginsberg, 2009 Brings together international scholars across the social and behavioural sciences and education to address those ethical issues that arise in the theory and practice of research within the technologically advancing and culturally complex world in which we live

Field Research Robert G. Burgess, 2003-09-02 For this the fourth volume in the successful Contemporary Social Research series Robert Burgess has provided a new resource text which will prove invaluable to those engaged in field research The material he has chosen is drawn both from sociology and social anthropology and the readings come from experienced researchers both in the USA and Europe In addition Burgess draws upon the work of historians for a special section on the use of historical materials in field research The focus is upon the strategies processes and problems of work in the field Chapters by distinguished social scientists cover gaining entry note taking interviewing and observing Material on data collection is complemented by discussion of data analysis and theorising The readings themselves are subdivided into nine sections The first essay in each section is written by Burgess himself in order to locate the articles in a broader context and to highlight the key issues and the important questions Burgess has also provided a review of some of the major traditions in field research and a series of brief guides to further reading on the major topics covered in each of the sections Particular attention has been paid to the use of annotated reading lists and the preparation of a very full bibliography Field Research A Sourcebook and Field Manual will be an essential textbook for students of social research or field research at both the undergraduate and post graduate levels In addition it will provide valuable guidance for workers in the social sciences engaged in research in the field

Schooling and Aspirations in the Urban Margins Gunjan Sharma, 2021-04-29 This book presents a detailed ethnographic study conducted in an urban slum in India It explores how a State school as a social and pedagogic institution shapes the aspirations and worldviews of children in the urban margins The volume engages with the children's experience of marginality and exclusion as they negotiate the intersecting axes of caste class gender and citizenship It further explores how their everyday school experience is mediated by the power asymmetries between the teachers and the community In this process it makes sense of the political dynamics between the State and its margins while highlighting the role of schools and locating childhood in this context Based on ethnographic fieldwork the book will be of interest to researchers students and teachers of education studies sociology and politics of education teacher education childhood and youth studies and urban studies It will also be useful for education policymakers and professionals in the development sector Mapping

Identity-Induced Marginalisation in India Raosaheb K Kale, Sanghmitra S Acharya, 2022-08-17 This book discusses the issues of inequality and marginalization in India The first section of the book contextualizes sociological traditions for the scrutiny of subaltern discourse on discrimination The chapters in the section explore self identity margins in sociological traditions subalternity and exclusion citizenship issues of de notified tribes the role of religion for scheduled tribe Dalits and Ambedkar s ideas on tribes The second section deals with the political economy of higher education health and employment The efforts of BR Ambedkar and the consequences of those efforts his critique of education policies during British time and its alteration for independent India have been meticulously dealt with The third section illustrates an application of theoretical understanding through narratives of labour bondage in Varanasi sanitation workers in Mumbai and rickshaw pullers in Delhi The last section establishes that unequal access to resources is a consequence of discrimination and marginalization induced by social identities The book argues for equitable access to resources and opportunities to ensure health equity The audience for this publication includes academics researchers health professionals policymakers engaged with discrimination exclusion marginalization and inequity in health Semionauts of Tradition Juliette Yu-Ming

Lizeray, Chee-Hoo Lum, 2019-01-16 This book explores questions of identity cultural change and creativity from the perspective of contemporary musicians currently engaged in redefining Asian musical traditions and notions of heritage in Singapore Drawing on the fields of anthropology cultural studies and ethnomusicology Semionauts of Tradition focuses on emerging millennial musicians and explores the complex and interwoven cultural national musical and personal identifications in their discourse and music practice It shows how they create fluid hybrid and counter hegemonic forms of expression representation and identity through their navigation of diverse cultural worlds their incorporation of a myriad of elements into their own identities and music and their contestations of preconceived notions of difference and tradition The book exposes paradoxes within current thinking about multiracialism racial harmony the East West divide and tradition versus modernity and proposes new ways of understanding identity cultural change and creativity in a highly globalised and diverse nation This highly original polyvocal account of a burgeoning music scene includes photos musical scores and reaction pieces by musicians It is a timely contribution to global discussions about multiculturalism from below as well as musical cultural and national identities in a postcolonial Southeast Asian setting from the viewpoint of artists engaged in creative meaning making This captivating book explores with tremendous intellectual vitality the dialectic relationships between the cultural ethnic and national identities of Singapore s creative youth and their creative practice A compelling read Dr Liora Bresler Professor University of Illinois A well researched and thoughtfully well written book about the diverse forms of music in Singapore and the musicians who created it Jeremy Monteiro jazz pianist singer composer and music educator This wonderfully lucid and compelling book analyzes the musical and cultural creativity of young Singaporean musicians growing up in a multicultural and ethnically plural society bringing Asian and Western musical cultures into creative dialogue Dr Deborah Pacini Hernandez Professor Emeritus Tufts University A thought provoking dialogue on contemporary Singaporean music Eric Watson composer conductor music technologist and pedagogue From the Kitchen to the Parlor Lanita Jacobs-Huey, 2006-04-20 When is hair just hair and when is it not just hair Documenting the politics of African American women s hair this multi sited linguistic ethnography explores everyday interaction in beauty parlors Internet discussions comedy clubs and other contexts to illuminate how and why hair matters in African American women s day to day experiences Out in the Field Ellen Lewin, William Leap, 1996 Lesbian and gay anthropologists write in Out in the Field about their research and personal experiences in conducting fieldwork about the ethical and intellectual dilemmas they face in writing about lesbian or gay populations and about the impact on their careers of doing lesbian gay research The first volume in which lesbian and gay anthropologists discuss personal experiences Out in the Field offers compelling illustrations of professional lives both closeted and out to colleagues and fieldwork informants It also concerns aligning career goals with personal sexual preferences and speaks directly to issues of representation and authority currently being explored throughout the social sciences Feminist Postcolonial Theory Reina Lewis, Sara Mills, 2003-07-29 Feminism and postcolonialism are allies and the impressive selection of writings brought together in this volume demonstrate how fruitful that alliance can be Reina Lewis and Sara Mills have assembled a brilliant selection of thinkers organizing them into six categories Gendering Colonialism and Postcolonialism Radicalizing Feminism Rethink Women and Domestic Violence in Bangladesh Laila Ashrafun, 2018-04-17 After the independence of Bangladesh in 1971 the country has experienced large scale transformations owing to national and international migration urbanization the development of many national and international non governmental organizations NGOs and economic dynamism Globalization and economic liberalization have created opportunities to develop sustainable social policies by strengthening the national economy of the country Major progress has been made in closing the gender gap and the Constitution of Bangladesh provides equality of status and opportunity to all its citizens irrespective of sex However domestic violence perpetuated against women is a common phenomenon in Bangladesh This book is a study about domestic violence against women in Bangladeshi society It delineates in particular why and how some women become the victims of domestic violence in the changing socio economic setting of Bangladesh The author explores the multiple contexts in which domestic violence occurs by focusing on the everyday experience of women subjected to this violence The book shows how changing socio economic setting urbanization and the growing demand for female labor influences the phenomenon and experience of domestic violence It demonstrates that domestic violence is entangled in a complex web of institutionalized social relations that necessitates a structural and contextual understanding of the production of such violence in family kinship and gender relations Finally it identifies factors that cause perpetuate and mitigate domestic violence or give strength to women to struggle and raise their voices or take shelter in the law against the perpetrators of domestic violence A novel contribution to our understanding of how gender relationships are differently constituted and contested in the everyday lives of Bangladeshi women both in natal and affinal families this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Sociology Gender and Law and South Asian Studies

Qualitative Research Interviewing Tom Wengraf, 2001-06-25 This text provides a comprehensive resource for those concerned with the practice of semi structured interviewing the most commonly used interview approach in social research and in particular for depth biographic narrative interviewing the interview methods of choice in qualitative research

Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek, 2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology

Ashis Nandy Ramin Jahanbegloo, Ananya Vajpeyi, 2018-04-04 This volume is an adda of great minds spanning generations and multiple nationalities While one discusses creativity and aesthetics through Indian classical music another recounts the pleasure of a simple walk Another questions how it would be if Rabindranath Tagore lived in the twenty first century yet another how cool Indians are or might be in the future Subjects as far apart as war and solitude find space in these musings Through these lively engagements emerge key insights into the ideas writings and life of one of the foremost intellectuals of our time in Indian and global scholarship thought and dissent Ashis Nandy

Ethical Issues in Anthropological Research Subir Biswas, 2014-01-01 Anthropologists criticize some components of bioethics because of their abstract principles derived from arm chair philosophy and lack of cross cultural analysis and ethnocentric view for that they prepare a readymade ethical code of conduct which may differ significantly from culture to culture This volume aims to investigate such area of bioethics which may criticize in the light of anthropological fieldwork The work also finds some area of bioethics to study cultural construct of morality including cross cultural analysis keeping in mind cultural relativism in true sense The present work is an outcome of national seminar entitled Ethical Issues in Anthropological Research organized by Department of Anthropology West Bengal State University during 19 20 January 2012 Hope this work will be of interest not only to anthropologists or scholars of related field but also funding agencies and participant beneficiaries of the said field

Doing Cultural Geography Pamela Shurmer-Smith, 2002-03-28 Doing Cultural Geography is an introduction to cultural geography that integrates theoretical discussion with applied examples The emphasis throughout is on doing Recognizing that many undergraduates have difficulty with both theory and methods courses the text demystifies the theory informing cultural geography and encourages students to engage directly with theory in practice It emphasizes what can be done with humanist Marxist poststructuralist feminist and postcolonial theory demonstrating that this is the best way to prompt

students to engage with the otherwise daunting theoretical literature

Critical Journeys

Geert De Neve, Maya Unnithan-Kumar, 2016-04-22 Through an ethnography of ethnographers this volume explores the varied ways in which anthropologists become and remain attracted to the discipline The contributors reflect on the initial preconceptions assumptions and expectations of themselves as young anthropologists and on the ways in which early decisions are made about fieldwork and about the selection of field locations They question how fieldworkers come to understand what anthropology is both as a profession and as a personal experience through their commitments in the field in academic departments and in contexts where their specialist knowledge is called upon and applied They discuss the nature of reflexivity that emerges out of anthropological practices and the ways in which this reflexivity affects ethnographic practices Providing reflections on fieldwork in such diverse places as Alaska Melanesia New York and India the volume critically reflects on the field as a culturally constructed site with blurred boundaries that allow the personal and the professional to permeate each other It addresses the politics of location that shape the anthropologists involvement in the field in teaching rooms in development projects and in activist engagements The journeys described extend beyond the field and into interdisciplinary projects commissions colleges and personal spheres These original and critical contributions provide fascinating insights into the relationship between anthropologists and the nature of the discipline

Handbook of Interview

Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2002 The Handbook of Interview Research is the most ambitious attempt yet at examining the place of the interview in contemporary society Interviewing is the predominant mode of research in the social sciences It is also the stock in trade of information seekers in organizations and institutions of all kinds as well as in the mass media Across the board interviews provide today's leading window on the world of experience The Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of professional disciplines this book addresses conceptual and technical challenges that confront both academic researchers and interviewers with more applied goals From interview theory to the nuts and bolts of the interview process the coverage is impressively broad and authoritative The Handbook of Interview Research is both encyclopedic and thematic As an encyclopedia it provides extensive discussions of the methodological issues now surrounding interview practice offering a multi faceted assessment of what has become the method of choice for obtaining personal information in today's society But the Handbook also is a story which spins a particular tale of interviewing one that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview to what is called the interview society The gist of the presentation is that we can no longer regard the interview as simply an instrument for gathering data but must now also view it an integral part of society
