Benedict Cumberbatch: Transition Completed Lynnette Porter,2014-11-21 Star Trek Into Darkness The Fifth Estate 12 Years a Slave August Osage County The Hobbit The Desolation of Smaug these would be milestones in most actors entire career For Benedict Cumberbatch roles in these films are merely a year s additions to his already vast resume 2013 proved to be the final step in Cumberbatch s transition from respected working actor to bona fide worldwide celebrity and recipient of BAFTA Los Angeles Britannia Award for British Artist of the Year Like its predecessor Benedict Cumberbatch In Transition MX Publishing 2013 Benedict Cumberbatch Transition Completed Films Fame Fans explores the nature of Cumberbatch s fame and fandom while analysing his most recent roles This in depth performance biography does more than critique the actor s radio stage film and television performances especially his star turn in the long awaited yet controversial third series of Sherlock It also analyses how and why the actor s work is so memorable in each role a perspective unique to this performance biography Cumberbatch s role in popular culture as much as his acting in multiple media is well worth such scrutiny to illustrate that Benedict Cumberbatch represents both the best of acting and of the power of celebrity Politics and the Internet in Comparative Context Paul Nixon,Rajash Rawal,Dan Mercea,2013-07-24 For many years now we have witnessed the developing use of the internet and associated technologies by political actors and organisations Claims and counter claims have been made as its suitability as a tool to help in the struggle to re invigorate political participation in democracies across the globe has been contested This book charts the shifting sands of political activity in the digital age It interrogates the hybrid nature of modern politics as online and offline actions blur the boundaries of traditional politics between real life co presence and the booming virtual domain of politics By so doing it critically reflects on the latest scholarship on the subject while concurrently advancing stimulating new insights into it Encapsulating both the range and the diverse velocities of change in different political arenas and geographical locations this volumes seeks to map out a path

if not towards the politics of tomorrow then towards a better comprehension of the politics of today Featuring a range of international and comparative case studies presenting research on the UK US Italy France Spain Romania Africa and China this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Politics and Media Political Communication New Media studies Public Administration Sociology Communication Studies Computing and Information and Communications Technologies Digital World Gillian Youngs, 2013-06-26 The Internet and digital technologies have changed the world we live in and the ways we engage with one another and work and play This is the starting point for this collection which takes analysis of the digital world to the next level exploring the frontiers of digital and creative transformations and mapping their future directions It brings together a distinctive collection of leading academics social innovators activists policy specialists and digital and creative practitioners to discuss and address the challenges and opportunities in the contemporary digital and creative economy Contributions explain the workings of the digital world through three main themes connectivity creativity and rights They combine theoretical and conceptual discussions with real world examples of new technologies and technological and creative processes and their impacts Discussions range across political economic and cultural areas and assess national contexts including the UK and China Areas covered include digital identity and empowerment the Internet and the Fifth Estate social media and the Arab Spring digital storytelling transmedia and audience economic and social innovation digital inclusion community and online curation cyberqueer activism The volume developed out of a UK Economic and Social Research Council funded research seminar series Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures Masha Salazkina, Enrique Fibla-Gutiérrez, 2021-01-05 For too long the field of amateur cinema has focused on North America and Europe In Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures however editors Masha Salazkina and Enrique Fibla Gutiérrez fill the literature gap by extending that focus and increasing inclusivity Through carefully curated essays Salazkina and Fibla Gutiérrez bring wider meaning and significance to the discipline through their study of alternative cinema in new territories fueled by different historical and political circumstances innovative technologies and ambitious practitioners The essays in this volume work to realize the radical societal democratization that shows up in amateur cinema around the world In particular diverse contributors highlight the significance of amateur filmmaking the exhibition of amateur films the uses and availability of film technologies and the inventive and creative approaches of filmmakers and advocates of amateur film Together these essays shed new light on alternative cinema in a wide range of cities and countries where amateur films thrive in the shadow of commercial and conventional film industries Theatre, Media and National Integration in a Globalising World Liwhu Betiang, Esekong H. Andrew-Essien, 2022-06-27 Every social change engenders new models and paradigms to manage evolving conflicts The colonial configuration and post colonial contradictions globalising tensions and local efforts at democratisation and development have escalated the threat of national disintegration in Nigeria This book shows how the cultural instruments of theatre and media can be used to provide viable options for negotiating the contradictions of the nation state within the fluxes of global re configuration Beyond expanding the literature of how theatre and media have been deployed for differing interventions the methods and articulation here provide statesmen politicians and policy makers who want to look for alternative methods for national engineering for viable nationhood Like the Freirean legislative theatre method this book builds on the creative potentialities of people s cultural resources to galvanise the nation state Beyond this the globalising era creates a common global community despite discordant local effects and reactions the experiences documented from Nigeria in the global South will provide possible models for similar global settings The candour and frankness of the contributors to this book make it irresistibly inviting reading

Press Freedom as an International Human Right Wiebke Lamer, 2018-02-27 This book examines why press freedom has not become part of the established international human rights debate despite its centrality to democratic theory It argues that an unrestricted press is not just an important economic actor but also an influential power in the political process a status that interferes with government interests of sustaining their own power and influence Despite the popularity of ideational explanations in the field of human rights studies in the case of promoting press freedom considerations of power and strategic interests rather than ideas dominate state behavior The author makes the case that the current place of press freedom in the human rights debate needs to be rethought not only in developing countries but in liberal democracies as well

Media Corruption in the Age of Information Edward H. Spence, 2021-05-21 This book provides an applied model of corruption to identify analyse and assess the ethics of major types of corruption in the media involving practices such as cash for comment media release journalism including video news releases VNRs fake news deep fakes and staged news The book starts with a conceptual philosophical analysis of corruption in general followed by an in depth analysis of media corruption across its various transformations from the legacy media of the 4th Estate e g The UK Guardian to the digital media of the 5th Estate e g Social Media and Wikileaks to the Network Media of the 6th Estate e g Facebook and Google and provides key case studies as practical illustrations and contextualisation of those major types of media corruption It explains how the conversion of the two forms of media communication corporate and social digital communication as expressed in the symbiotic relationship between the 4th Estate and the 5th Estate exposes and enables the reporting of corruption signalling a major shift in the way the media itself can provide an effective means for anti corruption measures against major practices of corruption that would have otherwise gone unnoticed
