Fifty Years In The Minnesota North Country:

Fifty Years in the Minnesota North Country Ingvald Walter Stevens, 1984 This book chronicles the life of Ingvald Stevens through the 50 years he lived on an island in Namakan Lake The book is composed of excerpts taken from notes he wrote about his experiences at Pine Cove Title page verso

North Country Jon K. Lauck, Gleaves Whitney, 2023-05-04 Travel north from the upper Midwest's metropolises and before long you're Up North a region that's hard to define but unmistakable to any resident or tourist Crops give way to forests mines or their remains mark the landscape and lakes multiply becoming ever clearer until you reach the vastness of the Great Lakes How to characterize this region as distinct from the agrarian Midwest is the question North Country seeks to answer as a congenial group of scholars journalists and public intellectuals explores the distinctive landscape culture and history that define the northern margins of the American Midwest From the glacial past to the present day these essays range across the histories of the Dakota and Ojibwe people colonial imperial rivalries and immigration and conflicts between the economic imperatives of resource extraction and the stewardship of nature The book also considers literary treatments of the area and arguably makes its own contributions to that literature as some of the authors search for the North Country through personal essays while others highlight individuals who are identified with the area like Sigurd Olson John Barlow Martin and Russell Kirk From the fur trade to tourism fisheries to supper clubs Finnish settlers to Native treaty rights the nature of the North Country emerges here in all its variety and particularity as clearly distinct from the greater Midwest as it is part of the American heartland

North Country Mary Lethert Wingerd, 2010-06-07 In 1862 four years after Minnesota was ratified as the thirty second state in the Union simmering tensions between indigenous Dakota and white settlers culminated in the violent six week long U S Dakota War Hundreds of lives were lost on both sides and the war ended with the execution of thirty eight Dakotas on December 26 1862 in Mankato Minnesota the largest mass execution in American history The following April after suffering a long internment at Fort Snelling the Dakota and Winnebago peoples were forcefully removed to South Dakota precipitating the near destruction of the area's native communities while simultaneously laying the foundation for what we know and recognize today as Minnesota In North Country The Making of Minnesota Mary Lethert Wingerd unlocks the complex origins of the state origins that have often been ignored in favor of legend and a far more benign narrative of immigration settlement and cultural exchange Moving from the earliest years of contact between Europeans and the indigenous peoples of the western Great Lakes region to the era of French and British influence during the fur trade and beyond Wingerd charts how for two centuries prior to official statehood Native people and Europeans in the region maintained a hesitant largely cobeneficial relationship Founded on intermarriage kinship and trade between the two parties this racially hybridized society was a meeting point for cultural and economic exchange until the western expansion of American capitalism and violation of treaties by the U S government during the 1850s wore sharply at this tremulous bond ultimately leading to what Wingerd calls Minnesota's Civil War A cornerstone text in the chronicle of Minnesota's history Wingerd's narrative is augmented by more than 170 illustrations chosen and described by Kirsten Delegard in comprehensive captions that depict the fascinating often haunting representations of the region and its inhabitants over two and a half centuries North Country is the unflinching account of how the land the Dakota named Mini Sota Makoce became the State of Minnesota and of the people who have called it at one time or another home

Origins and the Next 50 Years Robert Shapiro, 1997-01-01 The accounts given by extraterrestrials in this volume are about events that occurred in our solar system many millions of years ago In that ancient time the solar system consisted of four planets and four radiar systems that orbited the central sun The four planets of the solar system are known today as Venus Earth Mars and a now totally shattered world that was called Maldec The term radiar applies to the astronomical bodies we presently call Jupiter Saturn Uranus and Neptune The original satellites of these radiars are generally called moons by Earth astronomers but the extraterrestrials prefer to call them planetoids This book reflects the personal views of a number of different types of extraterrestrials regarding the state of the local solar system and the state of the Earth

North Country Howard Frank Mosher, 2014-07-29 A richly observant memoir of a coast to coast journey along the US Canada border An armchair traveler's delight Kirkus Reviews Part travelogue part memoir part meditation part exploration North Country is an account of a trip along the northern border of the United States in search of the country's last unspoiled frontiers The Boston Sunday Globe In this vast sparsely settled territory Howard Frank Mosher found both a harsh and beautiful landscape and some of the continent's most independent men and women Here he brings this remote area to vivid life in a book bright with anecdote and history and lore and most importantly with affection for his human subjects Richard Ford Pulitzer Prize winning author of Independence Day A classic road book You could with confidence place this book on the shelf next to such American classics as John Steinbeck's Travels with Charley and Jonathan Raban's Old Glory Detroit Free Press What Mosher's northern journey is really about is our society's loss of Eden the garden we were promised when we came here The garden we've turned into pulp fiction and rocket ranges The very fact that this brave book can stir up so many thoughts about the predicaments of civilization is surely an indication that it is well worth reading Ottawa Citizen

Song of the North Country David Pichaske, 2010-04-08 A remarkably fresh piece of Dylan scholarship focusing on the profound impact that his Midwestern roots have had on his songs politics and prophetic character

Beneath the Surface Bruce M. Carlson, 2010-01-15 A wonderfully readable mix of natural history biology lake dynamics and fishing tips this beautiful illustrated volume reveals the fascinating underwater world of a north country lake

A Country Doctor's Journal Roger A. MacDonald, 2007-07-16 Join Dr Roger MacDonald as he makes rural house calls responds to unique medical emergencies and experiences heartbreaking tragedies Share his triumphs and trials as he chronicles 46 years of medical practice in locations ranging from the wild northwoods to idyllic farm country The collection of short stories highlights the rich history of America's iconic country doctor who carried a black satchel happily made house

Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources,1977 The Children of Lincoln William D. Green,2018-10-23 How white advocates of emancipation abandoned African American causes in the dark days of Reconstruction told through the stories of four Minnesotans White people Frederick Douglass said in a speech in 1876 were the children of Lincoln while black people were at best his stepchildren Emancipation became the law of the land and white champions of African Americans in the state were suddenly turning to other causes regardless of the worsening circumstances of black Minnesotans Through four of these children of Lincoln in Minnesota William D Green s book brings to light a little known but critical chapter in the state s history as it intersects with the broader account of race in America In a narrative spanning the years of the Civil War and Reconstruction the lives of these four Minnesotans mark the era s most significant moments in the state the Midwest and the nation for the Republican Party the Baptist church women s suffrage and Native Americans Morton Wilkinson the state s first Republican senator Daniel Merrill a St Paul business leader who helped launch the first Black Baptist church Sarah Burger Stearns founder and first president of the Minnesota Woman Suffragist Association and Thomas Montgomery an immigrant farmer who served in the Colored Regiments in the Civil War each played a part in securing the rights of African Americans and each abandoned the fight as the forces of hatred and prejudice increasingly threatened those hard won rights Moving from early St Paul and Fort Snelling to the Civil War and beyond The Children of Lincoln reveals a pattern of racial paternalism describing how even enlightened white Northerners fatigued with the Negro Problem would come to embrace policies that reinforced a notion of black inferiority Together their lives so differently and deeply connected with nineteenth century race relations create a telling portrait of Minnesota as a microcosm of America during the tumultuous years of Reconstruction
