Fighting for Survival Christy Martin, Ron Borges, 2022-06-22 If you were riveted by the Netflix documentary Untold Deal with the Devil find out Christy Martin's whole story in this fascinating autobiography Boxing legend Christy Martin was a trailblazer in the ring and continues to be an inspiration to female fighters across the globe She is without a doubt the most important woman in the history of female combat sports But behind the scenes Martin was in a losing battle unable to express her true sexual identity and struggling to survive sexual and domestic abuse at the hands of her husband In Fighting for Survival My Journey through Boxing Fame Abuse Murder and Resurrection Christy Martin recounts her harrowing yet inspiring story Growing up in a small town in West Virginia Martin felt forced to keep her sexual orientation hidden to please her family and the sports world eventually agreeing to a sham marriage with coach Jim Martin While she rose to prominence in the world of boxing Martin was secretly contending with substance abuse domestic violence and an attempted murder by her husband who left her to die on their bedroom floor

Fighting for Survival reveals how Martin battled back to life from her near death experience how she overcame abuse violence addiction and 40 years of living in the closet and how she turned her pain into victory and debasement into triumph Her story is one of hope and self belief an inspiration for anyone struggling to break the chain of abuse or who fears to be open about their sexual orientation It is more than the story of a boxing champion it is the story of a survivor Fighting for Citizenship Brian Taylor,2020-08-03 In Fighting for Citizenship Brian Taylor complicates existing interpretations of why black men fought in the Civil War Civil War era African Americans recognized the urgency of a core political concern how best to use the opportunity presented by this conflict over slavery to win abolition and secure enduring black rights goals that had eluded earlier generations of black veterans Some like Frederick Douglass urged immediate enlistment to support the cause of emancipation hoping that a Northern victory would bring about the end of slavery But others counseled patience and negotiation drawing on a historical memory of unfulfilled promises for black military service in previous American wars and encouraging black men to leverage their position to demand abolition and equal citizenship In doing this they also began redefining what it meant to be a black man who fights for the United States These debates over African Americans enlistment expose a formative moment in the development of American citizenship black Northerners key demand was that military service earn full American citizenship a term that had no precise definition prior to the Fourteenth Amendment In articulating this demand Taylor argues black Northerners participated in the remaking of American citizenship itself unquestionably one of the war s most important results Who Fights for Reputation Keren Yarhi-Milo,2018-09-11 How psychology explains why a leader is willing to use military force to protect or salvage reputation In Who Fights for Reputation Keren Yarhi Milo provides an original framework based on insights from psychology to explain why some political leaders are more willing to use military force to defend their reputation than others Rather than focusing on a leader s background beliefs bargaining skills or biases Yarhi Milo draws a systematic link between a trait called self monitoring and foreign policy behavior She examines self monitoring among national leaders and advisers and shows that while high self monitors modify their behavior strategically to cultivate image enhancing status low self monitors are less likely to change their behavior in response to reputation concerns Exploring self monitoring through case studies of foreign policy crises during the terms of U S presidents Carter Reagan and Clinton Yarhi Milo disproves the notion that hawks are always more likely than doves to fight for reputation Instead Yarhi Milo demonstrates that a decision maker s propensity for impression management is directly associated with the use of force to restore a reputation for resolve on the international stage Who Fights for Reputation offers a brand new understanding of the pivotal influence that psychological factors have on political leadership military engagement and the protection of public prestige Thomas D.
