Fighting For Life Contest Sexuality And Consciousness:

Fighting for Life Walter J. Ong, 2013-02-14 What accounts for the popularity of the macho image the fanaticism of sports enthusiasts and the perennial appeal of Don Quixote's ineffectual struggles In Fighting for Life Walter J. Ong addresses these and related questions offering insight into the role of competition in human existence Focusing on the ways in which human life is affected by contest Ong argues that the male agonistic drive finds an outlet in games as divergent as football and chess Demonstrating the importance of contest in biological evolution and in the growth of consciousness out of the unconscious Ong also shows how adversary procedure has affected social linguistic and intellectual history He discusses shifting patterns of contest in such arenas as spectator sports politics business academia and religion Human beings' internalization of agonistic drives he concludes can foster the deeper discovery of the self and of distinctively human freedom

Contest(ed) Writing Mary Lamb, 2013-01-14 This collection is about writing contests a vibrant rhetorical practice traceable to rhetorical performances in ancient Greece In their discussion of contests cultural work the scholars who have contributed to this collection uncover important questions about our practices For example educational contests as epideictic rhetoric do indeed celebrate writing but does this celebration merely relieve educators of the responsibility of finding ways for all writers to succeed Contests designed to reward single winners and singly authored works admirably celebrate hard work but do they over emphasize exceptional individual achievement over shared goals and communal reward for success Taking a cultural rhetorical approach to contests each chapter demonstrates the cultural work the contests accomplish The essays in Part I examine contests and riddles in classical Greek and Roman periods educational contests in eighteenth century Scotland and the Lyceum movement in the Antebellum American South The next set of essays discusses how contests leverage competition and reward in educational settings medieval universities American turn of the century women's colleges twenty first century scholarship essay contests and writing contests for speakers of other languages at the University of Portsmouth The last set of essays examines popular contests including poetry contests in Youth Spoken Word popular American contests designed by marketers and twenty first century podcasting competitions This collection then takes up contests as a cultural marker of our values assumptions and relationships to writing contests and competition

God Encountered Frans Jozef van Beeck, Frans J. Van Beeck, 1999-12 God Encountered A Contemporary Catholic Systematic Theology Volume Two 4 Forensic Fictions Jay Watson, 2008-11-01 Forensic Fictions is the first book length critical study of William Faulkner's fictional depictions of the legal vocation and the practice of law Examining Faulkner's lawyer characters in light of the southern storytelling tradition Jay Watson argues that the forensic competence of the Faulknerian lawyer is a direct function of his skill as a raconteur To trace the biographical and historical roots of Faulkner's lifelong preoccupation with the legal profession Watson draws on contemporary scholarship in narrative rhetoric jurisprudence legal and intellectual history literary theory and Lacanian psychoanalysis His approach yields insightful

readings of forensic characters and scenes from such works as An Odor of Verbena The Hamlet Wild Palms Absalom Absalom and The Reivers Watson shows the links between storytelling and the competence of Faulkner's legal characters by examining the intertextual logic that connects the two most important lawyers in the Yoknapatawpha fiction the incompetent Horace Benbow and the more capable Gavin Stevens whose entrance into Faulkner's oeuvre coincides with Benbow's untimely departure from it Focusing on the nine novels in which these two characters appear Watson traces the evolutionary process by which Stevens supplants Benbow Three of the Stevens novels Intruder in the Dust Knight's Gambit and Requiem for a Nun from what Watson calls Faulkner's forensic trilogy and when read together constitute the writer's most sustained investigation of the rhetorical and ethical responsibilities of the lawyer citizen Faulkner Watson argues saw the forensic figure as a potential hybrid of homo loquens and homo politicus capable of combining the roles of storyteller rhetorician and theatrical performer with those of critic citizen and ethical man As such this figure served as a provocative authorial surrogate through whom Faulkner could explore diverse and often contradictory aspects of his personal experience his family background his cultural heritage and most of all his own artistic use of language
