Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell,2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France Catalogue ,1883 Portraits of Celebrated Women, with Brief Biographies, Edited by Rev. D. W. Clark Davis Wasgatt Clark,1863 Approaches to Teaching Sand's Indiana David A. Powell, Pratima Prasad, 2015-12-01 Indiana George Sand's first solo novel opens with the eponymous heroine brooding and bored in her husband's French countryside estate far from her native le Bourbon now Réunion Written in 1832 the novel appeared during a period of French history marked by revolution and regime change civil unrest and labor concerns and slave revolts and the abolitionist movement when women faced rigid social constraints and had limited rights within the institution of marriage With this politically charged history serving as a backdrop for the novel Sand brings together Romanticism realism and the idealism that would characterize her work presenting what was deemed by her contemporaries a faithful and candid representation of nineteenth century France This volume gathers pedagogical essays that will enhance the teaching of Indiana and contribute to students understanding and appreciation of the novel The first part gives an overview of editions and translations of the novel and recommends useful background readings Contributors to the second part present various approaches to the novel focusing on four themes modes of literary narration gender and feminism slavery and colonialism and historical and political upheaval Each essay offers a fresh perspective on Indiana suited not only to courses on French Romanticism and realism but also to interdisciplinary discussions of French colonial history or law Catalogue of the Ames Free Library, North Easton, Massachusetts Ames Free Library (Easton, Mass.), 1883 Catalogue of the Ames Free Library, North Easton, Massachusetts Anonymous, 2024-02-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 A princess of Jutedom Charles Gibbon, 1886 Finding-list of Books in the Classes of Biography, History, and Travels Belonging to the Public Library of Indianapolis Indianapolis Public Library, 1890 Atla Mrs. J. of biographical portraiture James's early biography of Nathaniel Hawthorne and his much later group biography William Wetmore Story and His Friends and Stein's celebrated Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas and her largely forgotten Four in America which comprises biographies of Ulysses S. Grant, Wilbur Wright, Henry James, and George Washington. The first comparative study of these two great expatriate writers, Henry James, Gertrude Stein, and the Biographical Act addresses questions of art, influence, and literary culture by analyzing important biographical portraits that themselves address the same questions.
