Georges Duhamel:

Critic of Civilization L. Clark Keating, 2021-12-14 As one of the outstanding minds of France the career of George Duhamel reflects the universal range of his interests A physician turned poet playwright novelist publicist critic and world traveler Duhamel for half a century has sought as a liberal humanist to defend the moral and aesthetic values of Western civilization against the encroachment of a dehumanizing machine age Duhamel first achieved fame as a writer with two eloquent outcries against war in Vie des Martyrs and Civilisation written while he was a front line surgeon during World War I His later plays and novels continued to deal with the search of the individual for identity in contemporary life especially in the Salavin series and the ten volume Chronique des Pasquier his outstanding works of fiction Among the commentaries on other cultures arising from his travels Duhamel's scathing criticism of the United States in Scenes de la vie future aroused particular furor It is in Duhamel's feeling for humanity Mr Keating believes that one may discover the consistent pattern in Duhamel's work essentially the passionate reaction of a surgeon artist to the cruelties of a war torn world In this critical biography of Duhamel as writer and thinker Mr Keating therefore relates all of Duhamel's many sided activities to his underlying purpose to find a path for individual happiness in the complexities of contemporary life *Georges Duhamel, 1881-1966. even closer to Cooper in the draft of a hitherto unpublished letter probably intended for this book which illustrates Cooper's grasp of the still finer points of French customs and attitudes Georges Duhamel, 1967 Georges Duhamel Bettina L.
