Georges Rodenbach Critical Essays:

Georges Rodenbach Philip Mosley, 1996 His pervasive interest in Bruges suffuses his work with the quiet spiritual atmosphere of the dead city a theme frequently evoked by writers of the fin de siècle The Historical Imagination in Nineteenth-Century Britain and the Low Countries Hugh Dunthorne, Michael Wintle, 2012-11-01 The 19th century laid the foundations of history both professional and popular The authors of this collection compare Britain the Netherlands and Belgium unearthing the ways in which history was conceived and then utilized usually for nationalistic purposes Beauty Raises the Dead Robert Ziegler, 2002 Drawing on psychoanalytic studies of mourning from Freud and Melanie Klein to Donald Winnicott and Nicolas Abraham and Maria Torok Beauty Raises the Dead examines the unique way in which the Decadents defined loss as a precondition to literary creation BOOK JACKET Domestic Space in France and Belgium Claire Moran, 2022-01-13 Domestic Space in France and Belgium offers a new addition to the growing body of work in Interior Studies Focused on late 19th and early 20th century France and Belgium it addresses an overlooked area of modernity the domestic sphere and its conception and representation in art literature and material culture Scholars from the US UK France Italy Canada and Belgium offer fresh and exciting interpretations of artworks texts and modern homes Comparative and interdisciplinary it shows through a series of case studies in literature art and architecture how modernity was expressed through domestic life at the turn of the century in France and Belgium Finding the Plot Loïc Artiago, Diana Holmes, David Platten, 2014-08-11 Plot writes Peter Brooks is so basic to our very experience of reading and indeed to our articulation of experience in general that criticism has often passed it over in silence Reading for the Plot xi Finding the Plot both explores and helps to redress this critical neglect The book brings together an international group of scholars to address the nature effects and specific pleasures of consuming stories If the central focus is on France and popular literary fiction the book's scope like contemporary fiction itself observes no national frontiers and extends across a variety of media The book addresses both the empirical question of which genres and types of text have been and are most popular and the theoretical questions of how plots work what pleasures they offer to readers and why it matters that the plot should not be lost

Asymptote Robert Ziegler, 2009-01-01 Asymptote An Approach to Decadent Fiction offers a radically new approach to the psychology of Decadent creation Rejecting traditional arguments that Decadence is a celebration of deviance and exhaustion this study presents the fin de siècle novel as a transformative process a quest for health By allowing the writer to project into fiction unwanted traits and destructive tendencies by permitting the playful invention of provisional identities Decadent creation itself becomes a dynamic act of creative regeneration In describing the interrelationship of Decadent authors and their fictions Asymptote uses the mathematical figure of the asymptote to show how they converge then split apart and grow distant The author's approach to the facsimile selves he plays with and discards is the curve that never merges with his authorial identity In successive chapters this study describes the Decadents experimentation with perversion Huysmans's A rebours and Mendes's Zo har and their subsequent validation of social regulation and creative discipline It examines magic and its appeal to fantasies of elitism and omnipotence P ladan's Le Vice supreme and Villiers's Ax l then shows authors embracing the values of community and service It considers the Decadent text as a vehicle of change in which an artist ventilates fantasies of aggression and revenge Mirbeau's Le Journal d'une femme de chambre and Rachilde's La Marquise de Sade then employs writing as the means by which these feelings are discharged It examines creation as a form of play une ali nation gr ce laquelle l'esprit se r cup re sous la forme des autres Schwob's Vies imaginaires and Lorrain's Histoires de masques yet notes the Decadents' decision to return to a single generative center Finally it examines creation as an expression of artistic transience and failure yet shows the Decadents' success in commemorating the very forces of disintegration Rodenbach's L'Art en exil In considering the Decadents' insistence on subjectivism and aloneness this study concludes Gourmont's Sixtine by showing their wish to escape the prison of identity and to redefine their art as cooperative creation

Decadence and Modernism in European and Russian Literature and Culture Jonathan Stone, 2019-12-12

Decadence and Modernism in European and Russian Literature and Culture Aesthetics and Anxiety in the 1890s rewrites the story of early modernist literature and culture by drawing out the tensions underlying its simultaneous engagement with Decadence and Symbolism the unsustainable combination of this world and the other With a broadly framed literary and cultural approach Jonathan Stone examines a shift in perspective that explodes the notion of reality and showcases the uneasy relationship between the tangible and intangible aspects of the surrounding world Modernism quenches a growing fascination with the ephemeral and that which cannot be seen while also doubling down on the significance of the material world and finding profound meaning in the physical and the corporeal Decadence and Symbolism complement the broader historical trajectory of the fin de si cle by affirming the novelty of a modernist mindset and offering an alternative to the empirical and positivistic atmosphere of the nineteenth century Stone seeks to recreate a significant historical and cultural moment in the development of modernity a moment that embraces the concept of Decadence while repurposing its aesthetic and social import to help navigate the fundamental changes that accompanied the dawn of the twentieth century

Intersections of Space and Ethos Kyriaki Tsoukala, Nikolaos-Ion Terzoglou, Charikleia Pantelidou, 2014-12-05 The pressing economic environmental and social crises emanate the need for a redefinition of the dominant views perspectives and values in the field of architecture The intellectual production of the last two decades has witnessed an impressive number of new design techniques and conceptual displacements reflecting the dynamic and fluid relation between man and his dwelling space However the contemporary market forces are favouring the growth of a star system in architectural production based on technological innovation spectacular imagery and formal acrobatics and are neglecting the social environmental and moral implications of spatial design Perhaps the time has come to think anew the possible critical intersections between space and ethos not only as an answer to the negative consequences of Modernity but also as a remedy to the negative aspects of globalisation The aim of the present collective volume is to enliven the ethical dimensions and dilemmas of architecture as they are shaped within the complexity of our times on two levels the level of critical and reflective discourse and the level of social and cultural reality occasioned by post industrial modes of production and new technologies Thirteen distinguished academics and researchers investigate the complex relations between architecture space and ethics from divergent and inter disciplinary perspectives philosophy sociology the humanities the arts landscape design environmental design urban design and architectural history and theory
