Office of Education,1913 Party Leaders in Eastern Europe Sergiu Gherghina,2019-11-23 This book explores the relationship between the personality of political leaders its interaction with top leadership positions and its impact on the respective parties electoral performance and organization It focuses on the less investigated region of Eastern Europe and includes chapters on Bosnia Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia Czech Republic Georgia Hungary Poland Montenegro Romania Serbia and Slovakia Each chapter compares and contrasts two party leaders with at least two terms in office between 1991 and 2019 The book applies systematically a common theoretical and methodological framework across leaders and countries thus providing rich empirical evidence Regional Leadership in Post-Soviet Eurasia Irina Busygina,Svetlana Krivokhizh,2023-05-22 This book explores power in international relations in a world characterized by the growing competition of major powers for smaller nations Focusing on the major powers and smaller countries of Eurasia it argues that power in international relations is different from coercion and is rather a social contract between a leader state and follower states where reciprocity is key and where leadership relationships cannot be adequately explained by focusing solely on the leader It challenges the perception that genuine regional leadership is quite common contending instead that it is rare that much more often major powers make claims for leadership and that regional leadership does not indicate the status of a particular state but rather the social role of the leader which is recognized by its followers a role which is always relative and based on communication and constant interaction with followers The book highlights the important role followers play in recognizing regional power the importance for a state s regional leadership strategy in creating and holding a valuable position attractive for followers and delivering greater value to followers compared to other potential leaders Ukraine Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP
