AGARD Lecture Series, 199?      The Bookseller, 1976      Ground/flight Test Techniques and Correlation North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Advisory Group for Aerospace Research and Development, 1983      Talking Anarchy Colin Ward, David Goodway, 2014-01-01 Of all political views anarchism is the most ill represented For more than thirty years in over thirty books Colin Ward patiently explained anarchist solutions to everything from vandalism to climate change and celebrated unofficial uses of the landscape as commons from holiday camps to squatter communities Ward was an anarchist journalist and editor for almost sixty years most famously editing the journal Anarchy He was also a columnist for New Statesman New Society Freedom and Town and Country Planning In Talking Anarchy Colin Ward discusses with David Goodway the ups and downs of the anarchist movement during the last century including the many famous characters who were anarchists or associated with the movement including Herbert Read Alex Comfort Marie Louise Berneri Paul Goodman Noam Chomsky and George Orwell      Local Places, Global Processes Peter Coates, David Moon, Paul Warde, 2016-02-29 We live in an age of unprecedented environmental change global interconnected and universal Yet though our lives are inextricably connected to global processes and increasingly mobile we still live in particular places Our perceptions of change and what kind of change might be for good or ill are shaped by the interaction of localised experience and the wider forces of transformation Local Places Global Processes examines how these relationships have been shaped in Britain over time in three ways First through essays addressing influential ways of understanding and debating questions of the state of nature These are complemented by case studies on conservation landscape change and management and how perceptions of environmental change have emerged or been discarded over time Chapters also draw on a series of site based workshops that brought together historians landscape managers and artists to discuss and reflect on particular sites Wicken Fen in Cambridgeshire owned by the National Trust and the first British nature reserve the Quantock Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in Somerset England's first AONB and a landscape enriched by Romantic association and the landscape of Kielder Water and Forest a land of superlatives in Northumberland in north eastern England the largest planted forest and artificial lake in northern Europe The multi disciplinary approach draws together the exchanges artworks and writing assembled at these workshops and afterwards This opens up how being in a place and engaging with ideas attached to it shape perceptions of the environment It provides resources with which landscape managers can think about their tasks and engage various publics in discussion about future environments in light of these histories of place Rather than a history of these three places this is history written from them      Book Catalog of the Library and Information Services Division: Author-title-series indexes Environmental Science Information Center. Library and Information Services Division, 1977      Clandestine Marriage Theresa M. Kelley, 2012-11-15 Botany in the romantic era played a role in debates about life nature and knowledge as evidenced in this ambitious beautifully illustrated study Winner 2012 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize Romanticism was a cultural and intellectual movement characterized by discovery revolution and the poetic as well as by the philosophical relationship between people and nature Botany sits at the intersection where romantic scientific and literary discourses meet Clandestine Marriage explores the meaning and methods of how plants were represented and reproduced in scientific literary artistic and material cultures of the period Theresa M Kelley synthesizes romantic debates about taxonomy and morphology the contemporary interest in books and magazines devoted to plant study and images and writings by such authors as Mary Wollstonecraft and Anna Letitia Barbauld Period botanical paintings of flowers are reproduced in vibrant color bringing her argument and the romantics passion for plants to life In addition to exploring botanic thought and practice in the context of British romanticism Kelley also looks to the German philosophical traditions of Kant Hegel and Goethe and to Charles Darwin s reflections on orchids and plant pollination Her interdisciplinary approach allows a deeper understanding of a time when exploration of the natural world was a culture wide enchantment
