Geriatrics and the Law Marshall B. Kapp, Arthur Bigot, 1985      Geriatrics and the Law Marshall B. Kapp, 2004-01-01 cs hlth_prof gerontol      Geriatrics and the Law Marshall B. Kapp, 1999-04-28 The updated Third Edition of Geriatrics and the Law by the leading scholar in law and old age belongs on the desk of every hospital and long term care administrator Director of Nursing and Medical Director It is the most comprehensive volume available on the topic The book provides clearly written legal and ethical principles and their implications and applications Elias S Cohen JD Executive Director Community Services Systems Inc Significant changes in the law are affecting patients rights and professionals responsibilities in providing clinical services to the elderly This edition of Kapp s successful text continues to inform and sensitize health care professionals about the legal issues and offers practical advice and guidance to practitioners in a variety of disciplines The text has been thoroughly updated and where appropriate expanded Topics woven into each chapter include implications of the relevant statutes regulations judicial opinions private guidelines and discussion of new laws This practical book is a valuable and useful resource for practitioners health care students and educators It contains extensive references and a helpful Appendix of Resources      Geriatrics and the Law Marshall B. Kapp, 1992      The Law and Older Persons Marshall B. Kapp, 2003 Therapeutic Jurisprudence TJ is a way of exploring the ways in which the law in practice as opposed to theory can exert positive or negative effects on real people in actual situations This book applies the inquiries of TJ to the areas of geriatrics and gerontology focusing on facets of laws pertaining specifically to older persons in the United States Through a series of thoroughly referenced chapters mixing analytic discussion and case examples Kapp asks such questions as Is legal involvement and intervention in the lives of older persons a good thing for both the intended beneficiaries and society as a whole What is therapeutic jurisprudence and why is it relevant to older Americans What is the intent of the laws pertaining to older persons in such contexts as nursing home and home health care regulation end of life medical decision making regulation of research involving older persons as human subjects the role of consumer choice and control for older persons in selecting among health plans and directing their own long term care guardianship and other interventions for the incapacitated aged employment retirement age discrimination and the professional liability tort system Most importantly when regulation fails what are our best alternatives as advocates for the elderly and for our future selves This book should be a must read for legislators and policy makers dealing with the elderly Advocacy groups for the elderly would also be well served to read this book Margaret Davino Care Management Journals      Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 7 Marshall B. Kapp, 2001-09-24 This book discusses both the real and perceived legal liability context within which health and human service delivery to older persons takes place The benefits and costs of litigious legislative and regulatory interventions on the quality of care and the quality of life for recipients of geriatric services is evaluated      Legal Aspects of Elder Care Marshall B. Kapp, Kapp, 2010-10-25 A wide variety of legal issues surround caring for older individuals Health and human service practitioners need to plan provide and evaluate geriatric care while also understanding public policies. Legal knowledge is an essential part of caring for the elderly. Students and professionals must be able to deliver appropriate care while also being aware of any legal, ethical, and political issues that may arise. Legal Aspects of Elder Care provides a clear overview of geriatric policies and laws, enabling the reader to use informed decision making with older clients.

Theories on Law and Ageing Israel Doron, 2008-09-25. This book is about trying to answer questions. These questions were well introduced by Prof Margaret Hall in the opening of her chapter in this book. The fundamental idea of law and aging as a discrete category of legal principle and theory is controversial. How and why are older adults or seniors or elders the very terminology is controversial and fraught with difficulties. A discrete and distinct group for whom special legal thought and treatment is justified. For some, a category of law and aging is inherently paternalistic, suggesting that older persons are like children, especially in need of the protection of the law. In this sense, the argument continues, the category itself internalizes ageist presumptions about older adults and is therefore inherently flawed and even harmful. If certain older adults are because of physical or mental infirmities genuinely in need of an enhanced level of legal protection, this entitlement should be conceptualized in terms of their disability. Older adults are not a distinct group but an arbitrarily delineated demographic category which contains within it any number of groups that are legitimately distinct for the purposes of legal theory: the disabled, women, persons of colour, Aboriginal persons, rich and poor, etc. Indeed, the artificial category of older adults may be seen as obfuscating, submerging these more meaningful distinctions.

The American Psychiatric Publishing Textbook of Geriatric Neuropsychiatry C. Edward Coffey, Jeffrey L. Cummings, 2011. Rev ed of The American Psychiatric Press textbook of geriatric neuropsychiatry 2nd ed 2000.

The Elderly Martin Lyon Levine, 2017-05-15. Aging is a public health priority that is becoming increasingly important in both developed and less developed nations. With individual health care providers and law makers each facing difficult ethical and policy dilemmas, the complex issues physicians deal with include informed consent and patient decision making, capacity, use of advance care planning, and decision making by family and medical staff and withdrawing and withholding life sustaining interventions. Broader questions include: has aging been over medicalized? Is it ethical for older patients to receive less medical care than younger ones through unspoken practice or formal rationing? Is there inevitable conflict between the generations over scarce medical resources? How should physician, patient, and family confront end of life decisions? How have different nations responded to increasing numbers of the elderly? Have social values changed as to family responsibility and individual autonomy? This volume brings together the most significant published essays in the field.
