Writing Exile: The Discourse of Displacement in Greco-Roman Antiquity and Beyond Jan Felix

Gaertner, 2007-02-28 Exile and displacement are central topics in classical literature. Previous research has been mostly biographical and has focused on the three most prominent exiles: Cicero, Ovid, and Seneca. By shifting focus to a discourse of exile and displacement in early Greek poetry, Greek historiography, Cynicism, consolatory literature, Latin epic, Greek literature of the empire, and Medieval Latin literature, the present volume questions the notion of a distinct psychologically conditioned genre or mode of exile literature. It shows how ancient and medieval authors perceive and present their exile according to pre-existent literary paradigms, style themselves or others as typical exiles, and employ exile as a powerful trope to express estrangement, elicit readerly sympathy, and question political power structures. Writing Exile Jan Felix Gaertner, 2007
The volume explores how Greek and Latin authors perceive and present their own real or metaphorical exile and employ exile as a powerful trope to express estrangement, elicit readerly sympathy, and question political power structures.
