Germany 1945 1949 A Sourcebook:

Germany, 1945-1949 Manfred Malzahn, 1993 Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2014-01-27 Europe Since 1945 An Encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference work of some 1 700 entries in two volumes Its scope includes all of Europe and the successor states to the former Soviet Union The volumes provide a broad coverage of topics with an emphasis on politics governments organizations people and events crucial to an understanding of postwar Europe Also includes 100 maps and photos The Allies and the German Problem, 1941-1949 Andrew Szanajda, 2015-05-05 The Allies and the German Problem 1941 1949 examines Allied policymaking during the Second World War and the military occupation of postwar Germany demonstrating how the initial unity of the Allies disintegrated during the postwar military occupation in the face of their separate goals for postwar Germany and Europe Britain and the German Churches, 1945-1950 Peter Howson, 2021 Explores the ways in which the British Religious Affairs Branch aimed to organise religious life in post war Germany

Endkampf Stephen G. Fritz, 2004-10-08 This thoroughly researched and superbly written study examines the final days of WWII combat within Germany during the occupation of Franconia WWII History At the end of World War II Gen Dwight D Eisenhower turned US forces toward the Franconian region of Germany ordering them to cut off and destroy German units before they could escape into the Alps Opposing this advance were German forces headed by SS Gruppenführer Max Simon a committed National Socialist who advocated merciless resistance Caught in the middle were the people of Franconia Historians have largely overlooked this period of violence and terror but it provides insight into the chaotic nature of life while the Nazi regime was crumbling Neither German civilians nor foreign refugees acted simply as passive victims caught between two fronts Throughout the region people pressured local authorities to end the senseless resistance Others sought revenge for their tribulations in the liberation that followed Stephen G Fritz examines the predicament and perspective of American GI s German soldiers and officials and the civilian population Endkampf is a gripping portrait of the collapse of a society and how it affected those involved whether they were soldiers or civilians victors or vanquished perpetrators or victims Jews, Germans, Memory Y. Michal Bodemann, 1996 Assesses the past present and future of German Jewish relations in light of recent political charges and the opening up of historical resources Recasting West German Elites Michael R. Hayse, 2003-11-01 The rapid shift of German elite groups political loyalties away from Nazism and toward support of the fledgling democracy of the Federal Republic in spite of the continuity of personnel and professional structures has surprised many scholars of postwar Germany The key Hayse argues lies in the peculiar and paradoxical legacy of these groups evasive selective memory by which they cast themselves as victims of the Third Reich rather than its erstwhile supporters The avoidance of responsibility for the crimes and excesses of the Third Reich created a need to demonstrate democratic behavior in the post war public sphere Ultimately this self imposed pressure while based on a falsified selective group memory of the recent past was more important in the long term than the Allies stringent social change policies The

Lost German East Andrew Demshuk, 2012-04-30 After 1945 Germany was inundated with ethnic German refugees expelled from Eastern Europe Andrew Demshuk explores why they integrated into West German society

The Bitter Taste of Victory Lara Feigel, 2016-01-28 As the Second World War neared its conclusion Germany was a nation reduced to rubble 3 6 million German homes had been destroyed leaving 7 5 million people homeless an apocalyptic landscape of flattened cities and desolate wastelands In May 1945 Germany surrendered and Britain America Soviet Russia and France set about rebuilding their zones of occupation Most urgent for the Allies in this divided defeated country were food water and sanitation but from the start they were anxious to provide for the minds as well as the physical needs of the German people Reconstruction was to be cultural as well as practical denazification and re education would be key to future peace and the arts crucial in modelling alternative less militaristic ways of life Germany was to be reborn its citizens as well as its cities were to be reconstructed the mindset of the Third Reich was to be obliterated When later that year twenty two senior Nazis were put in the dock at Nuremberg writers and artists including Rebecca West Evelyn Waugh John Dos Passos and Laura Knight were there to tell the world about a trial intended to ensure that tyrannous dictators could never again enslave the people of Europe And over the next four years many of the foremost writers and filmmakers of their generation were dispatched by Britain and America to help rebuild the country their governments had spent years bombing Among them Ernest Hemingway Martha Gellhorn Marlene Dietrich George Orwell Lee Miller W H Auden Stephen Spender Billy Wilder and Humphrey Jennings The Bitter Taste of Victory traces the experiences of these figures and through their individual stories offers an entirely fresh view of post war Europe Never before told this is a brilliant important and utterly mesmerising history of cultural transformation

Children born of war in the twentieth century Sabine Lee, 2017-08-18 This book explores the life courses of children born of war in different twentieth century conflicts including the Second World War the Vietnam War the Bosnian War the Rwandan Genocide and the LRA conflict It investigates both governmental and military policies vis vis children born of war and their mothers as well as family and local community attitudes building a complex picture of the multi layered challenges faced by many children born of war within their post conflict receptor communities Based on extensive archival research the book also uses oral history and participatory research methods which allow the author to add the voices of the children born of war to historical analysis

Jeanne Mammen Camilla Smith, 2022-10-20 Jeanne Mammen s watercolour images of the gender bending new woman and her candid portrayals of Berlin s thriving nightlife appeared in some of the most influential magazines of the Weimar Republic and are still considered characteristic of much of the glitter of that era This book charts how once the Nazis came into power Mammen instead created degenerate paintings and collages translated prohibited French literature and sculpted in clay and plaster all while hidden away in her tiny studio apartment in the heart of Berlin s fashionable west end What was it like as a woman artist to produce modern art in Nazi Germany Can artworks that were never exhibited in public still make valid claims to protest Camilla Smith examines a wide range of Mammen's dissenting artworks ranging from those created in solitude during inner emigration to her collaboration with artist cabarets after the Second World War Smith's engaging analysis compares Mammen's popular Weimar work to her artistic activities under the radar after 1933 in order to fundamentally rethink the moral complexities of inner emigration and its visual culture The examination of Mammen's life and work demonstrates the crucial role women artists played as both markers and agents of German modernity but the double marginalisation they have nonetheless encountered as inner migrants in recent history It will be of interest to students of German studies art history literature history gender studies and cultural studies Repainting the Little Red Schoolhouse John Rodden, 2002-01-03 This is the first English language study of GDR education and the first book in any language to trace the history of Eastern German education from 1945 through the 1990s Rodden fully relates the GDR's attempt to create a new Marxist nation by means of educational reform and looks not only at the changing institution of education but at something the Germans call Bildung the formation of character and the cultivation of body and spirit The sociology of nation building is also addressed Cinema in Democratizing Germany Heide Fehrenbach, 2000-11-09 Heide Fehrenbach analyzes the important role cinema played in the reconstruction of German cultural and political identity between 1945 and 1962 Concentrating on the former West Germany she explores the complex political uses of film and the meanings attributed to film representation and spectatorship during a period of abrupt transition to democracy According to Fehrenbach the process of national redefinition made cinema and cinematic control a focus of heated ideological debate Moving beyond a narrow political examination of Allied German negotiations she investigates the broader social nexus of popular moviegoing public demonstrations film clubs and municipal festivals She also draws on work in gender and film studies to probe the ways filmmakers students church leaders local politicians and the general public articulated national identity in relation to the challenges posed by military occupation American commercial culture and redefined gender roles Thus highlighting the links between national identity and cultural practice this book provides a richer picture of what German reconstruction entailed for both women and men

Management in Western Europe David J. Hickson, 2015-02-06 Management in Western Europe The End of the Third Reich Toby Thacker, 2008 In January 1943 President Roosevelt with Churchill alongside him proclaimed that the Allies would fight until Germany surrendered unconditionally This book charts the military defeat of Germany in 1944 and 1945 and explores how the Allies tried after the German surrender to destroy Nazism and all it stood for The Holocaust Film Sourcebook: Documentary and propaganda Caroline Joan Picart, 2004 A comprehensive filmography listing fictional narrative films in the first volume and documentary and propaganda films in the second The films listed alphabetically were produced in many different countries The work lists films made during World War II and after including Nazi films Each entry provides bibliographic information a summary of the story and a list of primary and secondary sources Each volume contains a few spotlight essays Partial contents The Radio Hobby, Private Associations, and the Challenge of Modernity in Germany Bruce B. Campbell, 2019-10-18 In the early twentieth century the magic of radio was new revolutionary and poorly understood A powerful symbol of modernity radio was a site where individuals wrestled and came to terms with an often frightening wave of new mass technologies Radio was the object of scientific investigation but more importantly it was the domain of tinkerers hackers citizen scientists and hobbyists This book shows how this wild and mysterious technology was appropriated by ordinary individuals in Germany in the first half of the twentieth century as a leisure activity Clubs and hobby organizations became the locus of this process providing many of the social structures within which individuals could come to grips with radio apart from any media institution or government framework In so doing this book uncovers the vital but often overlooked social context in which technological revolutions unfold Walking Since Daybreak Modris

Eksteins, 2021-05-12 An account of one family's displacement and the tragic history of twentieth century Latvia Lithuania and Estonia Deeply moving Los Angeles Times Winner of the Pearson Prize for Nonfiction The immense cataclysm of World War II devastated the Baltic republics of Lithuania Latvia and Estonia sending many of their inhabitants to the ends of the earth Part history part autobiography Walking Since Daybreak tells the tragic story of the Baltic nations before during and after the war Personal stories of the survival or destruction of Modris Eksteins's family members lend an intimate dimension to this vast narrative of those who have surged back and forth across the lowlands bordering the Baltic Sea In the tradition of books that redefine our historical understanding such as Huizinga's The Waning of the Middle Ages and Burckhardt's The Renaissance in Italy Eksteins's narrative is a haunting portrait of national loss and the struggle of a displaced family caught in the maw of history An authoritative and moving range of historical analysis family legend and memoir The Boston Globe Eksteins has astutely and thrillingly braided together the tortured history of modern Latvia his own personal story of being born there in 1943 and the fate of his family as they and countless millions made their way to and through the refugee camps of postwar Europe The Washington Post Book World This unconventional account of the fate of the Baltic nations is also an important reassessment of WWII and its outcome the pivotal character is Eksteins's maternal great grandmother Grieta The tale of this Latvian chambermaid made pregnant and then rejected by her Baltic German baron serves as a mirror of Latvian German relations over the centuries In addition the family history opens up the subject of displacement and the struggle and hope of the immigrant experience Kirkus Reviews

Black Market, Cold War Paul Steege, 2007-03-05 This book is a history of everyday life and explains how and why Berlin became the symbolic capital of the Cold War Paul Steege anchors his account of this emerging global conflict in the terrain of a city literally shattered by World War II Wiesbaden and the Americans 1945-2003 Anni P.
